Duties and Drawbacks to be in British Currency; and Duties carried to Consolidated Fund, and levied according to Tale, Weight, &c. of Goods.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all the Duties and Drawbacks in this Act and the Schedule hereunto annexed, specified, mentioned, and contained, shall be paid and payable, and received and receivable in British Currency; and that all the said Duties shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and that all the said Duties and Drawbacks in the said Schedule specified, mentioned, and contained, shall be paid and received upon the several Articles and Things in this Act and the said Schedule hereunto annexed, specified, mentioned, and contained, according to the Tale, Weight, Gauge, Measure, or Value of the said Articles respectively specified, and also in proportion upon any greater or less Number, Weight, Quantity, Measure, or Value of such Articles, Matters, and Things respectively.

IX. And

IX. And whereas by the several Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, it was among other Things provided and enacted, that all Duty charged on the Import of Foreign or Colonial Goods into either Country, should, on their Export to the other, be drawn back, or the Amount, if any were retained, should be placed to the Credit of the Country to which they should be exported, so long as the Expenditure of the United Kingdom should be defrayed by proportional Contributions: And whereas, by an Act made in the Fifty-sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to unite and consolidate into One Fund, all the Public Revenues of Great Britain and Ireland, and to provide for the Application thereof to the general Service of the United Kingdom, it is enacted, that from and after the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and seventeen, all Rates, Duties, Taxes, Receipts, Sums of Money, and Revenues, of what Nature or Kind soever, which shall or may constitute or form Part of, or be directed to be carried to the several Funds called the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain and the Consolidated Fund of Ireland respectively, shall be carried to, and shall be and become, and shall form and constitute One general Fund, to be called the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and that the said Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, after Payment and Satisfaction of certain Charges in the said last-recited Act mentioned, shall be indiscriminately applied to the Service of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any Part thereof, as shall be directed by Parliament: And whereas it is expedient to continue the Payment of Drawbacks on the Export of Foreign and Colonial Goods from Ireland to Great Britain; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, all Duties of Customs and Excise charged and paid on the Importation into Ireland of any Foreign or Colonial Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, shall, on the Exportation from Ireland to Great Britain of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, be drawn back, and paid and allowed to the Exporters of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, under and subject to all such Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions as are required by any Act or Acts in force in Ireland immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen.

56 G. 3. c. 98.

A Drawback of the Import Duties on Foreign or Colonial Goods exported from Ireland to Great Britain shall be allowed.

X. And whereas, by several Acts in force in Ireland, Duties of Customs are imposed on certain Foreign Goods, Wares, and Merchandize imported into Ireland directly from the Place of their Growth or Produce, and higher Duties of Customs are imposed on the like Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, if imported not directly from the Place of their Growth or Produce; and it is expedient that the like Duties should be paid on all such Foreign Goods imported into Ireland from Great Britain, as if such Foreign Goods had been imported from Foreign Parts; be it therefore enacted, That on the Importation of any such Foreign Goods, Wares, or Merchandize into Ireland from Great Britain, such Import Duty of Customs shall be paid and payable, as if such Foreign Goods, Wares, or Merchandize had been imported into Ireland from Foreign Parts, either directly from the Place of their Growth or Produce, or not directly from such Place, according as they were in fact at first so imported from Foreign Parts into Great Britain; and that for the Purpose of ascertaining whether Foreign Goods imported into Ireland from Great Britain shall pay the same Duty as if they had been imported direct from Foreign Parts.

Regulations for ascertaining the Place of Growth, &c. of such Goods.

whether any such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize were first imported into Great Britain directly from the Place of their Growth or Produce, or not directly from such Place, it shall be specified and set forth in every Cocket or Clearance of any such Foreign Goods, Wares, or Merchandize exported from Great Britain to Ireland, whether such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize were first imported into Great Britain directly from the Place of their Growth or Produce, or not directly from such Place, and the Import Duty of Customs on such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize shall be payable accordingly on such Goods when imported into Ireland from Great Britain; and if it shall not be expressed and set forth in such Cocket or Clearance of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, whether the same were so first imported into Great Britain directly from the Place of their Growth or Produce, or not directly from such Place, then and in such Case such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize shall be and be deemed liable to such Duties of Customs, on their Importation into Ireland from Great Britain, as if the same had been imported into Ireland from Foreign Parts, not directly from the Place of their Growth or Produce; any thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

Wine in Bottles may be imported for private Use from any Parts within the Limits of the Charter of the East India Company, on Payment of Duty.

XI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, it shall and may be lawful to import into Ireland from any Parts within the Limits of the Charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, any Wine whatever in Bottles for private Use, on Payment of the several and respective Duties, as well of Customs as Excise, due and payable on the Importation of such Wines into Ireland: Provided always, that the Importer of such Wine, or his known Agent or Factor, shall make a Declaration before the Officer of the Customs at the Port of Importation, stating the Nature and Quantity of such Wine, and that the same is for private Use, and not intended to be sold; and that such Wine shall be regularly entered and landed under the Care of the proper Officers of the Customs.

Owners of Foreign Spirits and Wines lost from Staving or in the unshipping may have the Duty remitted, &c.

XII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of the Customs and Port Duties in Ireland, or any Three or more of them for the Time being respectively, to repay or allow to the Importers, Owners, Proprietors, or Consignees of Foreign Spirits, Wine, or other Liquors which shall be lost by accidental Staving on Shipboard, or in the unshipping thereof before the Landing thereof, the Duties of Customs which shall have become payable, or shall have been paid for or in respect of such Spirits, Wine, or other Liquors, and to remit the Duties of Customs, and to cancel and vacate the Customs Bond for or in respect of all such Spirits, Wine, and other Liquors, for which no such Duties shall have been paid, but for which Security shall have been given by Bond taken for or in respect of the warehousing thereof, before Payment of the Duties under or by virtue of any Act or Acts in force in Ireland, for permitting Goods imported to be warehoused or secured without Payment of Duty, and which shall be so lost by such accidental staving: Provided always nevertheless, that no such Allowance or Repayment shall be made, nor any such Duty be remitted, nor any such Bond, or any Part thereof, be cancelled or vacated, unless Proof shall be made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, that such Spirits, Wine, or other Liquors were lost by such accidental staving, and not from any Want of due Care or Precaution on the Part of the Importer, Owner, Proprietor, or Consignee thereof, or his, her, or their Agent: Provided also, that every such Bond shall be and remain in full force and effect, as to all the Spirits, Wine, or other Liquors to which the same shall relate, and which shall not be so proved to have been lost by such accidental staving, and for or in respect whereof the Duties of Customs shall not be so remitted; any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Duties and Drawbacks, how to be levied and paid.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the several Rates and Duties, and Drawbacks and Bounties, by this Act granted or allowed and made payable, shall be raised, levied, collected, paid, and applied, in the same Manner, and under such Powers and Authorities, and subject to such Penalties and Forfeitures, and by such Ways and Methods, and under such Rules and Directions, as are appointed, directed, and expressed for the raising, collecting, levying, and paying and managing of Duties, Drawbacks, or Bounties payable on Goods, Wares, and Merchandize imported into and exported from Ireland, or for the levying and applying any Fines, Penalties, or Forfeitures, in and by an Act of Parliament made in Ireland in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled An Act for settling the Excise or New Impost upon His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, according to the Book of Rates therein inserted; or by an Act made in the Forty-sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to provide for the better Execution of the several Acts relating to the Revenues, Matters, and Things under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, and of the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland; or in and by any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland relating to the Revenue of Customs and Excise, or either of them, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same Powers and Authorities, Rules and Directions, Penalties and Forfeitures, were herein expressed and enacted, with the like Remedy of Appeal to and for the Party or Parties aggrieved, as in and by the said Act passed in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, or in and by any other Act or Acts as aforesaid, is provided.

Irish Act, 14 & 15 C. 2.

46 G. 3. c. 106.

When any Duties of Customs or Excise payable in Great Britain on any Articles imported are reduced, the Treasury shall cause a Schedule to be prepared of the like Articles imported into Ireland, and specify there.

XIV. And whereas, by the several Acts in force for the granting of Duties of Customs on Goods, Wares, and Merchandize imported into Ireland, it is enacted, that whenever it shall happen that any of the Duties, or any Part of the Duties of Customs or Excise, granted or made payable in Great Britain upon any Articles imported into Great Britain, upon which Duties of Customs are imposed in Ireland, shall cease and determine, or be repealed, or be or become no longer payable in Great Britain, Provision shall be made, that so much of the Duties of Customs payable in Ireland, as shall be equal to the Duties which shall so cease or determine or be repealed in Great Britain, shall in like Manner cease or determine, or be repealed, and shall not be payable in Ireland at any Time after the Time when such Duties of Customs or Excise shall cease or determine, or be repealed, or be or become no longer payable in Great Britain, and that

that the Duties of Customs made payable in Ireland shall be reduced accordingly; for the better carrying of the said Provision into Effect, be it enacted, That whenever any Act or Acts shall be passed for repealing any Duties and Drawbacks of Customs or Excise, on any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize imported into or exported from Great Britain, and for granting other Duties and Drawbacks in lieu thereof, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or any Three of them, to cause a Table or Schedule to be prepared under the Direction of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties in Ireland, enumerating the several Articles imported into or exported from Great Britain, on which the Duties or Drawbacks of Customs (and Excise if any) shall be less than the Duties or Drawbacks of Customs payable or allowable on the like Articles imported into or exported from Ireland, in which Table or Schedule the reduced Amount of Duties or Drawbacks of Customs which shall in consequence become payable on such Articles respectively, imported into or exported from Ireland, shall be stated and set forth in Figures opposite each Article respectively so enumerated, which said reduced Duties or Drawbacks of Customs on such Articles imported into or exported from Ireland, shall be equal to the Amount of the Duties or Drawbacks of Customs (and Excise if any) payable on such Articles imported into or exported from Great Britain; and a Copy of such Table or Schedule, when approved by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, shall be signed by the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three of them, and shall be transmitted to the said Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties in Ireland, with such Directions respecting the same as the said Commissioners of the Treasury shall think proper and necessary; and the Sums specified in such Table or Schedule so approved and signed, shall be deemed and taken to be the proper reduced Duties and Drawbacks of Customs payable or allowable in Ireland, on or in respect of such Articles, and shall be levied and paid, and allowed in like Manner as the Duties and Drawbacks of Customs on the like Articles under any Act or Acts in force in Ireland: Provided always, that no such Deduction shall take place upon any Article imported into Ireland, which shall not pay a Duty of Customs equal in Amount to the whole Duty of Customs (and Excise if any) which shall be payable on the like Article imported into Great Britain.

Drawback on the Exportation of Cordage from Ireland to be the same as on Exportation of that Article from Great Britain.

XV. And whereas it is expedient to assimilate the Rate of Drawback on the Exportation of Cordage from that Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Ireland, with that which is by Law payable on the Exportation of the same Article from that Part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, the same Drawback and Allowance shall be paid and allowed, and payable and allowable, upon the Exportation of Cordage from Ireland to Foreign Parts, which is now by Law payable and allowable on the like Exportation of the same Article from Great Britain; any Act or Acts in force in Ireland to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

SCHEDULE to which this Act refers.
