CAP. LXXXI.

An Act to amend so much of an Act of the Twenty-eighth Year of His late Majesty as requires a Registry of Wool sent Coastwise.

[2d July 1821.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for the Purpose (among other things) of amending and reducing into One Act of Parliament several Laws for preventing the Exportation of live Sheep, Rams, and Lambs, Wool, Wool-fells, and Manufactures or pretended Manufactures made of Wool, it is enacted, that a Register of all Wool and other Articles in the said Act enumerated and sent Coastwise, and also a Register of the Return of the Landing of the Wool or other Articles so shipped, shall be kept by the Customer or Collector or Comptroller at each Port; and a Copy thereof shall be transmitted once in every Six Months to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs at the Port of London, there to be registered in a Book to be kept at the Custom House by some Person or Persons to be by the said Commissioners appointed for that Purpose, and which Register and Registers shall at all seasonable Times be inspected, on Payment of the Sum of One Shilling, by any Person or Persons whomsoever, on Application for that Purpose; and a printed Copy of such Register shall, within Sixty Days next after the End of each Year, be transmitted by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs at the said Port of London, to the respective 28 G. 3. c. 38.

Custom Houses within this Kingdom, and which said Copies so transmitted shall be inspected by any Person on Payment of the like Fee in manner aforesaid upon Application for that Purpose: And whereas it is no longer necessary to require the said Registers to be kept, nor to transmit printed Copies thereof to the several Custom Houses: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act so much of the said recited Act, as is immediately hereinbefore set forth, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

So much of recited Act as requires a Registry of Wool carried Coastwise, repealed.
