

ANNO PRIMO

GEORGII IV. REGIS.

CAP. CV.

An Act to continue, for Two Years, an Act of the Fifty-sixth Year of His late Majesty, for establishing Regulations respecting Aliens arriving in or resident in this Kingdom, in certain Cases.

[24th July 1820.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fifty-sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for establishing Regulations respecting Aliens arriving in and resident in this Kingdom in certain Cases, for Two Years from the passing of this Act, and until the End of the Session of Parliament in which the said Two Years shall expire, if Parliament shall be then sitting: And whereas the said Act has, by another Act passed in the Fifty-eighth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, been further continued for the Term of Two Years, and until the End of the Session of Parliament in which that Term shall expire, if Parliament shall be then sitting: And whereas the said Act hath been found beneficial, and it is expedient to continue the same for a further Time: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual 56G. 3. c. 86

First-recited Act continued for Two Years.

Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said first-recited Act shall be and the same is hereby further continued in force from the Expiration thereof for the Term of Two Years.
