C A P. XIV.

An Act to repeal the Drawback on certain Gold Articles exported; and to permit the Exportation of Cordage, entitled to Bounty, free from Right of Pre-emption by the Commissioners of the Navy. [22d June 1820.]

WHEREAS by the Laws now in force a Drawback or Allowance is paid on the Exportation to Foreign Parts of Plate of Gold wrought or manufactured in Great Britain, on Security being given that the same shall not be relanded in Great Britain, and on Debenture given by the Customer or Collector of the Port of Exportation: And whereas it is no longer deemed expedient to grant any Allowance or Drawback on the Exportation of Gold Rings wrought or manufactured: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That no Drawback or Allowance shall be paid, nor any Debenture given, on the Exportation to Foreign Parts of any Plate of Gold wrought or manufactured in Great Britain into Rings; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

No Drawback allowed on the Exportation of Plate Gold made in Great Britain into Rings;

II. And whereas it is no longer necessary or proper that any Drawback should be allowed on the Exportation of Gold Articles wrought or manufactured in Great Britain, unless the same should nor on any Article of Gold manufactured in Great Britain exceed a certain Weight; be it therefore enacted, That no Drawback or Allowance shall be paid, or any Debenture given, after the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty, on the Exportation to Foreign Parts of any Articles of Gold wrought or manufactured in Great Britain, unless the same shall exceed the Weight of Two Ounces.

54G.3.c.185.

III. And whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty-fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to allow a Bounty on the Exportation from Great Britain of British-made Cordage, it is among other Things enacted, that no Entry shall be permitted to pass for the Exportation of any such Cordage, and that the Vessel having on board such Cordage shall not be permitted to go out of Port, unless a Certificate shall be produced, under the Hands of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, or any Three or more of them, signifying that such Cordage hath been tendered to them for the Use of His Majesty's Dock Yards at the fair and then Market Price of such Cordage in London, and that the same hath been refused by that Board; and that if any Person or Persons shall pass an Entry for such Cordage without having such Certificate produced to him or them, such Person or Persons shall forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds: And whereas it appears no longer necessary to provide a Supply of Cordage for the Public Use by such Restraint on Exportation; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, so much of the said recited Act as relates to such Tender and Refusal of Pre-emption, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

So much of recited Act as requires that no Entry shall be made for the Exportation of Cordage until Certificate produced that the Navy Board hath refused the same, shall be repealed.
