Mistakes in spelling the Names of Commissioners not to vitiate the Appointment.

And no Mistake in the spelling of the Christian or Surname of any Person or of any Place mentioned in the said Act of the last Session of Parliament or this Act, shall be construed to vitiate the Appointment of such Person to be a Commissioner, so that the Person or Place mentioned be designated therein to common Intent and Understanding, or to subject any Person so designated to any Pains, Penalty, or Forfeiture for his acting in the Execution of the Acts herein mentioned.

Commissioners to have the Qualifications required by 38 G. 3. c. 5.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the several Persons appointed by the said Act or this Act shall severally have the Qualifications required by an Act passed in the Thirty-eighth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for granting an Aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight; and also of an Act of the same Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to alter and amend so much of an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled 'An Act for granting an Aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight,' as relates to the Qualifications of Commissioners, and shall be subject to the several Penalties and Forfeitures contained in the said Acts respectively.

38 G. 3. c. 48.

Provision where Qualifications consist of Personal Estate.

III. Provided also, and it further enacted, That where in any City, Liberty, or Place, the Qualification shall consist of Personal Estate; it shall be lawful for any Person having a Personal Estate of the Value required by the said Acts, or either of them, to act as such Commissioner in all Cases where such Person shall have been taxed, and shall have paid for such Personal Estate, by and upon the last Assessment then made for such City, Liberty, or Place by virtue of any Act for continuing and granting to His Majesty a Duty on Pensions, Offices, and Personal Estates in England, passed before the making of such Assessments; any thing in the said Acts or either of them contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Persons having acted as Commissioners without having been properly named, or whose Names had been omitted, shall be indemnified, and the Acts done by them shall be valid.

IV. And whereas several Persons may have acted as Commissioners for executing the said Acts without having been properly named as Commissioners by the said Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act for appointing Commissioners for carrying into Execution an Act of this Session of Parliament, for granting to His Majesty a Duty on Pensions and Offices in England, and an Act made in the Thirty-eighth Year of His late Majesty, for granting an Aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight; and others, named in former Acts of Parliament to be Commissioners, may have been omitted in the said Act of the last Session of Parliament, and may have acted as aforesaid before Notice of such Omission: And whereas it is expedient that such Persons should be indemnified for such acting, and that all Acts by them done should be confirmed and made valid; be it therefore enacted, That all Acts done by any such Persons in the Execution of the said Acts, or of any other Acts to be executed by such Commissioners, shall be and are hereby declared to be valid; and that all personal Actions and Suits, Indictments, Informations, and all Prosecutions and Proceedings whatsoever, which have been or shall be prosecuted or commenced against any Person or Persons for or by reason of such acting, are declared to be void by virtue of this Act, and shall be quashed and determined; and that if any Action or Suit shall be prosecuted or commenced against any Person or Persons for or by reason of such acting, such Person or Persons may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence.
