ANNO TERTIO

GEORGII IV. REGIS.

C A P. XXXII.

An Act for repealing the Duties on plain Silk Net or Tulle, and for granting new Duties in lieu thereof. [24th May 1822.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Duties of Customs payable on the Importation of plain Silk Lace called Net or Tulle from Foreign Countries into Great Britain should be repealed, and that other Duties should be imposed in lieu thereof: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, the Duties of Customs payable by Law upon the Importation into Great Britain of plain Silk Lace called Net or Tulle from Foreign Countries shall cease and determine, save and except in all Cases relating to the Recovery or paying any Arrears thereof which may remain unpaid, or to any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture relating thereto, which shall have been incurred at any Time before the passing of this Act; and that from and after the passing of this Act, in lieu and instead of the Duties hereby repealed, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, a Duty of Two Shillings on every Square Yard of such plain Silk Lace called Net or Tulle.

Duties of Customs on Importation of plain Silk Net or Tulle to cease; and in lieu thereof a Duty of 2*s.* on every Square Yard shall be paid.

Duties to be under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs:

II. And be it further enacted, That such of the said Duties as shall arise in that Part of Great Britain called England, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs in England for the Time being, and such thereof as shall arise in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs in Scotland for the Time being.

How to be levied.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said Duties shall be managed, ascertained, raised, levied, collected, paid, and recovered, in such and the like Manner as any Duties of Customs of a like Nature are managed, ascertained, raised, levied, collected, paid, and recovered, and under and subject to the several Powers, Conditions, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures of any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force in relation to or made for securing the Revenue of Customs in Great Britain; and all Pains, Penalties, Fines, and Forfeitures for any Offences whatever, committed against or in Breach of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the passing of this Act, made for securing the Revenue of Customs, or for the Regulation or Improvement thereof, and the several Clauses, Powers, and Directions therein contained, shall be in full Force and Effect as to the said Duties, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if they were at large repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

Application of Monies.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all Monies from Time to Time arising from the said Duties (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same respectively excepted) shall from Time to Time be paid into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster, and shall be appropriated and applied in the same Manner as the Duties imposed by an Act passed in the Fifty-ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to repeal the several Duties of Customs chargeable in Great Britain, and to grant other Duties in lieu thereof, are directed to be appropriated and applied.
