ANNO SEPTIMO

GEORGII IV. REGIS.

C A P. XIII.

An Act to alter and amend an Act passed in the Fifty-fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for vesting in His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for ever, Part of the Ground and Buildings now belonging to the Society of King's Inns, Dublin, for erecting thereon a Repository for Public Records in Ireland.

[11th April 1826.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty-fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to vest in His Majesty, His Heirs and 44 G. 3. (I.) Successors, for ever, Part of the Ground and Buildings now belonging to the Society of King's Inns, Dublin, for the erecting thereon a Repository for Public Records in Ireland, it is amongst other Things enacted, that from and after the passing of this Act it shall not be lawful for the said Society of King's Inns, or for any other Person whatsoever, to build upon any Part of the said Ground to the South of said Premises hereby vested in His Majesty, but that the same shall be, remain, and continue unbuilt upon: And whereas it is unnecessary and useless for any Purpose of Security in relation to the Depositories for Public Records, or any Offices connected therewith, mentioned in the said Act, that the Restriction in the said recited Clause should be continued, inasmuch as the Parcels of Ground vested in His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, under the said recited Act, are fully sufficient and adequate to insulate or secure the said Depositories and Offices in such Manner as may be deemed fit, without requiring the Agreement and Consent in relation to not building, mentioned in the said Act, to be enforced against the said Society of King's Inns, the Dean and Chapter, Prebendaries, Choral Vicars, and other Persons therein mentioned: And whereas it is therefore just and expedient to enable the said Society of King's Inns to build on their own Ground in their own Possession, and not vested in His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, under the said Act, and will greatly tend to the Improvement of that Part of the County of the City of Dublin: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Part of the said recited Act is hereby repealed; and that it shall and may be lawful for the said Society of King's Inns, or any Person deriving by, from, or under them, to build upon any Part of Ground of the Society of King's Inns to the South of the said Premises by the said recited Act vested in His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, notwithstanding the said Agreement as Consent mentioned in the said Act, or any other Matter therein contained.

So much of recited Act as prohibits building on the Ground Southward of the Premises vested in His Majesty repealed.

II. And whereas by the said recited Act a Parcel of Ground, containing in Breadth from North to South Thirty Feet in the clear, and extending in a straight Line from the South End of King's Inns Place, mentioned in the said Act, to that Part of Constitution Hill adjoining to Colerain Street, mentioned in the said Act, is vested in His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for the Purpose, as declared by the said Act, that the same should be laid out as a public Way or Passage, from the shorter and more convenient Communication between the Four Courts and the intended Repository or Repositories and Offices mentioned in the said Act: And whereas it will be necessary for the Society of King's Inns to use Part of the said last-mentioned Parcel of Ground in laying out Sites for Chambers and in building thereon, if they shall proceed to build Chambers, and to lay out a Line of Street or Passage through their Ground different from the public Way or Passage proposed in the said Act; be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Society of King's Inns, and for all Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, deriving by, from, or under them, to build upon any Part of the said last-mentioned Parcel of Ground which shall be approved of by the Commissioners of Public Roads appointed under the Commission which issued under the Great Seal of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, bearing Date the Thirtieth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and ten, or any Three of them, in Writing under their Hands and Seals, to be subscribed to a proper Drawing or Delineation of the said Ground, and of the Parts of the said last-mentioned Parcel of Ground so to be built upon; and that such Parts of the said last-mentioned Parcel of Ground as shall be so approved of by the said Commissioners of Records as proper to build upon, shall, from the Society may build on the Ground directed by recited Act to be laid out as a Public Passage, laying out a different Line of Street on their own Ground in lieu thereof.

Date of such Approbation so to be signed by the said Commissioners or any Three of them, and without any other Act or Assurance, be revested in the said Society of King's Inns, and their Successors for ever, as of their former Estate, Title, and Interest therein: Provided always, that in laying out the said Ground a good and convenient public Street or Passage, not less than Thirty Feet in the clear, leading from the said King's Inns Buildings to the Four Courts, shall be laid out through the Ground of the said Society.
