ANNO DECIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

CAP. I.

An Act to suspend, until the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, the Duties on the Importation of Corn.

[26th January 1847.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Ninth and Tenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Importation of Corn, it is enacted, that there shall be 9 & 10 Vict. c. 22.
levied and paid unto Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, on all Corn, Grain, Meal, and Flour imported into the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man from Parts beyond the Seas, and entered for Home Consumption, until the First Day of February which will be in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, certain Duties set forth in the Schedule to the said Act annexed: And whereas, by reason of the partial Failure of certain Crops usually forming Part of the Subsistence of the People of these Islands, it is expedient that for a Time to be limited no Duties should be levied upon the Entry for Consumption of the said Articles or any of them: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, Duties on Corn, &c. suspended from the passing of this Act until 1st of September.

and by the Authority of the same, That no Duties of Customs shall be chargeable upon any Corn, Grain, Meal, or Flour already imported or hereafter to be imported into the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man from Parts beyond the Seas, and entered for Home Consumption, after the passing of this Act and before the First Day of September in this present Year.
