CAP. II.

An Act to allow, until the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, the Importation of Corn from any Country in Foreign Ships. [26th January 1847.

WHEREAS it is expedient to allow for a limited Time Corn, Maize, Grain, Meal, Flour, Rice, and Potatoes to be imported in any Ship or Vessel from any Country whatever, and that such Articles warehoused for Exportation only should be allowed to be entered for Home Consumption: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, and before the First Day of September in this present Year, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons to import into the United Kingdom for Home Use, from any Country, in any Ship or Vessel of any Country, however navigated, any Corn, Maize, Grain, Flour, Meal, Rice, or Potatoes, the Growth or Produce of any Country, any thing in the Law of Navigation to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

From the passing of this Act until the 1st of September Corn, &c. may be imported for Home Use in Vessels of any Country.

II. And

From the passing of this Act until the 1st of September Corn, &c. warehoused for Exportation may be entered for Home Consumption.

II. And be it enacted, That from and after the said passing of this Act, until the said First Day of September inclusive in this present Year, any Corn, Maize, Grain, Flour, Meal, Rice, or Potatoes, the Growth or Produce of any Country, which may have been warehoused in the United Kingdom for Exportation only, may be entered for Home Consumption, any thing in the Law of Navigation to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.
