CAP. XXXV.

An Act to diminish the Delay and Expense of Proceedings in the High Court of Chancery in England. [15th July 1850.]

'WHEREAS Proceedings in the High Court of Chancery in England are attended with great Delay and Expense, which it is expedient to diminish:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for Persons interested or claiming to be interested in any Question cognizable in the said Court as to the Construction of any Act of Parliament, Will, Deed, or other Instrument in Writing, or any Article, Clause, Matter, or Thing therein contained, or as to the Title or Evidence of Title to any Real or Personal Estate contracted to be sold or otherwise dealt with, or as to the Parties to or the Form of any Deed or Instrument for carrying any such Contract into effect, or as to any other Matter falling within the original Jurisdiction of the said Court as a Court of Equity, or made subject to the Jurisdiction or Authority of the said Court by any Statute not being One of the Statutes relating to Bankrupts, and including among such Persons all Lunatics, married Women, and Infants, in the Manner and under the Restrictions herein-after contained, to concur in stating such Question in the Form of a Special Case for the Opinion of the said Court, and it shall also be lawful for all Executors, Administrators, and Trustees to concur in such Case. Power to Persons interested in Questions cognizable in Court of Chancery to state Special Cases for the Opinion of the Court.

II. And be it enacted, That the Committee of the Estate of any Lunatic interested or claiming to be interested in any such Question as aforesaid may, after having been authorized in that Behalf by the Lord Chancellor, concur in such Case in his own Name and in the Name and on the Behalf of the Lunatic. How Lunatic may concur.

III. And be it enacted, That a Husband interested or claiming to be interested in right of his Wife in any such Question as aforesaid may concur in such Case in his own Name and in the Name of his Wife where the Wife has no Claim to any Interest distinct from her Husband, and that a married Woman having or claiming any Interest in any such Question as aforesaid distinct from her Husband may in her own Right concur in such Case, provided that her Husband also concurs therein. How married Women may concur.

IV. And be it enacted, That the Guardian of any Infant interested or claiming to be interested in any such Question as aforesaid may concur in such Case in the Name and on the Behalf of the Infant, unless such Guardian has an Interest in such Question adverse to the Interest of the Infant therein. How Infant may concur.

V. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Court, by Order to be made in the Matter of any Lunatic not found such by Inquisition, or, in the Matter of any Infant, How special Guardian to be appointed for a
