An Act to continue the Exemption of Inhabitants from Liability to be rated as such in respect of Stock in Trade or other Property to the Relief of the Poor. [29th July 1850.]

3 & 4 Vict. c. 89.

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to exempt until the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and forty-one Inhabitants of Parishes, Townships, and Villages from Liability to be rated as such in respect of Stock in Trade or other Property to the Relief of the Poor: And whereas the said Act hath been since continued by sundry Acts until the First Day of October in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and it is expedient that the said Act should be further continued:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the first-mentioned Act shall continue in force until the First Day of October in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament. Recited Act further continued.

II. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament. Act may be amended, &c.

CAP. LI.

An Act for the Transfer of the Equitable Jurisdiction of the Court of Exchequer to the Court of Chancery in Ireland. [29th July 1850.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to transfer to the Court of Chancery in Ireland the 'Jurisdiction of the Court of Exchequer as a Court of Equity:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That on the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty all the Power, Authority, and Jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Dublin as a Court of Equity, and all the Power, Authority, and Jurisdiction which shall have been conferred on or committed to the said Court of Exchequer by or under the special Authority of any Act or Acts of Parliament, (other than such Power, Authority, and Jurisdiction as shall be then possessed by or be incident to the said Court of Exchequer as a Court of Law, or as shall then be possessed by the said Court of Exchequer as a Court of Revenue, and not heretofore exercised or exerciseable by the same Court sitting as a Court of Equity,) shall be by force of this Act transferred and given to Her Majesty's High Court of Chancery in Ireland, to all Intents and Purposes, in as full and ample a Manner as the same might have been exercised by the said Court of Exchequer if this Act had not passed; and the same Power, Authority, and Jurisdiction shall, so far as respects the Exercise thereof by the said Court of Exchequer, cease and determine: Provided always, that this Act shall not abridge, lessen, or in anywise affect the Power, Authority, or Jurisdiction of or incident to the said Court of Exchequer as a Court of Law, or the Power, Authority, or Jurisdiction of the same Court as a Court of Revenue, not heretofore exercised or exerciseable by the same Court sitting as a Court of Equity. The Jurisdiction of the Court of Exchequer as a Court of Equity, &c. abolished, and transferred to the Court of Chancery.

II. And be it enacted, That all Suits and Matters which on the said First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty shall be depending in the said Court of Exchequer as a Court of Equity, or under such Act or Acts of Parliament as aforesaid, (except as aforesaid,) shall be by force of this Act transferred, with all the Proceedings therein, to the said Court of Chancery, there to be carried on and prosecuted and dealt with and decided according to the Practice of that Court, in the same Manner in every respect as if such Suits and Matters had been originally commenced in the said Court of Chancery; and all Decrees and Orders which shall have been made by the said Court of Exchequer in such Suits and Matters shall, to all Intents and Purposes, be deemed and taken to be Decrees or Orders respectively of the said Court of Chancery; and all Writs which shall have been then issued in the same Suits and Matters, or any of them, returnable in the said Court of Exchequer, shall be by force of this Act returnable in the said Court of Chancery: Provided always, that in case on the said First Day of August any of the said Suits or Matters so hereby transferred shall have been partly heard by the said Court of Exchequer, it shall be lawful for the said Court of Chancery, by Order specially made for the Purpose, to remit such partly heard Suit or Matter to the said Court of Exchequer, and the said Court of Exchequer shall thereupon, with all convenient Speed, hear the same, and make such Rule, Order, or Decree therein as shall appear to said Court of Exchequer right and fitting in the Suits depending and Proceedings transferred to Court of Chancery to be carried on according to the Practice of that Court. Writs returnable in Exchequer to be returnable in Chancery. Lord Chancellor may remit to the Court of Exchequer Causes partly heard by that Court.
