CAP. III.

An Act to provide for the Administration of Personal Estates of Intestates and others to which Her Majesty may be entitled in right of Her Prerogative, or in right of Her Duchy of Lancaster. [20th April 1852.]

'WHEREAS Letters of Administration of the Effects of several Intestates and others to whose Personal Estates Her Majesty and Her Predecessors became entitled in right of the Royal Prerogative were from Time to Time in the Lifetime of George Maule Esquire, deceased, late the Solicitor for the Affairs of Her Majesty's Treasury, granted to the said George Maule, as the Nominee and for the Use of the Sovereign, and many of such Estates have not been fully administered: And whereas it is expedient to provide for the Continuance of the said Administrations which have determined by the Death of the said George Maule, and to make further Provision concerning the like Administrations hereafter to be granted to Her Majesty's Use:' Be it enacted, therefore, by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Administration of the Personal Estate of Intestates and others, where Her Majesty is entitled, may be granted to the Solicitor of the Treasury for the Time being (as Nominee of Her Majesty) and his Successors.

I. So often as Her Majesty, by any Warrant under Her Sign Manual, shall be pleased to direct the Solicitor for the Time being for the Affairs of Her Majesty's Treasury to apply for and obtain Letters of Administration of the Personal Estate and Effects of any Person dying intestate to whose Personal Estate and Effects Her Majesty may have become entitled in right of Her Royal Prerogative, or Letters of Administration (whether general or limited) of the Personal Estate and Effects of any other Person deceased, where in respect of the Interest of Her Majesty in such Estate and Effects such Administration may be rightfully granted to a Nominee of Her Majesty, it shall be lawful for any competent Court in England, upon Application, in pursuance of such Warrant, to grant Administration accordingly to such Solicitor for the Time being and his Successors in the Office of Solicitor for the Affairs of Her Majesty's Treasury, for the Use and Benefit of Her Majesty; and in every such Case the
