Persons giving false Evidence guilty of Misdemeanor.

XX. If any Person, under the Provisions of this Act, shall wilfully give false Evidence, or shall make or subscribe a false Declaration for the Purposes of this Act, he shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor.

CAP. XLVII.

An Act to continue an Act of the Eighteenth Year of Her present Majesty, for charging the Maintenance of certain poor Persons in Unions in England and Wales upon the Common Fund. [16th July 1855.]

17 & 18 Vict. c. 43.

'WHEREAS by the Act of the Eighteenth Year of Her Majesty, Chapter Forty-three, certain Provisions made by the several Acts therein referred to, for charging upon the Common Fund of the Union the Costs of the Relief and of the Burial of certain poor Persons in those several Acts described, and the Costs of removing and maintaining certain Lunatic Paupers, were continued until the Thirtieth Day of September in this present Year, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and it is expedient that such Provisions should be further continued for a limited Time:" Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,

Provisions in recited Act further continued.

I. That all the said several temporary Provisions continued by the said Act of the Eighteenth Year of Her Majesty, Chapter Forty-three, shall further continue in full Force until the Thirtieth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

CAP. XLVIII.

An Act for the better Administration of Justice in the Cinque Ports. [16th July 1855.]

'WHEREAS it would conduce to the better Administration of Justice in the Cinque Ports if the Jurisdiction and Authority of the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports and Constable of Dover Castle in relation to Civil Suits and Proceedings were abolished; and it is expedient that the Parishes or Places of Saint John the Baptist (called Margate), Saint Peter the Apostle, Birchington, Acol otherwise the Ville of Wood, Beakesbourne, and Grange otherwise Grench which are Members or Liberties of Dover, or some other of the said Cinque Ports, should be severed therefrom:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Jurisdiction of Lord Warden in Civil Proceedings abolished.

I. From and after the Thirtieth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five all Jurisdiction and Authority of the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports and Constable of Dover Castle in or in relation to the Administration of Justice in Actions, Suits, or other Civil Proceedings at Law or in Equity, or the Execution of Judgments, Writs, and Process therein or connected therewith, shall cease and determine: Provided always, that the said Lord Warden and Constable shall have and retain Jurisdiction, Power, and Authority to execute all Writs of Fieri Facias directed to and received by him on or before the said Thirtieth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, as fully, to all Intents and Purposes, as if this Act had not passed.

Writs and Judgments to be directed and executed in the Cinque

II. From and after the Thirtieth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five Her Majesty's Writs in or in relation to all Actions, Suits, and Civil Proceedings shall be directed and obeyed, and the Jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Courts of Law and Equity, and of the Judges thereof, and the Judgments and Process thereof in relation to such
