CAP. LI.

An Act to permit the Use of Rice in the Distillation of Spirits. [14th July 1856.]

'WHEREAS under and by virtue of the Laws now in force relating to the Distillation of Spirits licensed Distillers may lawfully make or brew Worts or Wash and distil Spirits from Malt, Corn, or Grain, or any Mixture thereof, or from Potatoes only, or from Mangel Wurzel only, or from Sugar, Molasses, or Treacle, or any Mixture thereof, either alone, or with Malt, Corn, or Grain: And whereas it is expedient to permit the Distillation of Spirits from Rice, or from any Mixture of all or any of the Articles or Materials aforesaid, with or without Rice:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Power to distil Spirits from Rice, &c.

I. From and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for any licensed Distiller in any Part of the United Kingdom to make or brew Worts or Wash and to distil Spirits from Rice, or from any of the several Articles or Materials aforesaid, or from any Mixture of all or any of the same, with or without Rice, anything contained in any former Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

How Duty to be charged in respect of Sugar used with other Materials.

II. Provided always, That where Sugar mixed with all or any of the other Materials aforesaid shall be used in the Distillation of Spirits, the Distiller shall be chargeable and charged with the Duty on Spirits in respect of such Sugar in the Manner and after the Rate or Proportion specified in the Third Section of the Act passed in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, Chapter One hundred, with regard to Sugar used with any Mixture of Grain, Molasses, and Treacle.

CAP. LII.

An Act to suspend the making of Lists and the Ballots for the Militia of the United Kingdom. [14th July 1856.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to suspend for a further Period the Ballots for the Militia of the United Kingdom:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Meetings relating to the Militia of the United Kingdom and Ballots for such Militia suspended.

I. All General and Subdivision Meetings relating to the Militia of the United Kingdom, and all Proceedings relating to procuring any Returns, or preparing or making out Lists of such Militia or any Part thereof, for the Purpose of a Ballot, or relating to balloting for any Militiamen or supplying any Vacancies in such Militia by Ballot, as are or may be directed or authorized by or under any Act of Parliament now in force, shall cease and remain suspended until the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

Proceedings may be had during such Suspension by Order in Council.

II. Provided always, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty by any Order in Council to direct that any Proceedings shall be had at any Time before the Expiration of such Period as aforesaid, either for the giving of Notices and making Returns and preparing Lists, and also for the proceeding to ballot and enrol Men for the filling up Vacancies in the Militia, as Her Majesty shall deem expedient; and upon the issuing of any such Order all such Proceedings shall be had for carrying into execution all the Provisions of the Acts in force in the United Kingdom relating to the giving Notices for and Returns for Lists, and for the balloting and enrolling of Men to supply any Vacancies in the Militia, and holding General and Subdivision Meetings for such Purpose, at such Times respectively as shall be expressed in any such Order in Council, or by any Directions given in pursuance thereof to Lord Lieutenants, or Deputy Lieutenants acting for Lord Lieutenants, of the several Counties, Shires, Cities, and Places in the United Kingdom; and all the Provisions of the several Acts in force in the United Kingdom relating to the Militia shall shall, upon any such Order, and Direction given in pursuance thereof, become and be in full Force and be carried into execution at the Period specified in such Order or Direction as aforesaid, with all such Penalties and Forfeitures for any Neglect thereof, as fully as if such Periods had been fixed in the Acts relating to such Militia.

Not to extend to prevent the holding of certain Meetings relating to the Militia.

III. Provided also, That nothing herein contained shall extend to prevent the holding before the Expiration of such Period as aforesaid of such General or other Meetings relating to the Militia of the United Kingdom as may be called in Great Britain under the Authority of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or in Ireland under the Authority of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, or of any Meeting which may be called for the Purpose of altering, enlarging, or providing any Place for the Reception of the Arms, Accoutrements, Clothing, or other Stores belonging to the Militia.

CAP. LIII.

An Act for confirming a Scheme of the Charity Commissioners for the Endowed School at Moulton in the County of Lincoln. [14th July 1856.]

3d Report, dated 28th Feb. 1856.

'WHEREAS the Charity Commissioners for England and Wales, in their Report to Her Majesty of their Proceedings during the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, have reported that they have provisionally approved and certified (among other Schemes for the Application and Management of Charities) a Scheme for the Endowed School at Moulton in the County of Lincoln founded by the Will of John Harrox, and such Scheme is set out in the Appendix to the said Report, and is also set out in the Schedule to this Act: And whereas it is expedient that the said Scheme should be confirmed:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Scheme confirmed.

I. The said Scheme shall be confirmed and take effect.

SCHEDULE.

SCHEME.

As to General Management.

Corporation dissolved, and charity estate vested in governors.

1. The existing incorporation of the above-mentioned school, by the name of "The Preceptor or Master of the Free School of John Harrox in Moulton," or by any other name, is hereby dissolved, and the charity, and the estates and property thereof, shall from and after the establishment of this scheme be under the management and control of governors, to be called "The Governors of the Moulton Endowed Schools." The full number of governors shall be twelve, of whom the Vicar of Moulton, the Vicar of Whaplode, the Rector of Fleet, and the Vicar of Weston respectively for the time being shall by virtue of their respective offices always be four; and in the first instance the following persons shall be the other eight governors; that is to say, John Tatam of Moulton aforesaid, Esquire; Robert King of the same place, Gentleman; Robert Everard of Fulney House, Spalding, in the same county, Esquire; (being the three present non-official trustees of the charity;) and the Right Honourable Sir John Trollope of Casewick House near Stamford in the same county, Baronet; John Richard Carter of Spalding in the same county, Esquire; Joseph Chamberlain Barker of Holbeach, Esquire; Thomas Cammack of Spalding aforesaid, Esquire, M.D.; and Matthew Clark of Goddard's Hall, Moulton, Esquire.

Succession of governors.

2. The death, resignation, bankruptcy, insolvency, or removal from residence in the county of Lincoln of any non-official governor, or his refusal or incapacity to act, or neglect for a period of two consecutive years to attend any meeting of the governors, shall respectively create a vacancy in the office of such governor; and as soon as conveniently may be after the occurrence of any such vacancy, the remaining governors for the time being shall appoint some fit and proper person resident within the said county of Lincoln to fill such vacancy so as to keep up the full number of eight non-official governors.

3. Every
