An Act to enable the Lord Chancellor and Judges of the Court of Chancery to carry into effect the Recommendations and Suggestions of the Chancery Evidence Commissioners by General Rules and Orders of the Court.

[28th August 1860.]

'WHEREAS by Commissions under the Great Seal, dated respectively the Eighteenth 'Day of August and the Thirteenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and 'fifty-nine, Commissioners were appointed to inquire into the Mode of taking Evidence in 'the High Court of Chancery and its Effects: And whereas Two Reports from the said 'Commissioners have since been made to Her Majesty: And whereas Doubts have been 'entertained whether Effect can be given to the Recommendations and Suggestions of the 'said Reports by General Orders of the Court without the Authority of Parliament:' Be it declared and enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Power for Lord Chancellor and Judges to

I. The Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Assistance of the Master of the Rolls, the Lords Justices of the Court of Appeal in Chancery, and the Vice-Chancellors, or any Three

Three of them, may from Time to Time, as the Lord Chancellor with such Advice and Assistance as aforesaid may think fit, make General Rules and Orders for carrying the said Recommendations and Suggestions of the said Reports or any of them, or any Part thereof, into effect, and in relation to all Matters consequential thereon or incidental thereto, and so far as to them shall seem expedient for varying and adding to the Course of Proceeding recommended in the said Reports in respect of the Matters to which the said Reports relate; and such Rules and Orders may from Time to Time be rescinded or altered by the like Authority; and all such Rules and Orders shall take effect as if they had been General Rules and Orders of the Court duly made.

make General Rules and Orders for carrying Recommendations of the Chancery Evidence Commissioners Reports into effect.

II. Provided always, That all such General Rules and Orders as aforesaid shall immediately after the making and issuing thereof be laid before both Houses of Parliament, if Parliament be then sitting, or if Parliament be not then sitting within Five Days after the next Meeting thereof; and if either of the Houses of Parliament shall, by any Resolution passed within Thirty-six Days after such Rules or Orders have been laid before such Houses of Parliament, resolve that the whole or any Part of such Rules or Orders ought not to continue in force, in such Case the whole or such Part thereof as shall be so included in such Resolution shall from and after such Resolution cease to be binding.

Such General Rules and Orders to be laid before Parliament.

III. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to abridge or affect the Powers of making General Rules and Orders which the Lord Chancellor, either alone or with such Advice and Assistance as aforesaid, might have exercised if this Act had not passed.

Act not to abridge, &c. Powers of Lord Chancellor, &c. making General Orders.

CAP. CXXIX.

An Act to grant Excise Duties on British Spirits and on Spirits imported from the Channel Islands. [28th August 1860.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray Your Majesty's public Expenses, and making an Addition to the Public Revenue, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto Your Majesty the several Rates and Duties herein-after mentioned; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Duty on British Spirits.

I. There shall be charged, collected, and paid for the Use of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, for and upon every Gallon of Spirits of the Strength of Hydrometer Proof, which on or after the several Days respectively herein-after mentioned were or shall be distilled within the United Kingdom, or which, having been distilled within the United Kingdom, were on the said several Days respectively in the Stock or Possession of any Distiller, or in any Duty-free Warehouse, or removing to such Warehouse, and were or shall be on or after the said several Days respectively taken out for Consumption within the United Kingdom, the several and respective Duties following; that is to say, Duty charged on British Spirits.

On and after the Twenty-ninth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and sixty, the Duty of Eight Shillings and One Penny;

And on and after the Seventeenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and sixty, the Duty of Ten Shillings:

And so in proportion for any greater or less Degree of Strength, or any greater or less Quantity, in lieu of all other Duties of Excise now chargeable on such Spirits.
