is convenient for the Public, be stopped up or diverted: All Proceedings to obtain such Certificate, and to stop up or divert such Footpath, shall be taken in the same Manner in which Proceedings are directed to be taken by the Act passed in the Session holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter Fifty, in Cases where a Party other than the Inhabitants in Vestry is desirous of stopping up, diverting, or turning a Highway, or as near thereto as Circumstances admit; with this Exception, that the Certificate of the Justices shall be conclusive in Cases where it states the Fact of their having viewed the Footpath to be stopped up or diverted, and that the proposed new Footpath is convenient for the Public.

Power of Secretary for War to make Byelaws.

XVIII. The said Principal Secretary, with a view to the Service, Safety, and Convenience of the Public, may make Byelaws for the Regulation of Rifle Shooting on Grounds acquired or used by any Rifle Volunteer Corps under the Provisions of this Act.

Proof of Cesser of Land to be used for Purposes of Act.

XIX. Any Land acquired or for the Use of which any Licence has been granted under this Act shall be deemed to have ceased to be used for the Purposes thereof where no such Use by the Corps to which the same was granted has taken place for a Period of One Year, and a Certificate shall have been given by the said Principal Secretary of the Fact of such Non-user; and such Certificate shall be conclusive Evidence of such Fact as against all Persons and in all Courts of Justice.

CAP. CXLI.

An Act to amend an Act passed in the Thirteenth Year of Her Majesty, to restrain Party Processions in Ireland. [28th August 1860.]

13 & 14 Vict. c. 2.

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Thirteenth Year of Her Majesty, Chapter Two, 'to restrain Party Processions in Ireland, and it is expedient that the said Act 'should be amended:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Exhibition of Banners, &c. calculated to provoke Animosity to be a Misdemeanor.

I. Any Person who shall in Ireland wilfully and knowingly do any of the Acts hereinafter mentioned in such a Manner as may be calculated or tend to provoke Animosity between different Classes of Her Majesty's Subjects, and lead to a Breach of the public Peace, shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor; that is to say, the publicly exhibiting or displaying upon any Building or Place, or the wilfully permitting or suffering to be publicly exhibited or displayed upon any Building or Place, any Banner, Flag, or Party Emblem or Symbol, or the publicly meeting and parading with other Persons, or the playing of any Music, or discharging any Cannon or Fire-arm in any public Street, Road, or Place.

Any Justice may authorize Removal of Banners, &c.

II. It shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, on Information duly sworn before him that such Exhibition is likely to lead to a Breach of the Peace, by Warrant under his Hand, to authorize and empower any County or Sub-Inspector of Constabulary, Head or other Constable, to enter any Building or Place upon which any such Banner, Flag, or Party Emblem, or Symbol shall be exhibited, in manner hereby prohibited, and to remove and detain such Banner, Flag, or Party Emblem, or Symbol.

Act to continue in force for Five Years.

III. Provided always, That this Act shall continue and be in force for the Period of Five Years from the passing thereof.
