CAP. XLIX.

An Act for extinguishing certain Rights of Way through Colewort Barracks, in the Borough of Portsmouth. [23d July 1860.]

'WHEREAS Colewort Barracks in the Borough of Portsmouth in the County of Southampton, and the Ground appurtenant thereto, are vested in Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, and the said Ground is subject to Rights of Way for Foot Passengers through or over the same from a Point near the Landport Gate and also from Warblington Street at a Point opposite Nobbs Lane to Armoury Lane: And whereas the Morality and Discipline of the Men stationed in the said Barracks are very injuriously affected in consequence of the Existence of the said Rights of Way, the said Barracks being accessible to all Persons and at all Times by means thereof: And whereas there exists, by means of High Street Road, Warblington Street, and Saint Mary Street, a sufficiently commodious Way to and from the Points to and from which Access is obtained by virtue of such Rights of Way as aforesaid: And whereas for the Reasons aforesaid it is expedient that the said Rights of Way should be extinguished:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Rights of Way through Colewort Barracks extinguished.

I. That from and after the passing of this Act all Rights of Way through or over the said Ground shall cease, and the said Secretary of State shall stop up or cause to be stopped up the said Ways, and thereupon public Notice shall be given of the stopping up thereof by Advertisement in the London Gazette, and in some local Newspaper published or circulated in the County of Southampton, and shall be affixed on the outer Door of the Town Hall or some other public Place within the said Borough.
