CAP. XVI.

An Act for extinguishing certain Rights of Way through the Netley Hospital Estate in the Parish of Hound in the County of Southampton.

[16th May 1862.]

WHEREAS the Netley Hospital Estate in the Parish of Hound in the County of Southampton was purchased under the "Defence Act, 1842," and the "Ordnance Board Transfer Act, 1855," and is now vested in Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department in trust for Her Majesty, and a Hospital has since been erected thereon for the Reception of wounded or sick Soldiers of Her Majesty's Army: And whereas the said Estate is subject to certain Rights of Way for Foot Passengers, which, if they were suffered to remain, would very much interfere with and impede the useful Purposes intended to be effected by the Purchase of the Estate and the Erection of the Hospital thereon, and it is therefore expedient that all such Rights of Way should be extinguished: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same:

1. That

Netley Hospital Estate.

Certain Rights of Way over Netley Hospital Estate extinguished.

1. That from and after the passing of this Act all Rights of Way through or over the said Estate shall cease, and the said Principal Secretary shall stop up or cause to be stopped up the said Ways, and thereupon public Notice shall be given of the stopping up thereof, by Advertisement in the London Gazette and in some local Newspaper published or circulating in the County of Southampton, and shall be affixed on the outer Door of the Church of the said Parish, or some other public Place in the said Parish.
