CAP. LXXXIV.

An Act to continue the Duties of Excise on Sugar made in the United Kingdom, and to amend the Laws relating to the Duties of Excise.

[7th August 1862.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies for defraying Your Majesty's public Expenses and making an Addition to the Public Revenue, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto Your Majesty the Duties herein-after mentioned; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Excise Duties on British Sugar continued until 1st July 1863.

1. The Duties of Excise on Sugar made in the United Kingdom, specified in Schedule (B.) of the Act passed in the Twentieth and Twenty-first Years of Her Majesty's Reign, Chapter Sixty-one, shall be continued, and be levied and charged until the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

2. And

23 & 24 Vict. c. 114. not to affect any other Duties than the Excise Duties on Spirits.

2. And whereas an Act was passed in the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, Chapter One hundred and fourteen, to reduce into One Act and to amend the Excise Regulations relating to the distilling, rectifying, and dealing in Spirits; and by the said Act certain Acts and Parts of Acts specified in Schedule (C.) thereto annexed were repealed, and Doubts may arise whether by such Repeal other Duties than those of Excise on Spirits and the Regulations for charging and collecting the same may not have been prejudiced or affected contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the said last-recited Act: Be it enacted and declared, That nothing in the said last-recited Act or the said Schedule contained shall be construed, deemed, or taken to have repealed or affected any Duties of Excise in force at the Time of the passing of the same Act, or the Regulations for charging or collecting the same, except as to the Duties of Excise on Spirits, and all such Duties and Regulations in force as aforesaid, except as aforesaid, are hereby declared to have remained and shall continue to be and remain in full Force and Effect, and the said Duties to have been and to be lawfully charged and chargeable in like Manner as they would have been if the said last-recited Act had not been passed, unless or until the same have been or shall be otherwise expressly repealed.
