CAP. C.

An Act to render Owners of Dogs in Scotland liable in certain Cases for Injuries done by their Dogs to Sheep and Cattle. [28th July 1863.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Law as to the Liability of the Owners of 'Dogs for Injuries done to Sheep and Cattle by such Dogs:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Not necessary to prove previous Propensity of Dog to injure Sheep, &c.

1. In any Action brought against the Owner of a Dog for Damages in consequence of Injury done by such Dog to any Sheep or Cattle, it shall not be necessary for the Pursuer to prove a previous Propensity in such Dog to injure Sheep or Cattle.

Who shall be deemed the Owner of the Dog.

2. The Occupier of any House or Place or Premises in which any Dog which has injured any Sheep or Cattle has been usually kept or permitted to live or remain at the Time of such Injury shall be liable as the Owner of such Dog, unless the said Occupier can prove that he was not the Owner of such Dog at the Time the Injury complained of was committed, and that such Dog was kept or permitted to live or remain in the said House or Place or Premises without his Sanction or Knowledge.

Extent of Act.

3. This Act shall extend to Scotland only.
