pose of defining what Qualification shall be required for such Order: Provided always, that such Order or Copy of such Order, certified as aforesaid, once granted by the said Benchers to any such Conveyancer, Special Pleader, or Draughtsman in Equity, shall be held to be good and valid for the Purposes of this Act until the same shall have been revoked for Misconduct by the said Benchers, which they are hereby authorized to do; and in case any such Order shall have been so revoked by the said Benchers, they shall transmit to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, certified as aforesaid, a Notice that such Person is no longer entitled to such Order, and that the same has been revoked accordingly: Provided also, that every Conveyancer, Special Pleader, and Draughtsman in Equity who on the Eleventh Day of January One thousand eight hundred and sixty-four was legally qualified and acting as such shall be deemed a qualified and fit Person, and as such entitled to an Order of the said Benchers to take out his stamped Certificate, unless the contrary shall be shown to the Satisfaction of the said Benchers.

Penalty on Persons acting as Attorneys, &c., unless qualified as herein provided.

3. Every Person who shall, for or in expectation of any Fee, Gain, or Reward, in anywise act or practise as a Conveyancer, Special Pleader, or Draughtsman in Equity in Ireland, without being duly qualified to act and practise as herein provided, other than and except Barristers-at-Law, and also Solicitors, Attornies, Proctors, or Notaries, and other than and except Officers in the Public Service of the State drawing or preparing official Instruments applicable to their respective Offices, shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds nor less than Five Pounds, to any Person who shall sue or prosecute for the same, either by Action in any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Common Law at Dublin or before the Chairman in the Civil Bill Court at Quarter Sessions, or before any Court of Petty Sessions in Ireland, under the Provisions of the Acts relating to Summary Jurisdiction in Ireland, or any of them: Provided always that no Conveyance, Deed, or Instrument merely transferring any Shares or Stock in any Public Company, and in which there shall be no Trust or Limitation of the said Shares or Stock, shall be deemed a Conveyance, Deed, or Instrument within the Meaning of this Act.

CAP. IX.

An Act to allow the making of Malt Duty-free to be used in feeding Animals. [28th April 1864.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to allow Malt to be made Duty-free to be used in the feeding of Animals:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Malt may be made and used free of Duty in the feeding of Animals, if mixed with Linseed, &c.

1. It shall be lawful for any Person who shall give such Security as herein-after required in that Behalf, and upon taking out a proper Licence as a Maltster, to make Malt under the Provisions of this Act in a Malthouse approved by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue for the sole Purpose of being consumed in the feeding of Animals, and all Malt which shall be so made and which shall be mixed with Linseed Cake or Linseed Meal as herein-after directed in such Malthouse, or with such other Substance as may hereafter be approved by the said Commissioners, shall be free from the Duties of Excise chargeable on Malt; and it shall also be lawful for any Maltster (not being a Distiller) who shall be entitled to make Malt for the Purpose of being consumed in the distilling of Spirits under the Provisions of the Act passed in the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, Chapter Ninety-four, to mix Malt with the Materials aforesaid for the sole Purpose of being consumed in the feeding of Animals, upon his complying with the Provisions and Regulations of this Act.

Persons making Duty-free Malt under

2. Every Person who shall intend to make Malt Duty free under the Provisions of this Act shall enter into a Bond to Her Majesty, with Two or more sufficient Sureties to the the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and in such Sum as the said Commissioners shall think proper, conditioned to the Purport or Effect following; (that is to say,) that such Maltster shall duly make into Malt all Corn and Grain which shall be received into any such Malthouse as aforesaid, and shall not take, send out, remove, or deliver from any such Malthouse as aforesaid any Malt, except Malt duly mixed with some Material prescribed by this Act in that Behalf, and removed in conformity with the Provisions of this Act, and shall not convey away, hide, or conceal any Malt or Corn or Grain contrary to any of the Provisions of this Act, or of any Act in force in relation to Maltsters or the making of Malt; and the Condition of such Bond shall also contain all such further Terms and Stipulations as the Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall deem to be necessary or proper for enforcing Compliance on the Part of such Maltster with the Terms and Provisions of this Act, and the Regulations which the said Commissioners may make in pursuance thereof, or for preventing Frauds in relation to the Malt to be made by such Maltster; and such Maltster shall give a fresh Bond, with such Sureties as aforesaid, when and as often as he shall be required so to do by the said Commissioners, and in default thereof he shall not be entitled to make Malt Duty-free under the Provisions of this Act.

this Act to give Security against Frauds.

3. Every Person who shall make Malt under the Provisions of this Act shall paint or place and fix in Letters distinctly legible, Three Inches at the least in Height, and of a proper and proportionate Breadth, conspicuously upon the principal Gate, Door, or Entrance of his Malthouse, his Christian and Surname, together with the Words "Entered to make Malt to be used in feeding Animals," and shall preserve and keep the same so painted or placed and fixed, and shall repaint and renew the same as often as Occasion shall require.

Maltsters under this Act to designate their Malthouses.

4. All Malt made under the Provisions of this Act shall be deposited in a Storeroom provided by the Maltster and entered with the Excise for that Purpose, and shall be conveyed to and from the Room in which the same is intended to be ground as herein-after mentioned upon such Notice to the Officer of Excise and under such Regulations as the Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall direct and appoint in that Behalf.

Malt to be conveyed from Store to Grinding Room under such Regulations as Commissioners shall appoint.

5. The Maltster shall provide at his own Expense a safe and secure Room or Rooms in his Malthouse, to be approved in Writing by the proper Collector and Supervisor of the District, for the Purpose of grinding and mixing the Malt made by him in such Malthouse; and all such Rooms so to be provided as aforesaid shall be properly secured to the Satisfaction of the said Collector and Supervisor, and shall be at all Times kept locked by the proper Officer of Excise, and neither the Maltster nor his Servants or Workmen shall be admitted therein, except upon such a Notice in Writing to be given by the Maltster to the Officer as the said Commissioners shall direct.

Maltster to provide a secure Room for grinding and mixing Malt.

6. All Malt made under the Provisions of this Act shall, before the Removal thereof from the Malthouse in which the same shall have been made, be ground and thoroughly mixed with One Tenth Part at the least of its Weight of ground Linseed Cake or Linseed Meal or other Substance as aforesaid; and all such Malt, and the said Material to be mixed therewith, shall be ground to such a Degree of Fineness and in such Manner as the said Commissioners shall direct or approve, and shall be mixed together in a Quantity not less than Forty Bushels at a Time in the Presence of an Officer of Excise by such Means and in such Manner as shall be directed or approved by the said Commissioners; and for any Refusal or Neglect on the Part of the Maltster to comply with the Requirements of this Clause, or any of them, the Malt and also the Material mixed or intended to be mixed therewith shall be forfeited.

Malt to be mixed with Linseed Cake or Meal, &c.

7. The Maltster shall keep an Account, in such Form as the Commissioners shall supply to him for that Purpose, of the Quantity, by Weight or Measure as the Commissioners shall require, of all Malt mixed as aforesaid which he shall from Time to Time send out or deliver from his Malthouse, with the respective Dates of such sending out or Delivery, and the Name and Place of Abode of the Person to or for whom such mixed Malt shall be so sent or delivered, together with such other Particulars respecting the same as the said Commissioners shall require in that Behalf.

Maltster to keep an Account of all mixed Malt sent out, and of the Name of the Person to whom sent.

8. All

Penalty for separating Malt from Linseed Cake or Meal mixed therewith.

8. All Malt which shall be found mixed with Linseed Cake or Linseed Meal or other Substance as aforesaid shall be deemed to have been mixed under the Provisions of this Act, and if any Person shall separate or attempt to separate any Malt from any Material with which the same shall have been mixed as aforesaid, or shall use any Malt which shall have been so mixed as aforesaid in or for the brewing of Beer or distilling of Spirits, he shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, and all such Malt and Material shall be forfeited.

Persons found unlawfully removing Malt from a Malthouse entered under this Act to be dealt with in manner directed by Sect. 32 of 18 & 19 Vict. c. 94.

9. If any Person shall be found taking or removing Malt, or any Corn or Grain making into Malt, from any Malthouse or Premises on the principal or outer Gate whereof the Words "Entered to make Malt to be used in feeding Animals" shall be painted, placed, or fixed, and not being Malt mixed with such Material as aforesaid, and removing under and according to the Provisions of this Act, he shall be dealt with in like Manner and be liable to the like Penalty and Punishment as are prescribed in the Thirty-second Section of the said Act passed in the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Years of Her Majesty in the Case of a Person offending as therein mentioned.

Provisions of former Acts relating to Maltsters and the making of Malt to be applied to the Purposes of this Act.

10. All the Provisions, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures contained in the several Acts of Parliament now in force in relation to Maltsters or the making of Malt, and also the Provisions contained in the Sections herein-after enumerated of the said Act of the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, Chapter Ninety-four, that is to say, Sections Six, Eleven, Thirteen, Fourteen, Fifteen, Sixteen, Eighteen, Nineteen, Twenty, Twenty-four, Twenty-five, Twenty-six, Twenty-seven, and Thirty-one, so far as they relate to Maltsters not being Distillers, and so far as the same shall be consistent with the express Provisions of this Act, shall be applied and put in execution with respect to Maltsters and the making of Malt under this Act as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same had been repeated and specially enacted, mutatis mutandis, with reference to Maltsters and the making of Malt under this Act.

Justices making Malt under this Act not to be disqualified from granting Alehouse Licences.

11. No Justice of the Peace shall be disqualified from acting in or about the granting or transferring of Licences to Persons to keep Inns, Alehouses, Victualling Houses, or Public Houses, or in any Discussion or Adjudication relating to the same, by reason of his making and mixing Malt under the Provisions of this Act, or of his dealing in, selling, or retailing any Malt so made and mixed as aforesaid; anything in any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

Continuance of Act.

12. This Act shall continue and be in force for Five Years from the passing thereof, and until the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and shall then expire, except as to any Act done or Offence committed, or any Penalty or Forfeiture previously incurred.

CAP. X.

An Act to continue for a further Period certain Provisions of the Union Relief Aid Acts. [28th April 1864.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that certain Provisions of the Union Relief Aid Acts, 1862 and 1863, should be further extended for a limited Period:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same:

Certain Provisions of the Union Relief Aid Acts continued.

1. That all the Provisions of the said Acts (except such as authorize the Contributions of Unions and Parishes in the Counties of Lancaster, Chester, and Derby in aid of any other Union therein) shall be extended and apply to the Expenditure for the Quarter of the Year ending at Lady Day in this Year.

2. The
