CHAPTER 61.

An Act to regulate the use of Steam Whistles in certain Manufactories.

[6th August 1872.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. This Act shall not apply to Scotland. Not to apply to Scotland.

2. No person shall use or employ in any manufactory, or any other place, any steam whistle or steam trumpet for the purpose of summoning or dismissing workmen or persons employed without the sanction of the sanitary authority, and every person offending against this section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, and to a further penalty not exceeding forty shillings for every day during which such offence continues: Provided always, that the sanitary authority, in case they have sanctioned the use of any such instrument as aforesaid, may at any time revoke such sanction on giving one month's notice to the person using the same: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the Local Government Board, on representation made to them by any person that he is prejudicially affected by such sanction, to revoke the same, and such revocation shall have the same force and effect as if it had been made by the sanitary authority. Use of steam whistles and trumpets.

3. "Sanitary authority" means the authority at the time being empowered to execute the Nuisance Removal Acts, as defined and extended by The Sanitary Act, 1866. Definition.

4. All offences and penalties under this Act may be prosecuted and recovered in England in manner directed by the Act of the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter forty-three, and any Acts amending the same, and in Ireland, in the police district of Dublin metropolis, in manner directed by the Acts regulating the powers and duties of justices of the peace for such district, or of the police of that district, and elsewhere in manner directed by the Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act, 1851, and any Act amending the same. Legal procedure.
