CHAPTER 17.

An Act to render valid Marriages heretofore solemnized in the Chapel of Ease called Saint John the Evangelist, at Bentley, in the parish of Shustock in the county of Warwick. [8th June 1874.]

WHEREAS the church or chapel known as Saint John the Evangelist, at Bentley, in the parish of Shustock in the county of Warwick and diocese of Worcester, was on the twenty-second day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven duly consecrated for the performance of divine service, but no authority has ever been given by the bishop of the said diocese, or otherwise, for the publication of banns and solemnization of marriages therein:

And whereas divers marriages have nevertheless been solemnized in the said church or chapel under an erroneous impression on the part of the ministers thereof, that by virtue of the consecration of the said church or chapel, or otherwise, marriages might be lawfully solemnized therein; and entries of the said marriages so solemnized have from time to time been made in the register books kept either at the said church or chapel, or at the parish church of Shustock aforesaid:

And whereas it is expedient under the circumstances aforesaid to remove all doubts touching the validity of the marriages so solemnized in the said church or chapel:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Marriages heretofore solemnized in Chapel of Saint John the Evangelist to be valid.

1. All banns of matrimony and marriages published or solemnized before the passing of this Act in the church or chapel known as Saint John the Evangelist, at Bentley, in the parish of Shustock aforesaid, shall be as valid as if the same had been published or solemnized in a church duly consecrated and licensed for marriages.

2. No minister who has solemnized any of the said marriages shall be liable to any ecclesiastical censure, or to any other proceedings or penalties whatsoever, by reason of his having so solemnized the same respectively. Minister officiating not liable to censure.

3. The registers of the marriages so solemnized, or copies of such registers, shall be received in all courts of law and equity as evidence of such marriages respectively, in the same manner as registers of marriages in parish churches, or copies thereof, are by law receivable in evidence. Registers of such marriages to be evidence.
