17. The sheriffs of counties and the chief magistrates of the burghs mentioned in the second section hereof shall grant to the sheriff clerks and town clerks of the said burghs respectively, and the several registrars, enumerators, or other persons employed in the execution of this Act, such allowances as shall have been certified as herein-before provided, together with any necessary expenses incurred by them or any of them in the execution of this Act, and shall order payment thereof to be made by the Queen's and Lord Treasurer's Remembrancer out of the moneys provided by Parliament for that purpose, and he shall pay the same accordingly; and the receipts to be given by the registrars, enumerators, and other persons for payment of their said allowances shall be delivered to the sheriff clerk or such town clerk, as the case may be, who shall transmit the same, together with the receipt for his own allowance, to the Registrar General for Scotland: Provided always, that no such payment shall be made to any enumerator or other person who shall be required to act as an enumerator under this Act, but upon production of a certificate under the hand of the registrar that the duties required of such enumerator or other person acting as enumerator by this Act have been faithfully performed, and the like certificate shall be required under the hand of the sheriff or such chief magistrate, as the case may be, with respect to the registrar, before any payment shall be made to him.

Manner in which the payments shall be made to persons employed in execution of this Act.

18. Every registrar, and every enumerator and other person who shall be required to act as enumerator, so appointed as aforesaid, making wilful default in any of the matters required of them respectively by this Act, or making any wilfully false declaration, shall for every such wilful default or false declaration forfeit a sum not exceeding five pounds nor less than two pounds.

Penalty for wilful default.

19. The enumerators and other persons employed in the execution of this Act shall be authorized to ask all such questions as shall be directed in any instructions to be prepared by or under the direction of the Secretary of State which shall be necessary for obtaining the returns required by this Act; and every person refusing to answer or wilfully giving a false answer to such questions or any of them shall for every such refusal or wilfully false answer forfeit a sum not exceeding five pounds nor less than twenty shillings.

Penalty for refusing information or giving false answers.

20. All offences committed in contravention of this Act shall be prosecuted, and all penalties imposed by this Act shall be recovered before the sheriff in a summary manner, under the provisions of the Summary Procedure Act, 1864; and every such penalty shall be paid, one half to the informer, and the other half to the Queen's and Lord Treasurer's Remembrancer on behalf of Her Majesty.

Recovery and application of penalties. 27 & 28 Vict. c. 53.

21. The term "sheriff" shall include "sheriff substitute"; the term "dwelling-house" shall include all buildings and tenements of which the whole or any part shall be used for the purpose of human habitation.

Interpretation of terms.

22. This Act may be cited as the Census (Scotland) Act, 1880.

Short title.

CHAPTER 39.

An Act to confer jurisdiction in Lunacy upon the County Courts in Ireland in certain cases. [7th September 1880.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the County Court Jurisdiction in Lunacy (Ireland) Act, 1880.

Short title.

Jurisdiction.

2. From and after the passing of this Act, every Civil Bill Court in Ireland shall have and may exercise, with reference to persons who reside within the jurisdiction of such Civil Bill Court and whose property, or the net estimated value of whose property, does not exceed the sum of seven hundred pounds sterling in respect of the corpus thereof, or the sum of fifty pounds sterling per annum in respect of the income thereof, all the jurisdiction, power, and authority in lunacy of the Lord Chancellor of Ireland for the time being intrusted by virtue of the Queen's Sign Manual with the care and commitment of the custody of the persons and estates of persons found idiot, lunatic, or of unsound mind.

40 & 41 Vict. c. 56.

The several provisions of the County Officers and Courts (Ireland) Act, 1877, so far as they relate to equitable jurisdiction and are applicable, shall apply to all proceedings instituted under this Act, as if the jurisdiction conferred by this Act had been conferred by the second part of the said Act; and this Act shall, so far as is consistent with the tenor thereof, be construed with the said County Officers and Courts (Ireland) Act, 1877, and with the Lunacy Regulation (Ireland) Act, 1871; and the power of making rules and orders contained in the County Officers and Courts (Ireland) Act, 1877, shall include the power of making rules and orders for carrying the purposes of this Act into effect, and prescribing the forms of proceedings and the duties of officers under it.

40 & 41 Vict. c. 56.
34 & 35 Vict. c. 22.

CHAPTER 40.

An Act to apply a sum out of the Consolidated Fund to the service of the year ending on the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, and to appropriate the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament. [7th September 1880.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, towards making good the supply which we have cheerfully granted to Your Majesty in this session of Parliament, have resolved to grant unto Your Majesty the sum herein-after mentioned; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Grant out of Consolidated Fund.

Issue of 13,614,207*l.* out of the Consolidated Fund.

1. The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the time being may issue out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and apply towards making good the supply granted to Her Majesty for the service of the year ending on the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, the sum of thirteen million six hundred and fourteen thousand two hundred and seven pounds.

Power for the Treasury to borrow.

2. The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may borrow from time to time, on the credit of the said sum of thirteen million six hundred and fourteen thousand two hundred and seven pounds, any sum or sums of equal or less amount in the whole, and shall repay the moneys so borrowed, with interest not exceeding five pounds per centum per annum, out of the growing produce of the Consolidated Fund at any period not later than the next succeeding quarter to that in which the said moneys were borrowed.

Any moneys so borrowed shall be placed to the credit of the account of Her Majesty's Exchequer, and shall form part of the said Consolidated Fund, and be available in any manner in which such fund is available.
