CHAPTER 25.

An Act to extend for a period not exceeding Three Years the term fixed for the Repayment of Loans granted by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy to Incumbents of Benefices. [11th August 1881.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Power to Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty to extend period for repayment of loans, &c.

1. The Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy (herein-after called the "Governors") may by resolution passed by them at a board meeting, from time to time extend for a period not exceeding three years the term fixed for the repayment of any money lent by them to or for the incumbent of any benefice under the powers of one or more of the Acts enumerated in the Schedule hereto, such extension of term to be accompanied, at the discretion of the Governors, by the suspension for one, two, or three years of the payment of the annual instalment of principal due or to become due from the incumbent; such suspended annual instalments to be subsequently payable by the incumbent for the time being in respect of the year or years which by the aforesaid extension shall have been added to the term created by the mortgage affected thereby, and begin to accrue due as soon as the residue of the principal money shall have become repayable.

Limitation of duration of discretionary powers.

2. The discretionary powers given by this Act shall not be exercisable beyond three years from the passing hereof, and the application of the provisions of this Act shall not in any way invalidate the instruments of security under which loans have been or may be granted by the Governors; the said provisions shall extend and apply to such instruments as if originally fully and expressly inserted therein; provided always, that the foregoing provisions shall not authorise the Governors to relinquish any portion of the current interest due or to become due on such securities.

Short title.

3. This Act may be cited as the Incumbents of Benefices Loans Extension Act, 1881.

[11th August 1881.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Title of Act.

1. This Act may be cited as the Stratified Ironstone Mines (Gunpowder) Act, 1881.

Power to exempt ironstone mines from regulation as to cartridges under 35 & 36 Vict. c. 76. s. 51.

2. (1.) It shall be lawful for one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, if he shall think fit, on the application of the owner, agent, or manager of any stratified ironstone mine in the lias formation, to exempt such mine from so much of the general rule eight in the Coal Mines Regulation Act, 1872, as forbids gunpowder or other explosives or inflammable substance from being taken into or being in the possession of any person in any mine except in cartridges.

(2.) The application shall be transmitted by the owner, agent, or manager to the inspector of the district, and the requirements of sections fifty-three and fifty-seven of the Coal Mines Regulation Act, 1872, as to the posting of any proposed special rule, shall extend to any such application: Provided that the exemption shall not come into force until granted by the Secretary of State.

(3.) The Secretary of State may at any time revoke such exemption, but such revocation shall not come into force until written or printed notice thereof has been posted up at the mine for twenty-four hours.

(4.) A list of the exemptions granted or revoked under this Act shall be set forth by the inspector of the district in his annual report.
