CHAPTER 41.

An Act to remove doubts as to the appointment of the Sheriff of Lanarkshire, and to confirm the same.

[16th September 1887.]

WHEREAS Robert Berry, Esquire, Advocate and Barrister-at-Law, was appointed to the office of sheriff of the county of Lanark by Royal Warrant on the fourth day of December one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, and has since fulfilled the duties of that office, and doubts have arisen as to his appointment having been in conformity with the Act first and second Victoria, chapter one hundred and nineteen, and it is expedient to remove such doubts:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Appointment of sheriff confirmed.

1. The appointment of the said Robert Berry shall be and is hereby confirmed as at the said date, and nothing in the Act first and second Victoria, chapter one hundred and nineteen, contained shall be held to invalidate the said appointment, or anything done by the said Robert Berry in virtue thereof.

CHAPTER 42.

An Act to amend and consolidate the Public Libraries (Scotland) Acts. [16th September 1887.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend and consolidate the Public Libraries (Scotland) Acts, 1867 to 1884:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Public Libraries Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1887, and shall apply to Scotland only.

Definitions.

2. The following words and expressions in this Act shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction; that is to say,

"Burgh" shall include royal burgh, parliamentary burgh, burgh incorporated by Act of Parliament, burgh of regality, burgh of barony, and any populous place or police burgh administered wholly or partly under any general or local police Act, and the boundaries of such burgh shall, for the purposes of this Act, be the boundaries to which such general or local police Act extends:

"Parish" shall mean a parish for which a separate poor rate is or can be imposed, or for which a separate parochial board is or can be appointed, and shall be exclusive of the area of any burgh or part of a burgh situated therein:

"Householders" shall mean, in the case of a burgh, all persons whose names are entered on the municipal register, and in the case of a parish, all persons entitled to vote in the election of a school board in such parish, under the provisions of the Education (Scotland) Act, 1872, and any Act amending the same:

35 & 36 Vict. c. 62.

"Magistrates and council" shall be applied collectively, and not separately, and shall include provost, magistrates, and town council, magistrates and commissioners of police, and any other body of persons for the time being in office, by authority of whom the burgh general assessment is levied; and where in any burgh the magistrates and council form a corporate body, and there is also in the same burgh a board of commissioners of police by whom the burgh general assessment is levied, the words "magistrates and council" shall, as regards the levying and recovering of the library rate, apply to such commissioners of police, but in every other respect it shall apply to such corporate body of magistrates and council:
