CAP. II.

An Act to discontinue certain Actions under the Provisions of an Act of the Second Year of King William the Fourth, for regulating the Vend and Delivery of Coals in the Cities of London and Westminster, and in certain Parts of the adjacent Counties.

[3d March 1843.]

1 & 2 W. 4. c. lxxvi.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Second Year of the 'Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, 'intituled An Act for regulating the Vend and Delivery of Coals in 'the Cities of London and Westminster, and in certain Parts of 'the Counties of Middlesex, Surrey, Kent, Essex, Hertfordshire,

'Bucking-

'Buckinghamshire, and Berkshire, it was amongst other things 'enacted, that every Fitter or other Person vending or delivering Coals for the Port of London should send, in a Letter 'directed to the Clerk of the Coal Market, and put into the 'General Post Office on the Day on which the Ship or Vessel 'containing any Coals should sail on any such Voyage, or 'should give to the Shipmaster of such Ship or Vessel before 'the same should sail on every or any such Voyage, a Certificate, signed by such Fitter, containing the Day of the Month 'and Year of such loading, the Master's and Ship's Names, and 'the Quantity of Tons, and the usual Names of the several and 'respective Collieries out of which the said Coals were and should 'be wrought and gotten, and the Price paid by the Master or 'Masters for each and every Sort of Coals that each and every 'Fitter or other Person vending or delivering Coals as aforesaid, 'his or their Agent or Servant, had sold and loaded on board 'each and every Ship or Vessel; and in case any Person or 'Persons should omit or refuse to give such Certificate as aforesaid, or should give or make any false Certificate, every 'Person so offending should for every such Offence forfeit and 'pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds: And whereas by the 'said Act the said Penalty and Forfeiture is made recoverable 'in manner in the said Act directed: And whereas divers 'Fitters and other Persons have inadvertently omitted to 'comply with the aforesaid Provision of the said Act, and many 'Actions, Bills, Plaints, and Informations have been brought 'and may be commenced against such Fitters and other Persons, 'or some of them, by Persons who sue, inform, and prosecute, 'as well on their own Behalf as on behalf of Her Majesty, to 'recover various Penalties incurred or alleged to have been 'incurred under or by virtue of the said Act, by reason of such 'Neglect; and it is expedient that all further Proceedings in 'such Actions, Bills, Plaints, and Informations should be prevented:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That immediately from and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons against whom any Action, Bill, Plaint, or Information shall have been or may be sued out, commenced, or prosecuted for the Recovery of any pecuniary Penalty or Penalties incurred on or before the Day of the passing of this Act, under the aforesaid Provision of the said Act, for not inserting in the Fitter's Certificate the usual Names of the several and respective Collieries out of which the said Coals should be wrought and gotten, to apply to the Court in which such Action, Bill, Plaint, or Information shall have been or may be sued out, commenced, or prosecuted, or to any Judge of any of the Superior Courts at Westminster, for an Order that such Action, Bill, Plaint, or Information shall be discontinued upon Payment of the Costs thereof incurred to the Time of such Application being made, such Costs to be taxed according to the Actions and Informations to be discontinued, upon Application to Courts of Law.

Form of such Court; and every such Court or Judge is hereby authorized and required, upon such Application, to make such Order as aforesaid, and upon the making such Order, and Payment or Tender of such Costs as aforesaid, such Action, Bill, Plaint, or Information shall be forthwith discontinued: Provided always, that if it shall be made to appear to the said Court or Judge, by Affidavit or otherwise, that any Penalty or Penalties sought to be recovered in any such Action, Bill, Plaint, or Information has been incurred by the Fraud of the Defendant or Defendants in such Action, Bill, Plaint, or Information, then and in every such Case it shall be lawful for such Court or Judge to refuse to make such Order as to such Penalty or Penalties, and thereupon to make such other Order as to the said Court or Judge shall seem expedient.

Proviso as to Penalties incurred by Fraud.

Public Act.

II. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such.

CAP. III.

An Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion; and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters. [3d April 1843.]

'WHEREAS the raising or keeping a Standing Army within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Time of Peace, unless it be with the Consent of Parliament, is against Law: And whereas it is adjudged necessary by Her Majesty, and this present Parliament, that a Body of Forces should be continued, for the Safety of the United Kingdom, the Defence of the Possessions of Her Majesty's Crown, and the Preservation of the Balance of Power in Europe, and that the whole Number of such Forces should consist of One hundred thousand eight hundred and forty-six Men, exclusive of the Officers and Men belonging to the Regiments employed in the Territorial Possessions of the East India Company, but including the Officers and Men of the Troops and Companies recruiting for those Regiments: And whereas no Man can be forejudged of Life or Limb, or subjected in Time of Peace to any Kind of Punishment within this Realm, by Martial Law, or in any other Manner than by Judgment of his Peers, and according to the known and established Laws of this Realm; yet nevertheless, it being requisite, for the retaining all the before-mentioned Forces in their Duty, that an exact Discipline be observed, and that Soldiers who shall mutiny or stir up Sedition, or shall desert Her Majesty's Service, be brought to a more exemplary and speedy Punishment than the usual Forms of the Law will allow;' be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and

Number of the Forces.
