CAP. CXXVII.

An Act for appointing additional Commissioners to put in execution the Acts for granting an Aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax and continuing the Duties on Personal Estates, Offices, and Pensions.

[16th August 1832.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to appoint Commissioners for carrying into execution several Acts granting an Aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain, and continuing to His Majesty certain Duties on Personal Estates, Offices, and Pensions in England: And whereas another Act was passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, intituled An Act for rectifying Mistakes in the Names of the Land Tax Commissioners, and for appointing additional Commissioners, and indemnifying such Persons as have acted without due Authority in execution of the Acts therein recited: And whereas it is expedient to appoint additional Persons to put in execution the several Acts for granting an Aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax in Great Britain, and for continuing to His Majesty certain Duties on Personal Estates, Offices, and Pensions in England:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the several and respective Persons herein-after named shall and may and are hereby empowered and authorized (being duly qualified) to put in execution the said Acts, and all the Clauses, Powers, Matters, and Things whatsoever therein contained, as Commissioners in and for the several and respective Counties, Shires, Stewartries, and Places of Great Britain herein-after severally and respectively mentioned and expressed, as fully and effectually as if they had been named with the other Commissioners in the said Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of His late Majesty King George the Fourth; (that is to say,)

Powers of former Acts extended to this.

II. And be it further enacted, That all the Powers, Authorities, Provisions, Matters, and Things contained in the said recited Act passed passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth and in any other Act in force, in relation to any Acts, Matters, and Things to be done by Commissioners of Land Tax, shall extend to this Act and to the Commissioners named therein, and shall be construed therewith, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever as if the same had been severally and separately repeated and re-enacted in this Act, and made Part hereof.

Commissioners empowered to transfer Jurisdictions from one Hundred or Division to another.

III. 'And whereas Doubts have arisen whether the Commissioners acting in the Execution of the Acts relating to the Land Tax for any County, Shire, or Riding are authorized by the said Acts to alter the Jurisdiction of any Parish, Tything, Township, Hamlet, or Place, for the Purposes of the said Act, by transferring any One or more thereof from one Division to another of the same County, as Occasion shall require, with a view to the more convenient Execution of the said Acts; and it is expedient to remove such Doubts:' Be it enacted and declared, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners, at a General Meeting or Meetings for any County, Riding, or Shire, required and authorized by the said Acts to be held for the Purposes therein mentioned on or before the Thirtieth Day of April in any Year, if and as they shall see fit (subject as herein provided), to transfer the Jurisdiction of any Parish, Township, Hamlet, Tything, or Place from the Hundred or Division of which the same now forms a Part, together with the Quotas payable by them respectively at the Time of such Transfer, to any adjoining or other Division of the same County; and provided every such Alteration respectively shall be certified in Writing, under the Hands of the Majority of the Commissioners present at such General Meeting, to His Majesty's Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, and provided the same shall be approved of by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, to be certified to the Commissioners of the respective Divisions, together with the Quotas to be assessed and levied on the Parishes, Townships, Tythings, Hamlets, or Places transferred, under the Hands of the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, or any Two of them, but not otherwise, then and in that Case such Alteration shall be of binding Force and Effect; and the Commissioners whose respective Districts or Divisions shall be altered, varied, or extended by such Certificate shall have full Jurisdiction and Controul in, over, and throughout the several transferred Parishes, Townships, Tythings, Hamlets, or Places as aforesaid, and shall and may execute all the Powers and Provisions of the Acts relating to the Land Tax, and of the Acts relating to the Duties of Assessed Taxes, in assessing, charging, raising, and enforcing Payment of the said Taxes respectively in and throughout the same; and the Parishes, Townships, Tythings, Hamlets, or Places transferred shall be considered as forming Part of the Division to which they shall be transferred for all the Purposes of the Acts relating to the Land Tax and the Assessed Taxes respectively; any thing in any former Statute contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding; and all the Alterations herein provided for, which may have been made at any Time previous to the passing of this Act, shall be as as binding and effectual, and be acted on in all respects, as if the same had taken place after the passing of this Act, and in pursuance hereof: Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorize the Alteration of the Limits or Jurisdiction of any of the Cities, Boroughs, Cinque Ports, Towns, and Places respectively, in Great Britain, for which separate and distinct Quotas of Land Tax are provided by and enumerated in the Acts now in force relating to the Land Tax.
