Exchequer for the Time being, shall respectively make for that Purpose in each Year respectively.

Judges of the King's Bench and Common Pleas, and Barons of the Exchequer, may sit in the new Court House.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Judges of the Court of King's Bench, or any One or more of them, and for the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas, or any One or more of them, and for the Barons of the Court of Exchequer, or any One or more of them, to sit in the said new Court House, and there to hear, try, and determine all or any Issues, Civil or Criminal, joined or to be joined in the said respective Courts, and to pronounce Judgment and make Orders, and to have and exercise in the said new Court House all the same Powers, Privileges, and Authorities as if such Judges or Barons respectively were sitting in their said respective Courts; and that all Process, Orders, Acts, and Proceedings so to, from, and in the said new Court House to be made and had, shall be valid and effectual as if made and had in the said Courts respectively; and that all Jurors, Parties, Witnesses, Sheriffs, Bailiffs, and others shall be bound and are hereby required to attend before the said Judges and Barons respectively, or any Judge or Baron presiding as aforesaid in the said new Court House, as fully and effectually as if the said Judges or Judge, Barons or Baron, were sitting in their said respective Courts.

Providing in case the said General Fund shall be reduced, in what Manner it shall be reimbursed for the Purposes of this Act.

III. And be it further enacted, That if it shall happen that the General Fund belonging to the Suitors of the said Courts shall at any Time be reduced to a Sum not greater than the Amount of the Sums in the said recited Acts mentioned and required to be paid by the Governors and Company of the said Bank, and the Sum of Four thousand Pounds, which by this Act may be paid out of such General Fund, the Governor of the said Bank shall from Time to Time be reimbursed, from and out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom, so much of the several Sums in the said Acts mentioned, and of the said Sum of Four thousand Pounds, as shall have been paid by the said Governor and Company by virtue of this Act, or so much as shall appear to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or to the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, to be necessary to provide a Fund sufficient to answer the Demands of the Suitors of the said Courts upon the said Bank.

CAP. XXXIII.

An Act to effectuate the Service of Process issuing from the Courts of Chancery and Exchequer in England and Ireland respectively. [23d May 1832.]

'WHEREAS great Inconvenience and Delays of Justice arise from the Defect of Jurisdiction in Courts of Equity to effectuate the Service of their Process in such Parts of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as are not within the Jurisdiction of the said respective Courts;' for Remedy whereof be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this

Courts of Chancery and Exchequer of England, in Suits concerning Lands, &c. in England, empowered to direct Process to be served in other Parts of the United Kingdom.

this Act it shall and may be lawful for the Courts of Chancery and of Exchequer in England respectively, if they shall so think fit, upon special Motion of the Complainant or Complainants in any Suit which has been or shall be instituted in such Courts respectively, concerning Lands or Tenements or Hereditaments situate or being within that Part of the United Kingdom called England or Wales, to order and direct that Service, in any Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and in the Isle of Man respectively, of any Subpœna or Subpœnas, Letter Missive or Letters Missive, and of all subsequent Process to be had thereon, upon any Defendant or Defendants in such Suit then residing in such Part of the said United Kingdom or Isle of Man in which he, she, or they shall be so served, shall be deemed good Service of or be made upon such Defendant or Defendants, upon such Terms and in such Manner and at such Time as to such Courts respectively shall seem reasonable; and that thereupon it shall and may be lawful for such Courts respectively to proceed upon such Service so made as aforesaid as fully and as effectually as if the same had been duly made within the Jurisdictions of such Courts respectively.

Courts of Chancery and Exchequer of Ireland, in Suits concerning Lands, &c. in Ireland, empowered to direct Process to be served in other Parts of the United Kingdom.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Courts of Chancery and of Exchequer in Ireland respectively, if they shall so think fit, upon special Motion of the Complainant or Complainants in any Suit which has been or shall be instituted in such Courts respectively, concerning Lands or Tenements or Hereditaments situate or being within that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, to order and direct that Service in any Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and in the Isle of Man respectively, of any Subpœna or Subpœnas, Letter Missive or Letters Missive, and of all subsequent Process to be had thereupon, upon any Defendant or Defendants in such Suit then residing in such Part of the said United Kingdom or Isle of Man in which he, she, or they shall be so served, shall be deemed good Service of or be made upon such Defendant or Defendants, upon such Terms and in such Manner and at such Time as to such Courts respectively shall seem reasonable; and that thereupon it shall and may be lawful for such Courts respectively to proceed upon such Service so made as aforesaid as fully and as effectually as if the same had been duly made within the Jurisdiction of such Courts respectively.

With Subpœna served under this Act a Copy of the Prayer of the Bill to be served; and no Process of Contempt to be entered without special Order.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That along with such Subpœna or Letter Missive served under any such Order as aforesaid of the said Courts of Chancery and of Exchequer of England and of Ireland respectively, a Copy of the Prayer of such Complainant's Bill shall be served upon every such Defendant; and provided also, that no Process of Contempt shall be entered upon any such Proceedings as herein-before mentioned, nor any Decree made absolute in any of the said Courts in England or Ireland respectively, without the special Order of such Court, upon special Motion made for such Purpose: Provided also, that nothing in this Act shall be held to make it compulsory upon the Complainant or Complainants in any Suit in any of the said respective Courts to serve with Process or bring before such such Courts respectively any Party or Parties, Person or Persons, further or otherwise than such Complainant or Complainants are now by Law or the Practice of such Courts respectively required to do.

CAP. XXXIV.

An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws against Offences relating to the Coin. [23d May 1832.]

'WHEREAS the Offence of counterfeiting the Coin, as well as certain other Offences relating to the Coin, are now by virtue of several Statutes punishable with Death: And whereas it is expedient to abolish the Punishment of Death in all such Cases, and to repeal the several Statutes against Offences relating to the Coin, in order that the Provisions thereof may be amended and consolidated into One Act;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the following Statutes and Parts of Statutes made in the Parliament of England, that is to say, the Statutes concerning Money, commonly cited as of the Twentieth Year of the Reign of King Edward the First, and respectively intituled Statutum de Moneta, Statutum de Moneta parvum, and Articuli de Moneta; and a Statute made in the Twenty-seventh Year of the same Reign, intituled Statutum de falsa Moneta; and a Statute made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of King Edward the Third, commonly intituled The Statute of Money; and the Statute made in the Seventeenth Year of the same Reign; and so much of a Statute made in the Eighteenth Year of the same Reign as relates to false Money; and so much of a Statute made in the Twenty-fifth Year of the same Reign as relates to counterfeiting the King's Money, and to bringing false Money into this Realm; and so much of the same Statute as relates to taking Profit by Exchange of Gold and Silver, and to the impairing the Money of Gold and Silver; and so much of a Statute made in the Twenty-seventh Year of the same Reign, intituled Ordinatio Stapularum, as relates to the Forfeiture of false Money; and so much of a Statute made in the Third Year of the Reign of King Henry the Fifth as relates to clipping, washing, and filing of the Money of the Land, and to the Persons who shall have Power to hear, determine, or inquire of the counterfeiting and of the bringing of false Money into the Realm, and of clipping, washing, and every other Falsity of the said Money; and an Act passed in the Nineteenth Year of the Reign of King Henry the Seventh, intituled Pro reformacione Pecuniarum; and an Act passed in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of King Edward the Sixth, intituled An Act touching the Exchange of Gold and Silver; and an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of Queen Mary, intituled An Act against counterfeiting of strange Coins being current within this Realm, or of the Queen's Highness' Sign Manual, Signet, or Privy Seal; and an Act passed in the First and Second Years of the Reign of King Philip and Queen Mary, intituled An Act for the Punishment of bringing in of counterfeit Coins of Foreign Realms being current within this Realm; and an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the
