CAP. LXVII.

An Act to amend an Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, relating to the Union of Parishes in Ireland.

[17th July 1832.]

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Seventh and Eighth 'Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the 'Fourth, intituled An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws in force in Ireland for Unions and Divisions of Parishes, and for uniting or disappropriating Appropriate Parishes or Parts of Parishes, and to make further Provision with respect to the erecting Chapels of Ease and making Perpetual Cures, it is among other things enacted, that from and after the passing of the said Act it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, with the Assent of the major Part of His Majesty's Privy Council, and with the Advice and Approbation of the Archbishop of the Province and the Bishop of the Diocese, and with the Consent of the respective Patrons, certified under their Hands and Seals, attested by Two or more credible Witnesses subscribing thereto, to divide old Parishes, or to separate any Parish or Part of a Parish heretofore united, in whatever Manner such Union may have been effected: And whereas no Provision has been made in the said recited Act for the Consent of Patrons in those Cases in which the Patrons may be either Infant or Lunatic, or married Woman: And whereas, in default of such Provision, Difficulties have arisen to the Separation of Parishes, which the Lord Lieutenant and Privy Council of Ireland, with the Approbation of the Archbishops and Bishops of the respective Dioceses, may deem it advisable to separate:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Patron or joint Patron of a Benefice shall at any Time after the passing of this Act prove to be a Minor, Lunatic, or Idiot, it shall be lawful for the Guardian or Guardians of such Patron being a Minor, or for the Committee of such Patron being a Lunatic or Idiot, with the Approbation in either Case respectively of the Lord Chancellor of Ireland for the Time being, to be obtained on Petition made 7 & 8 G. 4. c. 43.

Guardians and Committees of incapacitated Patrons may consent to the Separation of Parishes.

to him for that Purpose, to give Consent, on behalf of such Patron, to the Division of any Parish, or the Separation of any Parish or Part of a Parish heretofore united, in as full and ample a Manner as such Patron being of full Age and sound Mind could have done under the said recited Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of His late Majesty: Provided always, that when the Patron or Patrons or joint Patron or joint Patrons of any such Parish or Parishes shall be a married Woman or married Women, it shall be lawful for such married Woman or married Women, as the Case may be, to signify and declare her or their Consent in open Court of Chancery in Ireland, to be there recorded and inrolled, and such Consent so given and inrolled shall be valid and binding as if such married Woman or married Women were single or discovert.

CAP. LXVIII.

An Act for the more effectual Prevention of Trespasses upon Property by Persons in pursuit of Game in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

'WHEREAS Trespasses upon Property by Persons unlawfully engaged in the Pursuit of Game have recently become frequent in various Parts of Scotland, and have, in many Cases, been attended by Acts of Violence and Intimidation, for the Repression of which the Laws now in force in that Part of the United Kingdom provide no sufficient Remedy, and that it is therefore expedient that more effectual and summary Remedies should be provided;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person whatsoever shall commit any Trespass by entering or being, in the Day-time, upon any Land, without Leave of the Proprietor, in search or pursuit of Game, or of Deer, Roe, Woodcocks, Snipes, Quails, Landrails, Wild Ducks, or Conies, such Person shall, on being summarily convicted thereof before a Justice of the Peace, on Proof on Oath by One or more credible Witness or Witnesses, or Confession of the Offence, or upon other legal Evidence, forfeit and pay such Sum of Money, not exceeding Two Pounds, as to the Justice shall seem meet, together with the Costs of the Conviction; and that if any Person having his Face blackened, coloured, or otherwise disfigured for the Purpose of Disguise, or if any Persons to the Number of Five or more together shall commit any Trespass by entering or being, in the Day-time, upon any Land in search or pursuit of Game, or of Deer, Roe, Woodcocks, Snipes, Quails, Landrails, Wild Ducks, or Conies, each of such Persons shall, on being summarily convicted thereof before a Justice of the Peace on Proof on Oath by One or more credible Witness or Witnesses, or Confession of the Offence, or upon other legal Evidence, forfeit and pay such Sum of Money, not exceeding Five Pounds, as to the said Justice shall seem meet, together with the Expences of Process: Provided always, that any Person charged with any such Trespass shall be at liberty to prove, by way of Defence,
