Act may be altered this Session.

III. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. LXXXIII.

An Act to authorize for One Year the Removal of Prisoners from the several Gaols in Ireland, in Cases of epidemic Diseases. [3d August 1832.]

'WHEREAS a malignant epidemic Disease has for some Time prevailed in the City of Dublin and in other Places in Ireland: And whereas the Progress of the said Disease is likely to be much augmented by the Want of proper Accommodation in the Gaols of the said City and other Places, and the Number of Persons who may be confined therein: And whereas the Removal of such Prisoners to other Prisons or Places cannot, as the Law now stands, take place without Risk to Persons to whose Custody such Prisoners respectively may be committed: And whereas Persons remanded or ordered to be imprisoned by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in Ireland cannot by any Order of the said Court or otherwise be discharged or removed to other Custody; and it is expedient that the Law should in such Cases be amended, for the Benefit and Safety of the Public:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That when and so often as any contagious, epidemic, or endemic Disease shall exist or be apprehended in the City or in the County of Dublin, or in any other City, Town, or Place in Ireland, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by his or their Order, to be signified by his or their Chief Secretary or Under Secretary, to direct that any Person or Persons, being imprisoned in any Gaol, Prison, Bridewell, or other Place of Confinement in the City or in the County of Dublin, or in any other City, Town, or Place in Ireland, under or by virtue of any Process, civil or criminal, or under or by virtue of any Order or Writ of any Court of Justice in Ireland, shall and may be removed from such Gaol, Prison, Bridewell, or other Place of Confinement, to such other Gaol, Prison, or Place of Custody as to such Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland shall seem fit and proper, for and during such Time as to him or them shall appear expedient; and every such Person when so removed shall be to all Intents and Purposes deemed and considered to be in the proper legal Custody for and during the Time of such Removal, and for and during such Time as he or she shall be in the Place to which he or she shall be so removed, in like Manner to all Intents and Purposes as if such Person had continued in his or her original Place of Confinement, and had not been by any such Order or otherwise removed from the same; and that no Right, Duty, Authority, Liability, Jurisdiction, Franchise, Power, Privilege, or Function of any Person whatsoever, which if such Removal had not taken place would have existed, or could or might might have been used or exercised, shall be in any respect or degree affected, altered, diminished, prejudiced, or varied by or in consequence of any such Removal.

In case of Contagion, Prisoners may be removed by Order of Lord Lieutenant.

Commencement and Continuance of Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall commence and take effect from and after the passing of the same, and shall continue and be in force for the Space of One Year, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

CAP. LXXXIV.

An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Customs.

[3d August 1832.]

'WHEREAS several Acts were passed in the Sixth Year of 'the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth 'for consolidating the Laws of the Customs, and it is found neces- 'sary to make certain Alterations and Amendments therein;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act the several Enactments herein-after contained shall come into and be and continue in full Force and Operation for all the Purposes mentioned therein.

Commencement of Act.

Management.

6 G. 4. c. 106. Holidays.

II. 'And whereas by One of the said Acts, intituled An Act for 'the Management of the Customs, certain Regulations are made re- 'specting the Days to be kept as Holidays, and it is expedient to 'amend the same;' be it therefore enacted, That no Day shall be kept as a Public Holiday by the Officers of Customs, except Christmas Day and Good Friday in every Year, and any Days appointed by His Majesty's Proclamation for the Purpose of a General Fast or of a General Thanksgiving, and also, so far as regards Scotland, any Days appointed for such Purposes by Authority of the General Assembly, and also such Days as shall have been appointed for the Celebration of the Birth-days of Their Majesties and of Their Successors; and that such Days shall be kept as Public Holidays by the Officers and Servants of all the Dock Companies in the United Kingdom.

Regulation.

6 G. 4. c. 107. Certificate of the due landing not to be required for Drawback or Bounty Goods from Guernsey or Jersey.

III. 'And whereas by one other of the said Acts, intituled An 'Act for the general Regulation of the Customs, it is enacted that 'no Drawback or Bounty is to be allowed for any Goods ex- 'ported from the United Kingdom to Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, 'or Sark, until a Certificate shall be produced from the Registrar 'of Certificates or other chief Officer of the Customs in the said 'Islands, of the due landing of such Goods; and it is expedient 'to repeal so much of the said Act;' be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act no Certificate shall be required of the due landing of Drawback or Bounty Goods in any of the said Islands; any thing in the said Act to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Masters of Vessels coming from Africa to report how many Natives of Africa they have taken on board in Africa.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Master of every Vessel coming from the Coast of Africa, and having taken on board at any Place in Africa any Person or Persons being or appearing to be Natives of Africa, shall, in addition to all Matters now required by Law to be reported by him, state, in the Report of his Vessel, how many
