ANNO TERTIO & QUARTO

GULIELMI IV. REGIS.

****

C A P LXXXVIII.

An Act to continue for Seven Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, an Act of the Fifty-ninth Year of King George the Third, for facilitating the Recovery of the Wages of Seamen in the Merchants Service. [28th August 1833.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fifty-ninth Year of His late Majesty King George the Third, for facilitating the Recovery of the Wages of Seamen in the Merchant Service; which Act was, by another Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, continued for a Term of Seven Years: And whereas it is expedient that the said first-mentioned Act should be continued for a further Term: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act of the Fifty-ninth Year of His late Majesty King George the Third, for facilitating the Recovery of the Wages of Seamen in the Merchant Service, shall be and the same is hereby further continued for Seven Years, to be computed from the passing of this Act, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

The Act 59 G. 3. c. 58. for facilitating the Recovery of Wages of Seamen in the Merchant Service, continued for Seven Years.
