An Act to amend the Laws relating to Appeals against summary Convictions before Justices of the Peace in Ireland. [15th August 1834.]

WHEREAS General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace are holden in each of the Divisions of Counties in Ireland, and it is expedient, for the Ease and Convenience of the Parties concerned in Appeals thereto from the Orders or Convictions of Justices of the Peace, that the Hearing thereof should be limited to the Sessions holden in the Division wherein such Order or Conviction has been made or pronounced: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act every such Appeal shall and may be heard and determined on at the next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in the same Division of the County wherein the Order or Conviction has been made or pronounced, and not at the Sessions holden in any other Division of such County; any thing in any Act to the contrary notwithstanding.
