CAP. XIII.

An Act to regulate the Importation of Corn into the Isle of Man. [3d July 1835.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Importation of Corn, whereby certain Duties, as set forth in a Table annexed to the said Act, are made payable in the United Kingdom upon the Importation of Corn, Grain, Meal, and Flour, but which Duties are not payable in the Isle of Man: And whereas the surplus Productions of the Isle of Man are nevertheless admissible, under the Laws now in force, into the United Kingdom, without Payment of any Duties: And whereas the Inhabitants of the Isle of Man do not stand in need of any Supplies of Foreign Corn for their Consumption, and therefore it is necessary, for the better Enforcement of the said Act with regard to the Importation of Corn into the United Kingdom, to make new Provisions for regulating the Importation of Corn into the Isle of Man:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall not be lawful to import into the Isle of Man any Foreign Corn, Grain, Meal, or Flour, except upon Payment of the same Duties as are by the said Act made payable on the Importation into the United Kingdom of Corn, Grain, Meal, or Flour.

9 G. 4. c. 60.

All Foreign Corn to be subject to the same Duties in the Isle of Man as in the United Kingdom.

Certificate of Average Prices to be transmitted.

II. 'And whereas in and by the said Act it is provided that a certain Certificate of the aggregate Average Prices of Corn shall be transmitted to the Collector or other chief Officer of the Customs at each of the several Ports of the United Kingdom;' be it further enacted, That the said Certificate shall in like Manner be transmitted to the Collector or other chief Officer of the Customs at the Port of Douglas in the Isle of Man; and that the Duties payable as aforesaid in the Isle of Man shall be ascertained from Time to Time by the Prices set forth in such Certificate, in like Manner as the same are ascertained in the United Kingdom.

III. And

III. And be it further enacted, That the Duties imposed by this Act shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto His Majesty in like Manner as if the same had been imposed by an Act passed in the Third and Fourth Years of His Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for regulating the Trade of the Isle of Man. How Duties are to be collected. 3 & 4 W. 4. c. 60.

CAP. XIV.

An Act to continue to the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, an Act of the Tenth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, for providing for the Government of His Majesty's Settlements in Western Australia on the Western Coast of New Holland. [3d July 1835.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to provide, until the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, for the Government of His Majesty's Settlements in Western Australia on the Western Coast of New Holland: And whereas the said Act will shortly expire; and it is expedient that the said Act should be further continued:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act, so passed as aforesaid in the Tenth Year of His said late Majesty's Reign, shall be and the same is hereby continued and shall remain in force until the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, and thenceforward until the End of the then next Session of Parliament. 10 G. 4. c. 22. Recited Act to be continued until 31st Dec. 1836, and until End of then next Session of Parliament.

CAP. XV.

An Act to continue until the Thirty-first Day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, the Allowances of the Duty of Excise on Soap used in certain Manufactures. [21st July 1835.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Third and Fourth Years of His Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to repeal the Duties, Allowances, and Drawbacks of Excise on Soap, and to grant other Duties, Allowances, and Drawbacks in lieu thereof: And whereas by the said Act certain Allowances of the Duties of Excise paid on Soap were granted in respect of Soap used in certain Manufactures and Processes set forth in the said Act, and which Allowances were to cease at the End of the Session of Parliament next after the Thirty-first Day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirty-five: And whereas it is expedient that such Allowances should be continued for a further Time:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the 3 & 4 W. 4. c. 16.
