

ANNO QUINTO & SEXTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

residing in the Town of Ayr, the said Trustees did thereby give, grant, alienate, and dispone, to and in favour of the said William Paterson (the Heir in Possession of the said Estate of Monkwood), and the Heirs Male of his Body; whom failing, to the Heirs Female of the Body of him the said William Paterson, and the Heirs whatsoever of their Bodies, the eldest Heir Female, and the Descendants of her Body, always succeeding without Division, and excluding Heirs Portioners throughout the whole Course of Female Succession, but every eldest Heir Female so succeeding being bound and obliged to pay to her younger Sisters out of the Rents and Profits of the said Lands and Estate the Sum of One thousand Pounds Sterling each, by Six or Eight Instalments, payable half-yearly, with Interest thereon from the Time of the Death of the last preceding Heir of Entail in Possession, and the Daughter of the Heir who was last in Possession succeeding always in preference to the Daughter of any former Heir or other Heir Female so often as the Succession should devolve upon Daughters or Heirs Female; whom failing, to the Heirs Male of the Body of William Paterson of Kaimshill, deceased; whom failing, to the Heirs Male of Robert Findlay, late of Easter Hill, deceased; but, as regards the said William Paterson and the said other Heirs of Entail, subject to and under the Conditions, Provisions, Restrictions, Limitations, Prohibitions, Exceptions, and Clauses irritant and resolutive, Declarations and Reservations, such as are usual in the Settlement of Lands in strict Entail by the Law of Scotland, and under the Powers, Faculties, and Provisions contained in the said Disposition and Deed of Entail; and failing all the said Heirs of Entail, to the Provost and Four Bailies of the Town of Kilmarnock, and the Three Ministers of the Low and High Churches in the said Town for the Time being, and the Successors in Office of the said Provost, Bailies, and Ministers respectively for ever, free of the whole Fetters of Entail, but inalienably, and upon Trust nevertheless and to and for the special End, Intent, and Purpose therein specified, videlicet, that the whole clear Rents, Profits, Produce, and Income to arise from the said Lands and Estate to be called the Paterson Estate should from thenceforth and for ever thereafter be duly and faithfully paid and applied to and for and upon such public Uses and Purposes, for promoting the general Benefit and Advantage of the Inhabitants at large of the said Town, and more especially for promoting the Benefit and Advantage of the young of both Sexes, and of the aged, decayed, and unfortunate, but respectable, Inhabitants, of both Sexes, in the said Town for ever, but so always as that the Proprietors of Lands and Houses in the Town and Parish of Kilmarnock should not become entitled to obtain or receive any private or individual Benefit or Advantage therefrom, or be thereby relieved, exonerated, or discharged from Payment of any public or parochial Burden, Taxes, or Assessments whatsoever, as the said Provost, Bailies, and Ministers of the said Town for the Time being, in conjunction with the Town Treasurer of the said Town for the Time being, and in conjunction also with any Seven former Bailies of the said Town, shall approve of, direct, and appoint, in and by a good and sufficient Deed of Appointment to be for that Purpose by the said Provost, Bailies, and Ministers for the Time being, the said Town Treasurer for the Time being, and the said Seven former Bailies, duly made and subscribed without out Delay, and to be with all convenient Speed duly recorded in the Books of Council and Session and Sheriff Court Books of Ayr; it being expressly by the said Disposition and Deed of Entail declared, that it should always be competent to and in the Power of the Provost, Bailies, and Ministers of the said Town of Kilmarnock for the Time being, when and so often as they shall see Cause, to prosecute Actions of Contravention and Forfeiture against any of the Heirs of Entail in Possession of the said Lands and Estate, or others having Interest, in case of any Act or Deed having been done or granted for the Purpose of preventing or having a Tendency to prevent the said Lands and Estate from devolving upon them, in Trust as aforesaid, on the Failure of all the Heirs of Entail called to the Succession; all and whole the Lands and others therein described, to be now and in all Time coming called the Paterson Estate, and, among others, the Lands and others hereinafter described; videlicet, Primo, all and whole the Four Pound Land of Monkwood, with the new Mill built upon the said Lands, Mill Lands, Multures, and Sequels thereof, together with the Fishing of Salmon and other Fishings on the Water of Doon, within the Bounds and Limits of the Lands; and all and whole the Lands of Moss End and the Merk Land of Mackewnston, which are Parts and Pertinents of the Five Pound Land of old Extent of Grange, with Houses, Buildings, Yards, Woods, Fishings, and Pertinents whatsoever, lying within the Regality of Melrose, late Bailiary of Carrick, and Shire of Ayr; as also all and whole the Lands of Smithston, Smithston Mill, and Lands of Sandyford, with Houses, Biggings, Yards, Orchards, Mills, Multures, Woods, Fishings, Mosses, Muirs, Meadows, Parts, Pendicles, and Pertinents, all lying within the Parish of Maybole, late Bailiary of Carrick, and Sheriffdom of Ayr; as also all and whole those Parts of the Lands of Auchendrain, extending in whole to Twenty-two Acres One Rood and Eleven Falls, or thereby, bounded as follows, videlicet, on the North partly by the Woods on the Lands of Auchendrain, still belonging to Sir James Ferguson of Killkerran, Baronet, and partly by the Water of Doon, on the East and South Parts by the Culroyburn, which divides the said Lands above disponed from the Lands of Monkwood, and on the West by the Turnpike Road leading from Ayr to Maybole; as also all and whole that Piece of Land of the Lands of Blackbyres, extending to One Rood and Thirty-five Falls, or thereby, separated from the said Lands above disponed by the said Turnpike Road, bounded by the said Road on the East, by a Road leading therefrom into the Lands of Blackbyres on the North, and the said Lands of Blackbyres on the South and West Parts, opposite to the Gate House on the Avenue or Entrance from the said Highway to the House of Monkwood; as also all and whole those Angles and Pieces of Land, being Part of the Bog of the Lands of Maitlandston, which were cut off by the new Road leading from Ayr to Maybole, and rendered contiguous to the Lands of Midton, which Angles and Pieces of the said Bog of Maitlandston extend to One Acre and Twenty-six Falls and a Half Fall, conform to a regular Measurement thereof, all lying within the Parish of Maybole, Earldom of Carrick, and Shire of Ayr, with the Servitude of a Road, as the same was used and wont, through the Lands of Maitlandston,

Maitlandston, the Property of John M'Mikine Esquire, which lie betwixt the Lands of Monkwood, above described, and the High Road betwixt Ayr and Maybole, in Terms of an Obligation granted by the late John M'Mikine Esquire, then younger, of Killintringan, dated the Twenty-ninth Day of April One thousand seven hundred and sixty-six, together with the Teinds, Parsonage and Vicarage, of the said whole Lands thereby disponed, so far as the said Trustees had right to the same: And whereas the said William Paterson was duly infeft and seised in the aforesaid Lands and Estate in virtue of the Precept of Seisin contained in the said Disposition and Deed of Entail, and now stands infeft therein as Heir of Entail aforesaid, conform to Instrument of Seisin in his Favour, dated the Fifteenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and forty-one, and registered in the General Register of Seisins at Edinburgh the Fourteenth Day of June in the same Year: And whereas the said Disposition and Deed of Entail is granted under the Burden of an Annuity of One hundred and fifty Pounds Sterling to Martin Thomas Paterson during the Term of his natural Life, and of an Annuity of Fifty Pounds Sterling to Agnes Howie during the Term of her natural Life, such Annuities to be payable half-yearly, as therein specified: And whereas it is also provided by the said Disposition and Deed of Entail, that if the Succession to the said Lands and Estate should happen to devolve upon William Smoult Paterson, Grandson of the said William Paterson of Kaimshill, or his Heirs Male, in the Lifetime of the said Martin Thomas Paterson, or in the Lifetime of the Children of the said Martin Thomas Paterson, that then and in such Case a certain Legacy of Five thousand Pounds Sterling left by the said deceased William Paterson to the said William Smoult Paterson shall be and become payable to the Children of the said Martin Thomas Paterson, equally among them, in the Manner and under the Conditions prescribed and specified in the said Disposition and Deed of Entail: And whereas it is further provided by the said Disposition and Deed of Entail, that during the Time that the said William Smoult Paterson and his Heirs Male shall possess the said Lands and Estate they shall be obliged to pay to the said Martin Thomas Paterson in his Lifetime, and after his Decease to and among his Children equally during their Lives, and to the Survivor of them, an Annuity of Three hundred Pounds Sterling, to be secured and paid also in manner therein mentioned: And whereas the said Entailed Lands of Monkwood and others herein-before described, and set forth in the Schedule marked (A.) hereunto annexed, lie detached from the Lands and Estate of Ladykirk and others, also contained in the said recited Disposition and Deed of Entail, and it would be beneficial to the said William Paterson and the other Heirs of Entail if the said Lands of Monkwood were sold, and the Price thereof applied in the Purchase of other Lands lying contiguous to the said Lands of Ladykirk and others, if Lands so situated can be advantageously procured: And whereas by an Agreement conditionally entered into by and between the said William Paterson and William Frederick Ferguson Esquire, residing at Doonholm, the said William Frederick Ferguson has agreed, in the event of an Act of Parliament being obtained authorizing the Sale of the said Lands of Monkwood and others to him (the Costs

Agreement of Sale between William Paterson and William Frederick Ferguson.

Costs and Charges of obtaining which are to be defrayed by him the said William Frederick Ferguson), to pay to the said William Paterson and his Heirs the Sum of Thirty thousand two hundred Pounds Sterling, as the Price of the said herein-before described Lands of Monkwood and others, as the said Agreement regulating the Terms of Entry and other Particulars, dated the Twelfth and Fifteenth Days and registered in the Books of Council and Session the Seventeenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and forty-two, more fully bears: And whereas the Fulfilment of the said Agreement, and the Reinvestment of the Price thereby stipulated to be paid for the said Lands of Monkwood and others, would, inasmuch as the estimated Value of the said Lands of Monkwood and others in the Manner above mentioned, and of the Wood growing upon the same, amounts only to Twenty-four thousand seven hundred and thirty-seven Pounds Five Shillings and One Penny, be for the Advantage of the said William Paterson and the Heirs Substitute and others entitled to take under the said recited Disposition and Deed of Entail, but, by reason of the Prohibitions, Conditions, Limitations, and Clauses irritant and resolutive, therein contained, the same cannot take place without the Aid and Authority of Parliament: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the said William Paterson, the Heir of Entail in Possession, upon Payment, as after mentioned, of the Price of Thirty thousand two hundred Pounds, and Interest, if any, as stipulated by the said Agreement, to sell and dispose of the said Lands and Estate of Monkwood and others, as herein-before and in the said Schedule (A.) described, in Terms of the said recited Agreement, in favour of the said William Frederick Ferguson, at and for the Sum of Thirty thousand two hundred Pounds, the Price thereby agreed to be paid for the same, and to grant all necessary Dispositions and Conveyances, and other Deeds, Rights, and Titles for effectually vesting the said Lands and Estate of Monkwood and others in the said William Frederick Ferguson in Fee Simple, and freed of all the Conditions, Restrictions, and Fetters of the said Deed of Entail, and along with such Disposition, Conveyance, or other Deed the said William Paterson shall deliver up to the said William Frederick Ferguson the Title Deeds of the said Lands and Estate of Monkwood and others, and shall free and disburden and relieve the said Estate of all Burdens and Incumbrances whatever, and the said William Paterson shall not thereby or on that account incur any Forfeiture or Irritancy or other Liability under the said Deed of Entail, any thing therein contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Authority to sell Monkwood in Terms of Agreement.

II. And be it enacted, That the said Sum of Thirty thousand two hundred Pounds, the Price of the said Lands of Monkwood and others, shall be paid into one or other of the Bank of Scotland, the Royal Bank of Scotland, the Bank of the British Linen Company of Scotland, the Commercial Bank of Scotland, or National Bank of Scotland, in the Names of Martin Thomas Paterson Esquire, residing in Kilmarnock, William Paterson Esquire, of Montgomerie, Charles Peebles

Price to be paid into Bank in Scotland.

Peebles Esquire, Writer in Glasgow, and the Provost of Kilmarnock for the Time being, so as to produce the highest Rate of Interest that can be obtained for the same, but upon Trust always, and to and for the Uses, Intents, and Purposes herein-after expressed; namely, that they the said Martin Thomas Paterson, William Paterson, Charles Peebles, and the Provost of Kilmarnock for the Time being, and the Survivors and Survivor of them, and the Heirs of such Survivor, may and shall, with all convenient Speed, under the Authority and with the Approbation of the Court of Session in either Division thereof, and under their Direction, and by and with the Consent and Approbation of the said William Paterson, the Heir in Possession, or of the Heir of Entail for the Time being entitled to Possession under the said Deed of Entail of Monkwood and Ladykirk and others, or the Tutors and Curators or Guardians of such Heir if under Age, lay out, invest, and apply the Principal Money which shall so be at the Credit of the said Trustees in the Account to be opened in the Books of such Bank in their Names as aforesaid in the Purchase of other Lands and Estates lying adjacent, or as nearly adjacent as may be advantageously procured, to the said Entailed Lands and Estate of Ladykirk and others, and that at such fair and just Price as ought to be reasonably given for the same, and of which the Court of Session shall approve, and shall confirm such Purchase; and the Lands and Estates to be so purchased shall be conveyed and disponed by the said Trustees hereby appointed, or to be appointed in virtue of this Act, under the Authority and by the Direction and Appointment of the said Court of Session in either Division thereof, and that in the Manner and Form which shall appear to the Judges of the said Court most proper for effectually settling and securing such Lands and Estates, freed and discharged from all Debts and Incumbrances affecting or which shall or may affect the same, to and in favour of the said William Paterson, or the Heir of Entail for the Time being entitled to Possession under and by virtue of the said Deed of Entail of the Lands of Ladykirk and others, and the Heirs of Entail or other Persons entitled to take and succeed by virtue of the said Deed of Entail, and that in so far as regards the said William Paterson and the Heirs of Entail, in the way of strict Entail, and under all the Provisions, Conditions, Declarations, Limitations, and Clauses prohibitory, irritant, and resolutive, provided, expressed, and declared in and by the said recited Deed of Entail, in so far as the same are subsisting and capable of taking effect, and also under all the Burdens thereby created, and with and under the ultimate Destination and Conditions and Provisions thereto relating contained therein, which Settlement of Entail shall be so framed as to bind the said William Paterson or other Heir in Possession in whose Favour the same shall be conceived, as well as the succeeding Heirs of Entail: Provided always, that until such Time as such Lands and Estates shall be so purchased and entailed, the said Trustees hereby appointed, or to be appointed in virtue hereof, shall pay the Interest of the Money to be paid into one or other of the said Banks as aforesaid (but subject proportionally to Deduction of the Amount necessary to satisfy the Burdens affecting the said Entailed Lands and Estates as aforesaid) to the said William Paterson or other Heir of Entail for the Time being in Possession of the Lands to be so purchased shall be entailed.

Till Price laid out in other Lands, Interest to be paid to William Paterson, Esquire.

the said Lands of Ladykirk, or other Persons entitled thereto under the said recited Disposition and Deed of Entail, to and for the proper Use of such Heir, or other Use declared by the said Deed.

Entail to be recorded.

III. And be it enacted, That after the said Disposition and Deed of Entail shall be made and executed in the Manner and to the Effect aforesaid, the same shall be recorded in due Form in the Register of Tailzies, for the Security of all Persons interested therein, and a Charter or Charters shall pass and be obtained thereupon, and Infeftment taken in virtue of the Precept or Precepts of Sasine to be therein contained, and the Instrument or Instruments of Sasine to be expede thereon shall be registered agreeably to the Form and Practice of the Law of Scotland, upon all which the said Court of Session shall interpone its Authority by declaring that the Directions of this Act have been complied with according to the true Intent and Meaning thereof.

New Trustees may be appointed on failure of Trustees herein named.

IV. And be it enacted, That if the said Martin Thomas Paterson, William Paterson, Charles Peebles, and the Provost of Kilmarnock for the Time being, or any of them, shall die, or be desirous of being discharged from or become incapable to act in the Discharge of the Trusts, Powers, and Authorities hereby vested in them, at any Time before the said several Trusts, Powers, and Authorities shall have been fully performed and carried into effect, then and in any of these Events, and when and as often as the same shall happen, it shall and may be lawful to the said Court of Session in either of the Divisions thereof, and the said Court is hereby authorized and empowered, upon the Application of the said William Paterson or of the Heir of Entail under the said recited Deed for the Time, to appoint any other fit Person or Persons to be a Trustee or Trustees for the Purposes of this Act in the Place and Stead of the said Martin Thomas Paterson, William Paterson, Charles Peebles, and the Provost of Kilmarnock for the Time being, or such of them as shall so die, or be desirous to be discharged from or become incapable to act in the Execution of the Trusts, Powers, and Authorities by this Act given and conferred upon them, any or either of them, and so from Time to Time to appoint fresh Trustees as often as there shall be Occasion; and whensoever any new Trustee or Trustees shall be so appointed as aforesaid, to order and decree, that all the Money paid into Bank as aforesaid, in the Names of the said Martin Thomas Paterson, William Paterson, Charles Peebles, and the Provost of Kilmarnock for the Time being, shall for the Purposes of this Act stand and be at the Credit of the surviving Trustee or Trustees, together with such new Trustee or Trustees, or wholly in such new Trustee or Trustees, as the Case may require, and in the Survivors or Survivor of them, and the Heirs of such Survivor, and upon the same Trusts, and to and for the same Uses, Intents, and Purposes, and with and under and subject to all the Powers and Authorities by this Act given and declared, or such of them as may be existing at the Time and capable of taking effect; and all the Accounts and Intromissions of such Trustee or Trustees so dying, or being desirous of being discharged, or being incapable to act, shall without Delay be settled with them or their Representatives, by the Court of Session.

V. And

Quorum of Trustees.

V. And be it enacted, That the Majority of the said Trustees hereby named, or of such other or others as may be appointed Trustee or Trustees with them or any of them, or in their Room and Stead, shall be a legal and sufficient Quorum for carrying all the Purposes of this Act into execution and effect.

Liability of Trustees.

VI. And be it enacted, That the said Trustees by this Act nominated and appointed, and the Survivors or Survivor of them, and the Person or Persons who may be appointed by the Court of Session, in virtue of the Power and Authority in that respect by this Act given to them, as Trustee or Trustees as aforesaid, their Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, shall not be charged or chargeable with or accountable for any more Money than they shall actually respectively receive by virtue of this Act, nor for any Loss of such Money or any Part thereof, so as that the same happen without their wilful Neglect or Default respectively, nor any of them for the other or others, but each of them for his own actual Intromissions, Neglects, or Defaults; and that they and each of them shall, by and out of the Money coming into their Hands in virtue of this Act, be entitled, in the first place, to reimburse himself and themselves of all Costs, Charges, and Expences which they or any or either of them shall severally or respectively incur, sustain, pay, expend, or be put unto in any manner of way, in or about the Exercise or Performance of the Trusts hereby in them reposed, or on account of any Act, Transaction, Matter, or Thing relating thereunto, in any manner of way whatsoever.

Trustees to be discharged.

VII. And be it enacted, That as soon as the said Trustees hereby appointed shall in virtue of the Powers of this Act have purchased the Lands and Estates hereby directed to be purchased, and entailed the same at the Sight and with the Approbation of the said Court of Session, and caused the Deed of Entail thereof to be recorded, and Infeftment to be taken in the said Lands, and the Instrument or Instruments of Sasine recorded, as herein-before directed, it shall be competent for the said Trustees respectively to apply by summary Petition to the said Court in either of its Divisions for a Discharge and Exoneration of their Transactions and Management respectively under the Authority of this Act; and the said Court are hereby empowered and required, after such Investigation into such Transactions and Management, and of the Intromissions of the said Trustees respectively, as they shall deem requisite, to exonerate and discharge the said Trustees respectively, and to declare them to be quit and discharged of such Transactions, Management, and Intromissions, and of all the Consequences thereof, and of all Action and Demand for and in respect of the same for ever.

Entail made by Trustees of William Paterson, deceased, not to be defeated.

VIII. And be it enacted, and it is hereby expressly provided and declared, That nothing in this Act contained shall be held or construed to alter, innovate, change, or defeat the said recited Disposition and Deed of Entail, or to alter the Order of Succession or affect the ultimate Destination therein and thereby respectively established, except in so far as it may be necessary to carry into effect effect the Purposes of this Act, but the said Disposition and Deed of Entail shall remain in all other respects in full force and effect.

General Saving.

IX. Saving and reserving always to the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, and to all and every other Person and Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, his, her, and their Heirs and Successors, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, (excepting the Heirs and others entitled to succeed under the said Disposition and Deed of Entail, and the Annuitants heritably secured in their respective Annuities under the same,) all such Estate, Right, Title, Interest, Claim, and Demand whatsoever, in, to, or out of the Lands and Estates hereby authorized to be sold, or any Part thereof, as they or any of them had before the passing of this Act, or could or might have had or enjoyed in case this Act had not been made, any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Act as printed by Queen's Printers to be Evidence.

X. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be printed by the several Printers to the Queen's most Excellent Majesty duly authorized to print the Statutes of the United Kingdom, and a Copy thereof so printed by any of them shall be admitted as Evidence thereof by all Judges, Justices, and others.
