apart the Sums necessary for the Redemption of the Land Tax of the said Estates in manner in the last-recited Act provided, he the said Sir Alexander Macdonald Lockhart did further, out of the surplus Price, in Terms of the Provisions of the said Statute, and under the Direction of the Court of Session in the First Division thereof, pay certain Debts which affected the said Entailed Estate of Biggarshiells sold as aforesaid, and after paying the aforesaid Debts a further Surplus of the foresaid Price remained, and the same, amounting to Six hundred and sixty-seven Pounds Two Shillings and Three-pence, was, by the Direction and under the Authority of the said Court of Session in the First Division thereof, deposited in the Royal Bank of Scotland upon the Eighth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, subject to the Provisions of the before last recited Act (which provides that the same shall be invested in the Purchase of Lands to be entailed in a similar Manner) and Direction of the said Court of Session: And whereas the said Trustees named in the first before recited Act have, in virtue of the Powers conferred upon them, made Sale of certain Parts of the foresaid Lands contained in Schedule (A.) to the before recited Act annexed, and have also made Sale of certain Parts of the foresaid Lands contained in Schedule (B.) to the before recited Act annexed, and have also invested the Prices of the Lands specified and contained in the respective Schedules marked as aforesaid in Two separate and distinct Accounts raised in their Names in the Bank of Scotland, and the said Trustees have further, with the Advice and Consent of the said Sir Charles Macdonald Lockhart, and by the Direction of the Court of Session, applied certain Parts of the Principal Monies at the Credit of the first Account raised in the Names of the said Trustees in the Bank of Scotland in the Purchase of certain Lands and Heritages in the County of Lanark as are specified in the Schedule (C.) hereunto annexed, and have further applied certain Parts of the Principal Monies at the Credit of the second Account raised in the Names of the said Trustees in the Bank of Scotland in the Purchase of certain other Lands and Heritages in the County of Lanark, which are specified in the Schedule (D.) hereunto annexed, a Copy of which Account with the Bank is contained in Schedule (F.) hereto annexed: And whereas the Titles to the said Purchases have all been taken to the purchasing Trustees, and they are now ready and willing to proceed in the Execution of the before recited Act, by disponing the Lands purchased with the Monies at the Credit of the said first Account specified in the Schedule (C.) hereunto annexed to the same Series of Heirs of Entail, and under the same Conditions, Provisions, Declarations, Reservations, Burdens, Faculties, Restrictions, Limitations, and Clauses prohibitory, irritant, and resolutive, as in and by the before recited Deed of Entail executed by the said George Lockhart of Carnwath and George Lockhart his Son on the Thirty-first Day of October One thousand seven hundred and twenty-one, are declared and expressed of and concerning the Lands therein contained, and by further disponing the Lands and other Heritages purchased with the Monies at the Credit of the said second Account specified in Schedule (D.) hereunto annexed to the same Series of Heirs of Entail, and under the same Conditions, Provisions, Declarations, Reservations, Burdens, Faculties, Restrictions, Limitations, and Causes prohibitory, irritant,

and resolutive, as in and by the before recited supplementary Deed of Entail executed by the said James Count Lockhart on the First Day of September One thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven are declared and expressed of and concerning the Lands therein contained: And whereas the said Charles Count Lockhart Wishart, having made up his Title to the whole Lands and Estate contained in the foresaid original Deed of Entail and supplementary Deed of Entail solely under and in virtue of the said supplementary Deed of Entail, and of the Procuratory of Resignation therein contained, in manner herein-before recited, and the Heirs of Entail succeeding to the said Charles Count Lockhart Wishart having served themselves Heirs to him under and by virtue of the foresaid supplementary Deed of Entail, no Title has been since made up under the foresaid original Entail executed by George Lockhart of Carnwath and George Lockhart his Son on the Thirty-first Day of October One thousand seven hundred and twenty-one, but the Lands and others contained therein, as well as in the supplementary Deed of Entail executed by James Count Lockhart, have been held solely by virtue of the said supplementary Deed of Entail, followed by Charter and Infeftment, by and through the Space of Forty Years and upwards: And whereas the said supplementary Entail executed by the said James Count Lockhart is in favour of the same Series of Heirs benefited by the said original Entail, and confers great additional Benefit on them, while no Injury is thereby done to them: And whereas, if the Directions of the before-recited Act were now followed out it would produce great Confusion in the Title Deeds of the said Lands and Estates, by causing the new Purchases to be held distinctly under each of the said Two Entails, and would unnecessarily subject the Heirs to the Risk of incurring Irritancies; it is therefore expedient, and would be a great Benefit and Advantage to the said Sir Norman Macdonald Lockhart and the other Heirs of Entail, that an adequate Remedy should be provided for the same, and that the said Estates should be held in future on the supplementary Deed of Entail alone: And whereas it would also be of great Benefit and Advantage to Sir Norman Macdonald Lockhart, the Heir of Entail in Possession of the said Estates, and to the other Heirs of Entail, if the Number of the Trustees were increased, and if Power was conferred upon them to apply the said Balance of Six hundred and sixty-seven Pounds Two Shillings and Three-pence remaining of the Monies received on the Sale of Lands, under the Authority of the said recited Act of the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, to the same Purposes as are provided in regard to Monies under this Act, and further, if Powers were conferred upon the said Trustees to feu out certain Parts of the foresaid Lands and Estate which may be convenient for feuing: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That Charles Cuningham of the City of Edinburgh, Writer to the Signet, shall be and he is hereby appointed a Trustee along with the said John M'Neile and Norman Lockhart for the Execution of all and every the Powers and Authorities in the said recited Act, in so far as not hereby altered, altered, and in this Act given and granted; and all the Lands, Heritages, and Estates, and Sum or Sums of Money, heretofore vested in the Trustees by the said first-recited Act appointed, shall be and the same are hereby vested in the said John M'Neile, Norman Lockhart, and Charles Cuningham, and the Survivors and Survivor of them, and the Heirs of such Survivor, in such and the same Manner as if the said Charles Cuningham had been named a Trustee in the said recited Act.

for the Execution of the Powers by that Act and this Act granted.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said Deed of Entail made and granted by the said James Count Lockhart on the First Day of September in the said Year One thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven shall be deemed and taken to be the governing Investiture and only subsisting Entail of the Lands, Baronies, and Estates therein contained, and the said Lands, Baronies, and Estates shall be held by the Heirs therein and above recited under the whole Conditions, Provisions, Declarations, Reservations, Burdens, Faculties, Restrictions, Limitations, and Clauses prohibitory, irritant, and resolutive, as in the said Deed of Entail are declared and expressed, or such of them as shall now be existing and capable of taking effect: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be held or construed to affect the Rights of any Heirs of Entail called under the Destination contained in the foresaid Deed of Entail made and executed by George Lockhart of Carnwath and George Lockhart his Son on the Thirty-first Day of October in the Year One thousand seven hundred and twenty-one, but which may not have been called under the Destination contained in the foresaid supplementary Deed of Entail made by the said James Count Lockhart on the First Day of September in the Year One thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, if any such there be.
