

ANNO SEXTO & SEPTIMO

GULIELMI IV. REGIS.

of June in the Year One thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, on the Narrative and for the Causes therein mentioned, gave, granted, and disponed to and in favour of Sir Adam Fergusson of Kilkerran, Baronet, Lieutenant Colonel William Macdowall of Garthland, John Russell Clerk to the Signet, David Russell Accountant in Edinburgh, all since deceased, and to such other Person or Persons as the said James Milliken should thereafter appoint by a Writing under his Hand, or the major Part of them who should accept, and to the Survivors of them, or major Part of such Survivors, and failing all the said Trustees excepting One, to the Survivor, his Heirs and Assignees, heritably, in Trust and for the Uses and Purposes therein particularly specified, his whole Means and Estate of every Description which should pertain and belong to him at the Time of his Death, and, without Prejudice to the said Generality, the Lands and Estate therein particularly specified, with full and ample Powers of Management and Sale thereof; and in case his said Trustees or Quorum of them should think proper not to sell his said Estates, or to reserve any Part thereof unsold, and that from Circumstances which might thereafter occur they should think it necessary for the Preservation of his Estate, or such Part thereof as might remain unsold, to lay all or any of his Heirs who should succeed to his said Estate or any Part thereof, under Limitations and Restrictions, with full Power to his said Trustees, as well those therein named as those who might thereafter be named by him as aforesaid, to lay such Restrictions and Limitations upon all or any of his said Heirs who should succeed to his foresaid Estates or any Part thereof, as to them should seem proper; and he thereby empowered his said Trustees named or who might be named, as said is, and Quorum of them, as aforesaid, to engross such Conditions and Restrictions in the Conveyances to be made by them to his said Heirs in prosecution of the said Trust accordingly; and he thereby declared the several Uses and Purposes for which the said Trust Disposition was granted by him, and to be accepted of by his said Trustees, to be, first, for Payment of all his just and lawful Debts, Funeral Expences, and Legacies, secondly, for Retention of the Expence of executing said Trust, thirdly, for implementing and fulfilling the several Bonds of Provision granted by him to Mary Milliken otherwise Spens, his youngest Daughter, Wife of Doctor Nathaniel Spens, Physician in Edinburgh, and in the last place he ordained and appointed his said Trustees, and Survivors or Survivor of them, and their foresaids, to convey and make over the free Residue of his Lands and Estate which might happen to remain unsold, or to make Payment of the Price thereof, if sold, to Jean Milliken or Napier, his eldest Daughter, Wife of William Napier Esquire, of Culcroich, and the Heirs whomsoever of her Body, whom failing, to the said Mary Milliken and the Heirs whomsoever of her Body, whom all failing, to his own nearest Heirs and Assignees whomsoever, but always with and under such Conditions and irritant and resolutive Clauses as to his said Trustees or Quorum of them should seem proper; and he thereby bound and obliged his Heirs to ratify and confirm the said Trust, and all and whatever Matters and Things which should be transacted by the said Trustees in the Execution thereof; and moreover, in case at the Time of his Death he should happen to be possessed possessed in Fee of any Means or Estate, Moveable or Heritable, not thereby specially conveyed, or that it should be necessary for the better Execution of the said Trust that his Heirs should renew the Conveyances of any Part of his Estate thereby conveyed in favour of his said Trustees, he thereby bound and obliged his Heirs to grant such formal and habile Conveyances of all or any Part of his said Estate to his said Trustees as should be thought necessary for executing the said Trust, and that as soon as the same should be required; and further reciting, that by an additional Disposition dated the Fourth Day of January in the Year One thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, and recorded in the Books of Council and Session Office (H M^c^K) the Twentieth Day of June in the Year One thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, executed by the said James Milliken, and proceeding upon the Narrative therein mentioned, he did (with and under the Explanations therein made) not only confirm the said Trust Disposition in part before recited, but also again disponed the Lands and others therein described, being Part of the Lands and others contained in the said first-mentioned Trust Disposition, to and in favour of the said Sir Adam Fergusson, William Macdowall, John Russell, and David Russell, and such other Person or Persons as he might thereafter appoint by a Writing under his Hand; and further reciting, that by another Trust Disposition dated the Twentieth Day of July in the Year One thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, and recorded in the Books of Council and Session the Twentieth Day of June One thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, executed by the said James Milliken, and proceeding on the Narrative therein contained, he did nominate and appoint the said George Fergusson (therein described George Fergusson Esquire, Advocate,) to be one of his Trustees for executing the Trust committed by the Deed herein first in part recited, with full Power to him the said George Fergusson to concur with the other Trustees appointed by him, or Quorum of them, in executing the said Trust, and to do every thing therein which any other of the said Trustees could do by virtue of the Powers committed to them by the foresaid in part recited Trust Disposition, in the same Manner that the said George Fergusson could have done if he had been originally named one of the said Trustees, and whatever he should do or should lawfully cause to be done in conformity to the said Trust Dispositions in part before recited the said James Milliken thereby bound and obliged his Heirs and Successors to ratify and confirm in the same Manner as they were bound by the Trust Dispositions in part before recited to confirm the Acts and Deeds of the other Trustees; and further reciting, that in virtue of the Precept of Sasine contained in the first-mentioned Trust Disposition the said Sir Adam Fergusson, John Russell, and David Russell, and he the said George Fergusson, were duly infeft and seised in the Lands and others, with the Pertinents therein-after specified, conform to Instrument of Sasine dated the Twenty-seventh Day of August, and recorded in the General Register of Sasines kept at Edinburgh the Twentieth Day of September, in the Year One thousand seven hundred and seventy-six; and further reciting, that after the Death of the said James Milliken the said Trustees entered upon the Management of the Trust Estates, and continued in that Management, in the Course whereof they nearly nearly paid off the whole of the large Debts which were owing by the said James Milliken, and also purchased with Part of the said Trust Funds the Lands of Waterston, lying interjected with the Estate of Milliken, and the Village of Kilbarchan and adjoining Lands, intimately connected with that Estate, (more particularly therein-after specified,) as forming very desirable and necessary Additions to the Heritable Trust Estate situated in the County of Renfrew, and which Transactions were approved of by the said Mistress Jean Milliken or Napier and her Son the late Lieutenant Colonel Robert John Napier; and further reciting, that by the successive Deaths of all his Co-Trustees the said George Fergusson was deprived of that Assistance he should have obtained from them, and conceiving it to be his bounden Duty to secure the Trust Estate as far as possible to the Heirs called by the said James Milliken in their Order, and thus to put an end to the Trust so far as respected the Heritable Property situated in Scotland, therefore he the said George Fergusson, as Trustee foresaid, in virtue of the Powers committed to him as aforesaid, with and under the Conditions, Provisions, Restrictions, Limitations, Exceptions, Clauses prohibitory, irritant, and resolutive, Declarations and Reservations therein specified, gave, granted, and disponed to and in favour of William Napier Milliken (now Sir William Milliken Napier Baronet), only Child now in Life procreated of the Marriage between the said deceased Robert John Napier (who was the only Son procreated of the Marriage between the said Mistress Jean Milliken or Napier and the said William Napier Esquire of Culcroich) and Mistress Ann Campbell or Napier, and the Heirs whatsoever to be lawfully procreated of the Body of the said William Napier Milliken; whom failing, to and in favour of the Children procreated of the Marriage between the now deceased Mistress Jean Macdowall Napier otherwise Kellett (who was the only Daughter procreated of the Marriage between the said Mistress Jean Milliken or Napier and the said William Napier Esquire, of Culcroich,) and William Augustus Kellett Esquire, of Cork, and the Heirs whomsoever to be lawfully procreated of the Bodies of the said Children respectively; whom failing, to and in favour of the Children procreated of the Marriage between the said Mistress Mary Milliken or Spens and Doctor Nathaniel Spens, and the Heirs whomsoever lawfully procreated or to be procreated of the Bodies of the said Children respectively; the Heirs Male and Female always succeeding in their due and legal Order, the eldest Daughter and her Descendants succeeding without Division and excluding Heirs Portioners throughout the whole Course of Succession above written; whom all failing, to and in favour of the nearest lawful Heirs whomsoever of the said James Milliken, heritably and irredeemably; all and haill the Six Pound Land of Over and Nether Johnstone alias Milliken, all and haill the Twenty Shilling Land of Waterston called Hainingside, the Twenty Shilling Land of Hillhead, and the Two Shilling and Sixpenny Land of Clayslap, extending in whole to a Forty-two Shilling and Sixpenny Land of the said Lands of Waterston, all lying in the Parish of Kilbarchan and Sheriffdom of Renfrew; as also the Teind Sheaves and other Teinds, as well Parsonage as Vicarage, of all and sundry the foresaid Lands, extending in whole to an Eight Pound Two Shilling and Sixpenny Land, together with the Privilege and Seat in the Kirk of Kilbarchan which formerly pertained to the deceased George a Creditor upon the said Entailed Estate; and he has also laid out several further considerable Sums of Money upon the permanent Improvement of the said Entailed Estates, but the same have not been recorded in Terms of the said last-recited Act; and the whole Sums of Money laid out by the said Sir William Milliken Napier as aforesaid are specified and contained in the Schedule (B.) hereunto annexed: And whereas the said Sir William Milliken Napier Baronet has paid a Sum of Three hundred and sixty-five Pounds Two Shillings and Three-pence to Patrick Russell deceased, Factor to the Trustees of the said deceased James Milliken, which was due under the aforesaid Trust, and was of the Nature of a Debt of the Entailer; and the said Sir William Milliken Napier Baronet has incurred a very large Debt for the Sums laid out in rebuilding the said Mansion House and improving the said Estates in manner before mentioned, which is still due and owing: And whereas the Heirs of Entail who will succeed to the said Estate after the said Sir William Milliken Napier Baronet, the Heir in Possession of the said Estate, will derive great Benefit from the Expenditure so made by him as aforesaid, and the consequent Increase of the Rental of the Estates, and it is just and equitable that he should be relieved of a Part of the Expenditure so made as aforesaid, and that a Part of the said Entailed Estate should be rendered liable for and be applied in relieving him of Part of such Expenditure accordingly: And whereas it is also just and equitable that Provision should be made for the Payment of the said Two Heritable Debts of Three thousand Pounds and Two thousand Pounds which were created in manner aforesaid, and are by the said Deed of Entail declared to affect the said Entailed Estates, and also for Repayment of the said Sum of Three hundred and sixty-five Pounds Two Shillings and Three-pence: But as these Purposes cannot be effected without the Aid and Authority of Parliament, May it therefore please Your Majesty, upon the humble Petition of the said Sir William Milliken Napier, for himself and his infant Children, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the following Lands, videlicet, the Farm of Waterston, Part of Waterston, Part of Pannel, East Park of Waterston, Locherlip, Part of the Muir of Waterston, the Lands called "'Twixt the Hills" or "Between the Hills," Plover Acre, Part of Waterston, Boghouse, Windyhill, Barbush, Part of Nether Johnstone, Gavin and Connel's Parks, Barbush Parks, Quarry Park, and Angular Park, all Parts of Bar of Kilbarchan, Ground at Cartside, Part of Over Johnstone, and certain Parts of Kilbarchan, Over Johnstone, and Pannell, all as set forth in the Schedule (C.) hereunto annexed, being Parts of the said Lands and Estates contained in the said Deed of Entail herein-before recited, and which said Lands, being detached from the Bulk of the said Estate, are as such the most convenient to be sold or affected for the Purposes of this Act, together with the Teinds of the said Lands, so far as comprehended in the said Deed of Entail, shall be and the same are hereby settled upon and vested in James Stirling Esquire, of Glentyan, Captain in the Royal Navy, Alexander Pearson, Writer to the Signet, and William Campbell, Writer in Johnstone, and the Survivors and Survivor of them,

Certain Lands and Premises vested in Trustees freed from the Entail, upon Trust to sell the same.

them, and the Heirs of such Survivor, freed and discharged of and from all and every the Conditions, Provisions, Limitations, Exceptions, and Clauses prohibitory, irritant, and resolutive which in and by the said Deed of Entail are limited, created, expressed, declared, and contained of and concerning the same, but nevertheless upon Trust and to and for the Intents and Purposes herein-after expressed; (that is to say,) upon Trust that the said James Stirling, Alexander Pearson, and William Campbell, and the Survivors or Survivor of them, or the Heirs of such Survivor, do and shall, upon a Requisition to that Effect made upon them by the said Sir William Milliken Napier, and failing such Requisition by the Death of the said Sir William Milliken Napier, then on Requisition by the Heir in Possession, sell and dispose of the said Lands contained in the said Schedule (C.) hereunto annexed, or such Part or Parts thereof as the said Sir William Milliken Napier or the Heir in Possession shall require, and that either in One or more Lots or Parcels, and by public Sale or Auction or private Bargain, as the said Trustees shall judge best, with Power to the said Trustees to adjourn the Sale or Sales from Time to Time to such Time and Place as they shall judge expedient: Provided always, that previous Notice by public Advertisement of such intended Sale shall be given as often and in such Newspapers published in Scotland as the said Trustees shall deem expedient and advantageous previous to such Sale, and that Notice also of any Adjournment of such Sale or Sales shall be in like Manner published as often and in such Newspapers published in Scotland as the said Trustees shall deem expedient and advantageous.

Purchase Money to be paid into certain Banks.

II. And be it further enacted, That when such Sale or Sales shall be effected the Money arising by such Sale or Sales shall be paid by the Purchaser, or Purchasers, without Fee or Reward, into the Bank of Scotland, Royal Bank of Scotland, Bank of the British Linen Company, Commercial Bank of Scotland, or National Bank of Scotland, in the Names of the said James Stirling, Alexander Pearson, and William Campbell, and the Survivors and Survivor of them, and the Heirs of such Survivor, Trustees aforesaid, and shall when so paid in produce the highest Rate of Interest that can be obtained for the same, which shall be by the said Trustees annually accumulated and added to the Principal Sum until the same shall be disposed of as after mentioned; and upon the said Price or Prices and Interest thereof being lodged as aforesaid the said James Stirling, Alexander Pearson, and William Campbell, and their foresaids, shall be bound to execute and deliver to the said Purchaser or Purchasers a valid Conveyance or Conveyances of the Lands purchased, free of all the Fetters of the said Entail and of all Incumbrances whatever, and containing all usual and necessary Clauses requisite for vesting the Lands so purchased in the Purchaser or Purchasers in Fee Simple, and a Clause binding the said Sir William Milliken Napier and the other Heirs of Entail in absolute Warrandice, and the said Trustees in Warrandice from their own Facts and Deeds only; and the Receipt or Receipts of the Treasurer, Cashier, Secretary, Manager, or other Officer of the said Banks respectively, for the Money respectively paid to them, shall be a full and complete Discharge of the Price to the said Purchaser or Purchasers, and to his, her, her, or their respective Heirs, Executors, and Successors whatsoever, and from thenceforth such Purchaser or Purchasers, his, her, or their Heirs, Executors, and Successors, shall be and are hereby absolutely acquitted and discharged of the said Price, and shall not be obliged to see to the Application thereof or any Part thereof, or be answerable or accountable for any Loss, Misapplication, or Non-application of any Part of the same.

Debts unrecorded to be recorded before Payment thereof.

III. And be it further enacted, That previous to the Payment and Extinction of such Part of the said Debts incurred for Sums laid out upon Improvements on the said Estates in manner before mentioned, and which have not been recorded in Terms of the said recited Act of the Tenth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, amounting in whole, as specified in Schedule (B.) hereunto annexed, to the Sum of One thousand four hundred and twenty-eight Pounds Eighteen Shillings and Ten-pence Halfpenny, the said Trustees shall and they are hereby required to record the same in the Register in such Manner and under the same Provisions as is or are directed by the said last-recited Act; which Debts, when so recorded, shall and they are hereby declared to be as valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes as if they had been originally recorded in manner directed by the said last-recited Act.

Payment of Debts of Sir W. Milliken Napier.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the said James Stirling, Alexander Pearson, and William Campbell, and their foresaids, shall, in the first place, pay off and extinguish the Two several Sums of Three thousand Pounds and Two thousand Pounds contained in and due by the Two several Bonds and Dispositions in Security granted by the said George Fergusson, and herein-before recited, and shall take Discharges and Renunciations thereof, and cause the same to be duly recorded in the Register appointed for that Purpose, and do and shall thereafter, upon the written Requisition of the said Sir William Milliken Napier, apply the Money which shall arise from such Sale or Sales in Repayment of the foresaid Sum of Three hundred and sixty-five Pounds Two Shillings and Three-pence paid to the said Patrick Russell as aforesaid, and also in the Payment and Extinction of such of the said Debts so incurred as aforesaid for the Sums laid out upon Improvements on the said Estates in manner before mentioned as the said Sir William Milliken Napier shall by such Requisition or otherwise in Writing direct, the Money arising from the said Sale or Sales to be so applied in the Payment and Extinction of the Debts so incurred for Sums laid out upon Improvements on the said Estates not in all exceeding the Sum of Twelve thousand one hundred and thirty Pounds Nineteen Shillings and Sixpence Three Farthings; and in case the said Sir William Milliken Napier shall die without having made such Requisition, or otherwise so directed the said Trustees to pay such Debts as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the said James Stirling, Alexander Pearson, and William Campbell, and they are hereby authorized and required, to apply the Money or Price to be obtained by such Sale or Sales, after having paid off and extinguished the said Two Heritable Debts, in Repayment of the said Sum of Three hundred and sixty-five Pounds Two Shillings and Three-pence, and thereafter to apply a Sum not exceeding exceeding in all the said Sum of Twelve thousand one hundred and thirty Pounds Nineteen Shillings and Sixpence Three Farthings in extinction pro tanto of the Debts incurred for Sums laid out upon Improvements on the said Estates in manner before mentioned, and due by the said Sir William Milliken Napier before the passing of this Act as aforesaid, and upon Payment thereof the Creditors in the said Debts shall be bound to execute valid Discharges to the said Sir William Milliken Napier, his Heirs or Executors, for such or so much of their repective Debts as they shall so receive by Payment from the said Trustees.

Bonds of Corroboration or new Bonds may be granted.

V. And be it further enacted, That in case an adequate Price cannot immediately be obtained for the said Lands, and it shall be deemed expedient by the said Sir William Milliken Napier, or, in the Event of his Decease, by the said Trustees, that the Sale of the said Lands or any Part thereof should be postponed, it shall and may be lawful for the said Trustees to delay, as long as the said Sir William Milliken Napier, or, failing him, as they shall think fit, the Sale of such Lands accordingly; and in the meantime and until such Sale can be advantageously made it shall and may be lawful for the said Sir William Milliken Napier, by a Requisition in Writing during his Lifetime, to call upon the said Trustees, and, failing such Requisition by him, for the said Trustees after his Death, to grant Heritable Bonds of Corroboration in favour of any Creditor or Creditors in any of the Debts aforesaid, the said Debts not exceeding in all the Sum of Twelve thousand one hundred and thirty Pounds Nineteen Shillings and Sixpence Three Farthings, or in favour of any Person or Persons having Right by Assignation, Indorsation, or otherwise to any of the said Debts, for securing to such Creditor or Creditors, Person or Persons, the Amount of such Debt or Debts to the Extent to which such Bonds of Corroboration shall be given, which Heritable Bonds of Corroboration shall be good, valid, and effectual to such Creditor or Creditors, or Assignee, Indorsee, or other Person or Persons in whose Favour the same shall be granted, and shall effectually bind such Part of the said Lands contained in the said Schedule (C.) as shall be included in such Bond or Bonds against all the Heirs of Entail entitled under and by virtue of the said recited Deed of Entail; but it is hereby declared that the said Trustees shall not, by granting such Heritable Bonds of Corroboration, incur for themselves or their Representatives any personal Responsibility for the Debts so corroborated; or if it shall be deemed by the said Trustees to be more advantageous for the Purposes of this Act that Money should be borrowed upon the Security of the said Lands contained in the said Schedule (C.), it shall and may be lawful for them to borrow Money upon the said Lands, and upon the Lender or Lenders paying, without Fee or Reward, the Sum or Sums of Money lent by him or them into the Bank of Scotland, or Royal Bank of Scotland, or Bank of the British Linen Company in Scotland, or the Commercial Bank of Scotland, or the National Bank of Scotland, in the Name of the said James Stirling, Alexander Pearson, and William Campbell, as Trustees foresaid, or the Survivors or Survivor of them, or the Heirs of such Survivor, they the said James Stirling, Alexander Pearson, and William Campbell, or their foresaids, are hereby required required to execute and deliver, upon the Requisition of the said Sir William Milliken Napier or other Heir in Possession, Heritable Bond or Bonds and Dispositions in Security to the said Lender or Lenders, containing all the necessary and usual Clauses required by the Law of Scotland, which Bonds shall be good, valid, and effectual to the said Lender or Lenders, and shall effectually bind such Part of the said Lands hereby authorized to be sold as shall be included in such Bond or Bonds against all the Heirs of Entail entitled under and by virtue of the said recited Deed of Entail; but it is hereby declared that the said Trustees shall not by granting such Bond or Bonds incur for themselves or their Representatives any personal Responsibility for the Sums so borrowed; and it is hereby also declared that the said Lender or Lenders shall in noways be concerned with the Application of the Sum or Sums so lent by him or them, but shall be relieved of all Responsibility by the Receipt or Receipts of the Treasurer of the said Bank of Scotland, or Cashier of the said Royal Bank of Scotland, or of the Bank of the said British Linen Company in Scotland, or of the said Commercial Bank of Scotland, or of the said National Bank of Scotland, under their respective Hands.

Application of Money borrowed.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the said Trustees shall apply the Sum or Sums of Money borrowed as aforesaid in the same Way and Manner as Monies to be derived from the Sale or Sales of the said Lands, as herein-before directed to be disposed of, are directed to be applied.

Trustees to pay Interest on Debts.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the said Trustees shall not be entitled to allow the Interest accruing upon the said Heritable Debts to accumulate, but they shall and are hereby required to pay and discharge the same annually or termly as the same shall become due, so that such Interest shall never in any Case become a Burden upon the said Entailed Estate; nor shall any Creditor in any of the said Heritable Debts be entitled to demand Payment from any subsequent Heir of Entail of the Interest due on any of the said Debts respectively for more than Six Months previous to the Term of Whitsunday or Martinmas preceding the Period when the Succession to the said Entailed Lands and Estate shall have devolved upon such subsequent Heir.

Surplus to be re-invested.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That in case the Price or Prices obtained for the said Lands contained in Schedule (C.) hereunto annexed shall, after paying the said Three several Sums of Three thousand Pounds, Two thousand Pounds, and Three hundred and sixty-five Pounds Two Shillings and Three-pence, exceed the foresaid Sum of Twelve thousand one hundred and thirty Pounds Nineteen Shillings and Sixpence Three Farthings, so as that there shall be a Surplus in the Hands of the Bank where the said Price or Prices may have been consigned over and above the Sum authorized by this Act to be applied in extinction of Debt as aforesaid, or in case the said Debts incurred for Sums laid out upon Improvements on the said Estates in manner before mentioned, due by the said Sir William Milliken Napier before the passing of this Act as aforesaid, shall in any other Way come to be paid or satisfied or extinguished, so that all all or any Part or Portion of the said Lands contained in Schedule (C.) hereunto annexed, and hereby vested in the said Trustees in Fee Simple, shall remain unsold and unburdened, or in case, through such Payment or Extinction of the said Debts, any Surplus shall remain of the Price or Prices thereof, or any Part or Parts thereof, that shall have been sold under the Authority of this Act, or Interest thereof, after paying the Expences of passing this Act, and all the necessary Expences which may be incurred in carrying the same into execution (which the said Trustees are hereby authorized to pay), the said Trustees, and the Survivors or Survivor of them, and the Heirs of such Survivor, may and shall, after Intimation to the Heir of Entail entitled in Possession for the Time to the said Entailed Estate, lay out and employ such Money or Surplus in the Purchase of such other Lands lying contiguous to or convenient for the said Entailed Estate, at such fair and just Price or Prices as ought to be given for the same, after the Price so to be given shall have been approved of by the Court of Session in One of its Divisions to which Application shall be made for its Approbation, and shall, with the Approbation of the said Court, dispone and convey the Lands or Heritages so to be purchased by them, and shall also dispone and convey any Part of the said Lands and Estate appointed by this Act to be sold which may remain unsold as aforesaid, to the same Series of Heirs of Entail, and under the same Conditions, Provisions, Restrictions, Limitations, Exceptions, and Clauses prohibitory, irritant, and resolutive, as in and by the said Deed of Entail herein-before recited are declared and expressed of and concerning the Lands and Estate comprised in the said recited Deed of Entail, as shall then be existing undetermined and capable of taking effect; and the Dispositions and Conveyances thereof to be executed by them for that Purpose shall be so framed as to bind the Institute as well as all and every other Person or Persons succeeding as Heirs of Entail; and the said Trustees, and the Survivors and Survivor of them, and the Heirs of such Survivor, shall, immediately after the Execution of such Conveyances or Dispositions, cause the same to be recorded in the Register of Tailzies for the Benefit of all and every Person and Persons interested therein, and Infeftment to be taken thereon; and in the meantime, and until the Money shall be so applied, the said Court shall order and direct that the same shall remain in the Bank of Scotland, Royal Bank of Scotland, Bank of the British Linen Company, Commercial Bank of Scotland, or National Bank of Scotland, as the Case may be, subject to the Direction of the said Court in either of the Divisions thereof, in the Names of the said Trustees, and the Survivors or Survivor of them, and the Heirs of such Survivor, and shall annually accumulate the same, and the Interest be added to the Principal Sum, so that they may carry Interest together, until a proper Purchase in Lands shall be found, to be limited in the Manner herein-before directed, and until, upon a Petition to be preferred to the said Court in either of the Divisions thereof, in a summary Way, by the said Trustees or their Successors, and the Survivors or Survivor of them, and the Heirs of such Survivor, with the Concurrence of the Heir of Entail in Possession of the said Estate for the Time being, the Money shall be ordered to be paid by the Treasurer, Cashier, Secretary, Manager, or other Officer of the said Banks respectively, respectively, for completing the said Purchase, in such Manner as the said Court shall direct.

Trustees may apply to Court of Session for their Discharge.

IX. And be it further enacted, That after having so applied the said Monies, and carried the whole Purposes of this Act into effect, it shall be in the Power of the said James Stirling, Alexander Pearson, and William Campbell, and the Survivors and Survivor of them, and the Heirs of such Survivor, and if they think it necessary for their own Relief, to apply to the said Court of Session in either of the Divisions thereof for a Discharge and Exoneration of their Proceedings, and that by summary Petition; and the said Court is hereby required to order Production of the Accounts of the said Trustees, and after Consideration thereof, and if the same shall be found to be correct, to exonerate and discharge the said Trustees of their Intromissions, and to declare them quit and discharged thereof for ever.

New Trustees to be appointed.

X. And be it further enacted, That if the said James Stirling, Alexander Pearson, and William Campbell, or any of them, shall die, or be desirous to be discharged from or shall become incapable to act in the Trusts, Powers, and Authorities hereby in them vested, at any Time before the said Trusts, Powers, and Authorities shall have been fully performed and executed, then and in any of these Cases, and when and so often as the same shall happen, it shall and may be lawful for the said Court of Session in either of the Divisions thereof, upon the Application of the said Trustees or any of them, or their respective Heirs or Representatives, and in case of the Failure of the whole Trustees without others being substituted in their Room, then upon the Application of the said Sir William Milliken Napier, or his Representatives or Representative, to appoint and elect any other fit Person or Persons to be a Trustee or Trustees for the Purposes aforesaid in the Place and Stead of them the said Trustees, or such of them, or of such Trustee or Trustees so to be elected as shall die, or be desirous to be discharged from or shall become incapable to act in the Execution of the Trusts, Powers, and Authorities by this Act given, and so from Time to Time as often as there shall be Occasion; and so often as any new Trustee or Trustees shall be appointed as aforesaid and all whole the said Lands and others described in the said Schedule (C.) hereunto annexed, and hereby vested in the said James Stirling, Alexander Pearson, and William Campbell, in Trust as aforesaid, shall thereupon become legally and effectually vested in the surviving Trustee or Trustees and such new Trustee or Trustees, or wholly in such new Trustees, as the Case may require, and the Survivors or Survivor of them, and the Heirs and Assignees of such Survivor, upon the Trusts, and to and for the same Uses, Intents, and Purposes, and with, under, and subject to all the Powers and Authorities, by this Act given and declared; and the Act and Decree of the said Court of Session appointing new Trustees, and vesting in them the said Lands and Estates as aforesaid, shall be registered in the particular Register of Sasines for the County of Renfrew, or in the General Register of Sasines kept at Edinburgh.

Quorum of Trustees.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the Majority of the Trustees above named, or such other or others as may be elected in their Room

Room and Stead, as above mentioned, while more than Two survive or continue, shall be a legal and sufficient Quorum for carrying all the Purposes of this Act into execution, and any One of them who only shall survive or continue shall at all Times have full Power to act by himself alone until the Appointment of a new Trustee or Trustees in manner before mentioned.

Trustees may appoint Factors, &c.

XII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be in the Power of and lawful for the Majority of the Trustees above named for the Time, or of such other or others to be appointed and chosen in their Room and Stead in manner herein mentioned, to nominate and appoint Factors, Stewards, Receivers, and Agents for carrying the Purposes of this Act into execution, taking sufficient Security from each such Factor, Steward, or Receiver, for the faithful Execution of his Office, before he or they be allowed to enter upon the Exercise thereof; and the said Trustees shall not be liable for the said Factors, Stewards, Receivers, or Agents, or their Cautioner or Cautioners, further than that they are habit and repute responsible at the Time of their Appointment.

Trustees only to be chargeable with actual Receipts.

XIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the said Trustees and their foresaids shall not be charged or chargeable with or accountable for Omissions, or any more Money than they shall actually respectively receive by virtue of this Act, nor for any Loss of such Money or any Part thereof, so as that the same happens without their wilful Neglect or Default respectively; nor any of them for the others or other of them, but each of them only for his own Acts, Receipts, Neglects, or Defaults; and that they and any of them shall, by and out of the Money which comes into their Hands, be entitled to receive and be reimbursed of all Expences which they shall respectively incur or be put to in the Exercise or Performance of the Trust hereby reposed in them, or in any Manner in relation thereto.

Trustees to let the Lands unsold.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to the said Trustees, so long as the Lands contained in the said Schedule (C.) hereunto annexed shall remain unsold, from Time to Time to let the same, or any Part or Parts thereof that shall be out of Lease, upon a Lease or Leases for such Term of Years, for such Rent or Rents, and upon such Conditions as to the said Trustees shall seem reasonable.

Till Sale is made, the Rents to be paid to the Heir of Entail.

XV. Provided also, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That until the Sale or Sales of the said Entailed Lands herein-before authorized to be sold shall be accomplished, and the Purchase Money shall be paid as aforesaid, the Rents of the said Lands shall be paid to the said Sir William Milliken Napier, or the Heir for the Time entitled to the Possession of the said Entailed Estate.

Entail not to be innovated.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be held or construed to alter, innovate, change, or defeat the herein-before recited Deed of Entail, or the Order of Succession thereby established, excepting in so far as is necessary for carrying the the Purposes of this Act fully into effect; and the said Sir William Milliken Napier shall not incur any Irritancy or Forfeiture for or by reason of his executing any Disposition, Bond of Corroboration, or other Deed whatever directed or necessary to be executed under the Authority of this Act; all which Deeds he is hereby authorized and empowered to execute.

Heir of Entail not to be liable for Sums for Improvements.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That no Heir of Entail succeeding to the said Entailed Lands and Estate shall be in any ways liable for any Part of the said Sum of Nineteen thousand six hundred and sixty Pounds Three Shillings and One Penny laid out for Improvements upon the said Estates in manner aforesaid, any thing in the said Act of the Tenth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third to the contrary notwithstanding.

Consents to be given.

XVIII. And whereas the following Persons, Heirs of Entail under the said recited Deed of Entail of the Lands and Estate of Milliken, are now all absent from Great Britain, videlicet, Mrs. Jane Kellett or Udny, Wife of Charles Grant Udny Esquire, in the Civil Service of the Honourable the East India Company, Andrew Spens and James Spens, both in the Service of the said Honourable East India Company, Charles Hunter and Jane Napier Hunter, Children of the said Mrs. Jane Kellett by Charles Fleming Hunter Esquire, of Calcutta in the East Indies, now deceased, her former Husband, Augusta Sophia Udny, Daughter of the said Mrs. Jane Kellett by her present Husband, and Henry Spens and Bethia Spens, Children of the said Andrew Spens, none of whom have yet consented to this Act: And whereas Doctor Thomas Spens, another Heir of Entail under the said recited Deed of Entail, died lately in India without having consented to this Act, leaving Two Children, Fanny Spens and Spens, also Heirs of Entail under the said recited Deed of Entail, both in Minority, and having no legal Guardians assigned to them; be it therefore further enacted, That none of the Provisions of this Act shall take effect until the before-named Heirs of Entail, or the Fathers or legal Guardians of such of the said Children as may be under Age, or at least some Four of the said Heirs of Entail, shall, by a Deed or Deeds executed or to be executed by them or by the Fathers or other legal Guardians of such of them as are or may be Minors, declare or authorize and cause to be declared their Consent to this Act before the said Court in either of the Divisions thereof, which Consents the said Court is hereby authorized and required to receive; and the Deed or Deeds or other Instrument or Instruments, either declaring such Consent or authorizing such Consent to be given as aforesaid, together with the Fact of such Consent being given, shall be recorded in the Books of Council and Session, to all which the Judges of the said Court in either Division thereof shall interpone their Authority.

Costs in Court of Session to be taxed.

XIX. And be it enacted, That the Costs and Charges of all Proceedings to be had in either Division of the Court of Session in pursuance of the Powers given by this Act shall be taxed and ascertained according to the Practice of the said Court.

XX. Saving

Saving Clause.

XX. Saving and reserving always to the King's most Excellent Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and to all and every other Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, and their Heirs and Successors, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, (other than and except the said Sir William Milliken Napier, and all and every the other Heirs of Entail entitled by virtue of the before-recited Deed of Entail to succeed to and take the Lands and others therein contained,) all such Right, Title, Interest, Claim, and Demand whatsoever in, to, or out of the said Lands and Estates hereby allowed to be sold, or the Monies to accresce by the Sale thereof, as they or any of them had before the passing of this Act, or could or might have had or enjoyed in case this Act had not been made.

Act to be printed by the King's Printers.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be printed by the several Printers to the King's most Excellent Majesty duly authorized to print the Statutes of the United Kingdom; and a Copy thereof so printed by any of them shall be admitted as Evidence thereof by all Judges, Justices, and others.
