the Trust Disposition and Settlement herein-before recited, the said Henry Glassford succeeded to the said Entailed Estate of Dougalston and others, and made up Titles thereto by virtue of the said Deed of Entail, and was duly infeft in the said Entailed Estate and others pursuant to an Instrument of Seisin bearing Date the Eighteenth Day of August, and duly registered in the General Register of Sasines at Edinburgh on the Third Day of September, in the Year One thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, which Instrument of Seisin proceeded upon the Precept of Sasine contained in the said Deed of Entail: And whereas the said Henry Glassford having departed this Life on or about the Nineteenth Day of May in the Year One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, he was succeeded in the said Estate of Dougalston and others by the said James Glassford, as the next Heir of Entail called to the Succession thereof by the said Deed of Entail, who was duly infeft in the said Entailed Estate and others pursuant to the several Instruments of Seisin in his Favour following; (videlicet,) Instrument of Seisin dated the Third and recorded in the particular Register of Seisins kept at Stirling the Sixth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, in the Lands of Bankell and Kirkton of Baldernock, proceeding on a Precept from Chancery dated the Fifteenth Day of October in the same Year; another Instrument of Seisin dated the Seventeenth and recorded in the General Register of Seisins at Edinburgh the Twenty-third Day of February One thousand eight hundred and twenty, proceeding on a Precept of Clare Constat by Doctor Francis Hamilton, Superior of the Lands of Boghall, dated the Eighteenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and nineteen; another Instrument of Sasine, dated the Sixth and registered in the General Register of Sasines at Edinburgh the Twelfth Day of May in the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty, in the Lands of Gartconnel and others, which proceeded upon a Charter of Confirmation and Precept of Clare Constat by Sir James Colquhoun of Luss, Baronet, the Superior of these Lands, dated Thirtieth March One thousand eight hundred and twenty; and another Infeftment in the Lands of Dougalston and others, bearing Date the Tenth and recorded in the General Register of Sasines at Edinburgh the Fourteenth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, proceeding on a Charter of Confirmation and Precept of Clare Constat by the Duke of Montrose, Superior of these Lands, in his Favour, dated the Twelfth of November One thousand eight hundred and nineteen; and another Instrument of Seisin, dated the Twenty-first Day of November, recorded in the General Register of Seisins the Ninth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, proceeding on a Precept of Clare Constat by the Commissioners of Archibald Stirling Esquire, Superior of the Lands of Longbank, dated the Twenty-seventh Day of February One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four: And whereas the Debts of the said John Glassford, and the Provisions granted by him to his Daughters, not having been paid out of his Trust Estate, Actions were brought in the Court of Session against the said James Glassford, by the Daughters whose Provisions remained unpaid, and they obtained Decreets for Payment thereof as herein-after mentioned: And whereas there still remains due and the said Entailed Estate of Dougalston and others remains charged with the fore-

said Principal Sum of Ten thousand Pounds, for which the Heritable Bond before recited was granted by the said John Glassford, which Heritable Bond has come by various Assignations to be now vested in Elizabeth M'Inroy, Widow, Robert Haggart, Peter M'Laggan, and Samuel Sandback, Trustees, appointed by James M'Inroy of Lude, Esquire, conform to Instrument of Sasine in their Favour, dated the Thirteenth and registered in the General Register of Sasines the Nineteenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven: And whereas there also remains due, and the Entailed Estate of Dougalston and others remain charged or chargeable with, the foresaid Principal Sum of Three hundred Pounds contained in the Personal Bond of the said John Glassford, and Interest thereof from the Eighth Day of February One thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight to the Nineteenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, amounting, said Principal Sum and Interest, to Seven hundred and fifty-one Pounds Thirteen Shillings and Four-pence Sterling; which Sum having come to be vested by Assignation in the Person of the said James Glassford, the Lords of Council and Session, by their Decreet dated the Eighteenth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, pronounced in an Action at the Instance of the said James Glassford against James Gordon residing at Gartshore, and Henry Gordon, Writer in Glasgow, the next Heirs of Entail entitled to succeed after him to the said Entailed Estate of Dougalston and others contained in the Deed of Entail before recited, found that Sum to be a Debt of the said John Glassford the Entailer, and therefore a Charge against the said Entailed Estate of Dougalston and others: And whereas in like Manner there still remains due, and the said Entailed Estate of Dougalston and others remains charged with the following Principal Sums, being the Balances unpaid of the Provisions to Three of the younger Daughters of the said John Glassford, secured to them by the Trust Deed herein-before recited, and by the Contracts of Marriage of their respective Mothers therein referred to; (videlicet,) the Principal Sum of One thousand seven hundred and seven Pounds Eleven Shillings and Eight-pence, being the Balance of the Provision of the said Catherine Glassford, One of the Daughters of the said John Glassford by his Second Marriage, as contained in her Father's Contract of Marriage with Ann Nisbet her Mother, dated the Fourteenth Day of November One thousand seven hundred and fifty-two, and Bond of Provision dated the Twentieth Day of November One thousand seven hundred and sixty-eight, also the Principal Sum of Two thousand Pounds, being the Provision to the said Isabella Glassford, and the like Sum of Two thousand Pounds, being the Provision to the said Euphemia Glassford, the Daughters of the said John Glassford by his Third Marriage, conform to Contract of Marriage between him and Lady Margaret M'Kenzie, dated the Twenty-third Day of November One thousand seven hundred and sixty-eight, for the Payment of which several Sums Decreets were pronounced against the said James Glassford, as the Heir of Entail now in Possession of the said Entailed Estate, by the Lords of Council and Session as after-mentioned, (videlicet,) One Decree dated the Fifth Day of February in the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, pronounced in an Action brought at the Instance of John Campbell junior, Assignee of the said Miss Catherine Glassford, against the said James Glassford as such Heir of Entail, for the said Sum of One thousand seven hundred and seven Pounds Eleven Shillings and Eight-pence, with Interest thereafter till paid, and another such Decreet, dated the Thirtieth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, pronounced in an Action at the Instance of the said Isabella Glassford, some Time Relict of William Simpson Esquire, of Parsons Green, now the Wife of John Beames Burroughs of Clifton in the County of Somerset, Surgeon, and of her said Husband, and at the Instance also of the said Euphemia Glassford against the said James Glassford as such Heir of Entail, and against the said James Gordon and Henry Gordon, as Heirs next entitled to the Succession after him, finding the foresaid Principal Sums of Two thousand Pounds due to each of the said Isabella and Euphemia Glassford, for which the said James Glassford and the Heirs succeeding to him in the said Estate are liable in Payment: And whereas an Action having been brought in the said Court of Session against the said James Glassford, as such Heir of Entail, at the Instance of the Partners carrying on Trade under the Firm of J. T. and A. Douglas and Company, Merchants in Glasgow, and others, Creditors of the said Henry Glassford, concluding to have it found that the Fetters of the said Entail did not apply to the said Henry Glassford, and that the Entailed Estate was liable for the whole Debts and Obligations of the said Henry Glassford, which Action having been opposed by the said James Glassford on the Part of himself and the Heirs of Entail, he and they were assoilzied therefrom by Decreet of the Court of Session, and an Appeal having been taken against this Judgment on the Part of the said Creditors, the same was affirmed in the House of Lords; but in defending this Action, and supporting the Rights of the Heirs of Entail to the Entailed Estate, the said James Glassford incurred Expences to the Amount of Seven hundred and sixty-six Pounds Twelve Shillings and Seven-pence: And whereas the foresaid Principal Sum of Ten thousand Pounds contained in the said Heritable Bond having been at various Times called up, and a Change of Securities thereby rendered necessary, and Actions having been raised for Payment of the aforesaid Provisions to the Daughters of the said John Glassford the Entailer, and for bygone Interest, it became necessary for the said James Glassford to defend the Entailed Estate against these Claims, and to settle Accounts with the Trustees of the said Henry Glassford, the Result of which was that the Claims of the Daughters of the said John Glassford, in so far as regarded the Entailed Estate, were restricted to the Principal Sums herein-before specified, and the said Entailed Estate was relieved of Interest which had become due during the Possession thereof by the said Henry Glassford, whereby, and by the Expence incurred in changing the Securities for the Entailer's Debts, in order to prevent the Entailed Estate from being adjudged and evicted from the Heirs of Entail, Expences were incurred by the said James Glassford to the Amount of Eleven hundred and fifty-three Pounds Ten Shillings and Ten-pence, by which the said Heirs of Entail were benefited: And whereas by a Decreet of the said Lords of Council and Session, bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, obtained obtained by the said James Glassford against the said James Gordon as the next Heir of Entail entitled to succeed after him to the said Entailed Estate of Dougalston and others, the same Estate has also been declared to be charged with the Sum of Three thousand and thirty Pounds Six Shillings and Eight-pence Sterling, Part of the Sum of Four thousand and forty Pounds Eight Shillings and Eleven-pence Halfpenny Sterling expended by the said James Glassford in Improvements upon the said Entailed Estates, pursuant to an Act passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for the encouraging the Improvements of Lands in Scotland held under Settlements of strict Entail, and since the Date of the said Decreet the said James Glassford has further expended the Sum of One hundred and eighty-two Pounds One Shilling and Sixpence in Improvements on the Entailed Estate, conform to Account recorded in the Sheriff Court Books of Dumbarton on the First Day of March and in the Sheriff Court Books of Stirling on the Seventh Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, Three Fourth Parts of which will amount to One hundred and thirty-six Pounds Eleven Shillings and Two-pence: And whereas by the said Deed of Entail hereinbefore-recited the Heirs of Entail in Possession are prohibited from selling or alienating the said Entailed Estates, and from borrowing Money upon the Security thereof, and there is no Method of freeing the said Entailed Estate from the Burdens to which it is now liable, or of preventing the same from being adjudged and evicted from the Heirs of Entail by any of the Persons who are Creditors upon the same, whereby the Amount of the Debts, and the Interest and Penalties chargeable thereon, may be accumulated into Principal Sums, to the Prejudice of the Heirs of Entail in Possession, and every succeeding Heir of Entail, unless the same be prevented by a Sale of Part of the Entailed Estate sufficient to discharge the said Debts and Incumbrances: And whereas the said Henry Gordon, Writer in Glasgow, One of the Heirs called by the said Entail, is Proprietor of all and whole that Part of the Lands of Wester Blairskaith lying North from or above the High Coal Road leading through Baldernock towards Newland's Colliery, being Part and Portion of the Ten Shilling and Four Penny Land of Wester Blairskaith, which are Parts of the Five Pound Land of Auchinhowie, with Houses, Biggings, and Pertinents of the same, lying in the Parish of Campsie and Sheriffdom of Stirling; (item,) all and whole the Twenty Shilling Land of Wester Blairskaith, as the equal Half of the Forty Shilling Land of Wester Blairskaith, being Part of the said Five Pound Land of Auchinhowie, with the Houses and Pertinents, lying in the said Parish of Campsie and Shire of Stirling; (item,) all and whole the Ten Shilling Land of Wester Blairskaith, being One Half of the Twenty Shilling Land or just Quarter of the Forty Shilling Land of Wester Blairskaith, which Ten Shilling Land was some Time possessed by John Winning, with the Houses and Pertinents, lying in the Parish and Shire aforesaid, conform to Disposition by James Kerr, Trust Disponee of John Hay, Portioner of Blairskaith, in favour of the said Henry Gordon, dated in the Months of July and August One thousand Eight hundred and twenty-eight, and recorded in the Books of Session the Twenty-sixth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, thirty-six, and Instrument of Sasine following thereon in favour of the said Henry Gordon, dated the Ninth and recorded in the General Register of Sasines at Edinburgh the Thirteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, which Lands were purchased by the said Henry Gordon at the Price of One thousand nine hundred Pounds Sterling; and the said Henry Gordon is also Proprietor of all and whole that Part and Portion of the Lands of Blochairn lying upon the North of or above the Public Road which leads past the South End of Craigmaddie through Baldernoch, being Parts and Portions of the Four Pound Land of old Extent of Blochairn, with the Pertinents, and Teinds, Parsonage and Vicarage, lying in the Parish of Baldernoch and Shire of Stirling, conform to Disposition by Charles Selkrig and Patrick Cockburn in his Favour, dated the Thirteenth Day of May and recorded in the Books of Session the Seventh Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty-two, and Instrument of Sasine following thereon in favour of the said Henry Gordon, dated the Twentieth and recorded in the General Register of Sasines at Edinburgh the Twenty-second Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twenty-two, which Lands of Blochairn were purchased by the said Henry Gordon at the Price of Two thousand Pounds Sterling, making the Price of the whole Lands purchased by him amount to Three thousand nine hundred Pounds Sterling; and the said Henry Gordon is willing to convey the Lands so purchased by him to the Heirs of Entail of Dougalston, subject to the Fetters of that Entail, in the same Manner as if they had been included in the Deed of Entail executed by the said John Glassford herein-before mentioned, upon receiving Payment of the Prices paid by him for the same: And whereas the Lands so purchased by the said Henry Gordon lie adjoining to and are connected with the said Entailed Estate of Dougalston, and would form a desirable Addition to that Estate: And whereas the following Lands and others, specified in Schedule (A.) hereunto annexed, being Part of the said Entailed Estate, lie partly detached and separate, and partly disconnected and nearly separate, from the main Part of the said Entailed Estate of Dougalston; (videlicet,) all and whole the Five Pound Land of old Extent of Gartconnel with the Houses, Biggings, Yards, and Pertinents thereof; also all and whole the Thirty-three Shilling and Four Penny Land of Ferguston Logan, with the Fifty Shilling Land of Bannaghton, and the Fifty Shilling Land of Little Ledcamaroch, with Pertinents, Coals, Coal Heughs, Quarries, and Pertinents, comprehending the Lands after mentioned, (videlicet), the Lands of Crossburn, Mosshead, Mossneuck, Peelglen, and Woodneuck, lying within the Parish of Kilpatrick and Sheriffdom of Dumbarton, together with the Parsonage Teinds of the said Lands, and which Lands comprehend Four Acres of Meadow Land in Auchinhowie, and also those Parcels or Poffles of Land called Culloch Benthouse, Roundfauld, and Longfauld, with the whole Coal and Lime Craigs within the same, being Part of the Forty Shilling Land of Bannaghton before mentioned; and also all and whole that Piece of Ground on the North Side of the River Clyde at the Ferry Dyke of Kilpatrick, from the High-water Mark up to the
