Offices, and others whatsoever, then in the Possession of and pertaining and belonging heritably to the said Archibald Duke of Argyll, or whereunto he had Right as representing Archibald Earl of Argyll his Father, or any other Manner of Way, within the Kingdom of Scotland, were resigned to and in favour of the said John Marquis of Lorne and the Heirs Male to be procreated by him upon the Body of the said Mary Brown; whom failing, in favour of the Heirs Male to be procreated of the said John Marquis of Lorne his Body of any other Marriage; whom failing, in favour of the Lord Archibald Campbell, Second lawful Son to the said Archibald Duke of Argyll, and the Heirs Male to be procreated of his Body; whom failing, in favour of any other Heirs Male to be procreated of the said Archibald Duke of Argyll his Body; whom failing, in favour of any other Person or Heirs to be nominated and designed by Writing under the Hand of the said Archibald Duke of Argyll at any Time in his Lifetime, ac etiam in articulo mortis; whom failing, in favour of the said John Marquis of Lorne his Heirs Male whatsoever; whom all failing, in favour of the said John Marquis of Lorne his Heirs and Assignees whomsoever; and that it was in the said Contract specially provided and declared, that it should be nowise lawful to nor in the Power of the said John Marquis of Lorne, or his Heirs of Entail or Tailzie above mentioned, or any of them, to sell, dispone, dilapidate, or put away the said Lands, Estate, and Living of Argyll, and others therein mentioned, nor no Part thereof, nor to break, innovate, or infringe the foresaid Tailzie, nor to contract Debt, whereby the same or any Part thereof might be incumbered or evicted, by Mortgage or otherwise whatsoever, nor do any other Fact or Deed, Civil or Criminal, by Commission, Omission, or otherwise, whereby the said Lands, Estate, and Living of Argyll might be anywise apprised or adjudged, evicted or forfeited from them, or any otherwise affected in prejudice and defraud of the subsequent Heirs of Entail and Tailzie therein mentioned successive, according to the Order and Substitution therein written, all which Deeds were not only thereby declared null and void, by way of Exception or Reply, without Declarator, in so far as the same might burden or affect the said Estate, but also it was thereby provided and declared that the said John Marquis of Lorne, and the other Heirs of Entail or Tailzie therein specified, who should contravene and incur the Clauses irritant foresaid, or any of them, either by not marrying in manner therein provided, or not assuming and retaining the Name and Arms of Campbell and the Family of Argyll, or should break or innovate the said Tailzie, or contract Debt, or do any other Deed whereby the said Lands and Estate of Argyll might be evicted from them, or anywise affected in manner aforesaid, that then and in any of these Cases the said Persons so contravening should amit, tyne, and forefault themselves allenarly, but prejudice of the Heirs included in the foresaid Tailzie their Right of Succession to the said Lands and Estate, and the Infeftments and other Rights in their Persons should from thenceforth become void, extinct, and null ipso facto, by way of Exception or Reply, and without any Declarator to follow thereupon; and also reciting that the said John Marquis of Lorne, afterwards Duke of Argyll and Greenwich, was infeft and seised in the said Earldom, Lordship, Barony, Lands, and others in virtue of the

Procurátory

Procuratory of Resignation contained in the said Contract of Marriage, and that subsequently the said John Duke of Argyll and Greenwich, having died without leaving Male Issue, was succeeded by his Brother Lord Archibald Campbell, afterwards Earl of Islay, and then become Duke of Argyll, and that upon his Death without leaving Male Issue he was succeeded in his Honours and Estates by his Cousin German General John Campbell of Mamore, then become Duke of Argyll, and that the said John Duke of Argyll at his Death was succeeded in his Honours and Estates by John Marquis of Lorne, his eldest Son, then become Duke of Argyll, all of whom successively made up Titles to and held and possessed the Dukedom, Lands, and Estate of Argyll, upon the Footing of the Tailzie contained in the before-recited Contract of Marriage, from the Date of it in the Year One thousand seven hundred and one downwards; and also reciting that the said John last Duke of Argyll, with the special Advice and Consent of his Son George William then Marquis of Lorne, now Duke of Argyll, had made and executed a Procuratory of Resignation, containing a new Tailzie of the said Dukedom and others (varying in some respects from the former Tailzie), dated the Seventeenth and Twenty-third Days of April One thousand eight hundred and six, and that upon the Death of his Father the said George William now Duke of Argyll made up his Titles to the Dukedom and Estate of Argyll in Terms of the said new Tailzie; and that the said George William now Duke of Argyll, having incurred Debts to a considerable Amount, had on the First Day of February One thousand eight hundred and twelve executed a Disposition and Deed of Trust, whereby, for further Security and more ready Payment of his Debts, he granted and conveyed to certain Trustees all his Personal Property (except his House and Household Furniture, and other moveable Articles situated in England), as also the Woods and Timber growing upon his Lands and Estates, and all Debts and Sums of Money due by Bonds, Heritable and Moveable, or otherwise, as also all and whole the Rents, Profits, Mails, Duties, Feu Duties, Customs, and Casualties payable by the Vassals, Tenants, Tacksmen, and Possessors of his tailzied Lands and Estates, as also the Dominium utile of certain Lands not entailed, in Trust for Payment of his Debts, and for other Purposes; and also reciting that by a Decree of Reduction and Declarator of the Lords of Council and Session, dated the Eleventh Day of June One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, the said Procuratory of Resignation dated the Seventeenth and Twenty-third Days of April One thousand eight hundred and six, and the Titles made up under it, were reduced and set aside, and that in consequence of the said Decree the said George William Duke of Argyll made up Titles under the Tailzie contained in the aforesaid Contract of Marriage dated the Thirtieth Day of December One thousand seven hundred and one, and that John Douglas Edward Henry Campbell commonly called Lord John Campbell, the only Brother of the said George William Duke of Argyll, did concur in suing the Reduction aforesaid of the said Procuratory of Resignation and Tailzie, and Titles made up under the same, before specified, upon the express Condition agreed upon between the said George William Duke of Argyll and him the said Lord John Campbell, as set forth in the Trust Disposition to be hereinafter mentioned, that the whole of the said Lands and Estate

Deed of Entail by John last Duke, with Consent of his Son, the present Duke, dated 17th and 23d April 1806.

Disposition and Deed of Trust by the present Duke, dated 1st February 1812.

Decree of the Court of Session of the 11th June 1816.

of Argyll shall be vested by the said George William Duke of Argyll in Trustees for the Purposes and to the Effect after mentioned; and also reciting that the said George William Duke of Argyll did make and execute a Disposition and Deed of Trust, dated the Seventeenth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, whereby he sold, alienated, and disponed to and in favour of Charles Selkrig, Accountant in Edinburgh, Robert Wilson, Accountant there, Claud Russell, Accountant there, and Patrick Cockburn, Accountant there, whom failing, such other Person or Persons as should be named and appointed by the Lord Advocate for Scotland and the Solicitor General for Scotland, and in case of their differing in Opinion by the Dean of the Faculty of Advocates for the Time being, with Power to each of the said Four Trustees, in the Order of their Enumeration, in the first place to manage and execute the Trust, and that failing them then the Trustees who should be appointed in manner before-mentioned should have the same Power, in their Order, as if they had been specially named and appointed in the Deed, all and whole the Dukedom, Lands, and Estate of Argyll, in Trust, with the Consent of the said Duke, to sell and dispose of as much of the said Lands and Estate, either by public Sale or private Bargain, as should be sufficient for the Purpose of paying the whole of his Debts, according to a Schedule thereto subjoined and signed as relative; and that the said Duke had subsequently, upon the Thirtieth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, executed a Commission empowering the said Charles Selkrig, without the Consent of the said Duke, to sell such Parts as he might judge proper of the Lands and Estates contained in the said Trust Disposition, excepting his Lands situated in the Parishes of Inverary and Kilmorick, and his Lands and Barony of Roseneath; and also reciting that the said Charles Selkrig had acted under both the said Trust Deeds to the Time of passing the said Act now under recital and under the said Commission, and had sold various Parts of the Lands comprised in the said Dukedom and Estate to the Extent of the Principal of the said Debts; and that owing to the Length of Time that elapsed in making the Sales, which could only be done gradually, Interest had accrued upon the said Debts, and that the said Charles Selkrig subsequently found himself under the Necessity of applying and did apply various Portions of the Rents in making partial Payments to Creditors and Annuitants who would not wait for the Issue of Sales; and also reciting that the said Duke did subsequently raise an Action of Declarator, Relief, Count, Reckoning, and Payment against the said Charles Selkrig before the Court of Session in Scotland, in which he claimed that the said Charles Selkrig and his Successors in Office ought and should be decerned and ordained to free and relieve the said Duke personally and his reserved Liferent of the said Lands and Estates from the whole of the said Debts, and to account for his Intromissions with the Rents and annual Profits of the said Lands and Estate, and to pay over the Amount thereof which should appear not to have been applied in Payment of the said Debts; and also reciting that the said Charles Selkrig, as Trustee acting under the said Two Dispositions and Deeds of Trust, and also as Commissioner foresaid, raised a Summons of Multiplepoinding and Exoneration, in which he stated that he was willing to account for his Intromissions and apply any Balance that might be due on account thereof in conformity with the Second Disposition and Deed of Trust, dated 17th June 1816.

Commission, dated 30th Nov. 1818.

the Terms of the Deeds of Trust under which he had acted, and called upon the said George William Duke of Argyll, and the said John Douglas Edward Henry Campbell commonly called Lord John Campbell, for himself and as Administrator in Law for his Children, as also the other Heirs entitled to succeed to the Dukedom and Estate of Argyll under the said Contract of Marriage and Tailzie dated the Thirtieth Day of December One thousand seven hundred and one, to state their respective Claims, and compete in regard to the Application and Payment of such Balance as might appear to be due by the said Charles Selkrig, and that upon his making Payment of such Balance he should be freed and discharged of his whole Intromissions, Actings, and Management under the Two Deeds of Trust and Commission above mentioned at and preceding the Date of the Decree; and also reciting that the said Two Summonses and Actions, videlicet, the one of Declarator, Relief, Count, Reckoning, and Payment, at the Instance of the said George William Duke of Argyll against the said Charles Selkrig, Trustee aforesaid, and the other of Multiplepoinding and Exoneration, at the Instance of the said Charles Selkrig against the said Duke and the Heirs of Entail, having come into Court they were conjoined, and the said Charles Selkrig having produced his Accounts, the Court pronounced an Interlocutor, dated the Twenty-seventh Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, approving of the Accounts, declaring the Balance due thereon, and discharging the said Charles Selkrig of his whole Intromissions, Actings, and Management preceding the Twelfth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty-six; and that subsequently Lord Cringletie, Ordinary, by an Interlocutor dated the Twelfth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, assoilzied the said Charles Selkrig in the Action at the Instance of the said Duke against him, and in the Multiplepoinding repelled the Claim of the said Duke, and sustained the Claim for the said John Douglas Edward Henry Campbell commonly called Lord John Campbell; and also reciting that against this Interlocutor the said Duke gave in a Reclaiming Note to the Second Division of the Court, but that no Decision had been given by the said Second Division; and that the said George William Duke of Argyll and the said John Douglas Edward Henry Campbell commonly called Lord John Campbell, being desirous to preserve the Dukedom and Estate of Argyll from any further Dilapidation by Sales, and to put an End to further Litigation by an Arrangement which would tend to the Accommodation of the said Duke in the existing Situation of his Affairs, had agreed that the said Duke and the said Charles Selkrig should be empowered to borrow the Sum of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, and to make the same, with Interest and Penalty, a Charge upon the Estate by Heritable Bond or other competent Security, to be applied to the Payment of the Debts and Obligations of the said George William Duke of Argyll, in manner in the said recited Act directed; it was thereby enacted, that it should be lawful and competent to the said George William Duke of Argyll, and the said Charles Selkrig, Trustee first in order acting under the said Disposition and Deed of Trust dated the Seventeenth Day of June in the Year One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, and in whom the Fee of the Estate stood vested by that Deed for Behoof of the Heirs of Entail, and they were thereby specially authorized and empowered, to borrow a Sum or Sums of Money to an Amount not exceeding One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds Sterling, and to charge the same, Interest and Penalty thereof, upon the said Dukedom and Estate of Argyll, or any Parts thereof, which Dukedom and Estate were more particularly set forth in the Schedule (D.) to the said recited Act annexed, and to secure the same upon the said Estate, or any Part thereof, in Manner and to the Effect as is directed in the said recited Act, and that the Sum or Sums to be borrowed to the Extent of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds Sterling as aforesaid should be applied first in payment of Twenty-eight thousand Pounds Sterling, the Balance of certain Provisions given by the late Duke to his younger Children, and secured by him upon the Estate; secondly, in payment of Four thousand Pounds Sterling, the Amount of the Principal Sums of certain Debts affecting the Estate of Kintyre; thirdly, in payment of Sixty-four thousand two hundred and fifteen Pounds Seventeen Shillings and Sixpence Sterling, being the Redemption Monies of certain Annuities amounting to Seven thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine Pounds Eighteen Shillings and Four-pence Sterling, granted by the said Duke, and secured upon the Rents of the Estate; fourthly, in payment of Fifty thousand Pounds Sterling to be applied in compounding and settling certain personal Debts incurred by the said Duke, which did not affect the said entailed Lands and Estate, and the Balance to be applied in payment of the Expence of obtaining and passing the said recited Act, and quoad ultra on account of Charges of Management while the Trust should subsist; and it was further enacted, that immediately after the passing of the said recited Act the said Duke should grant and deliver a valid Disposition and Assignation, by which his Grace should convey the Right of Liferent which he reserved to himself of the said Dukedom and Estate of Argyll, with all the Powers which were competent to him in virtue of such reserved Right, to and in favour of the said Charles Selkrig, as Trustee, and failing him, by Non-acceptance, Resignation, or Death, to such other Person or Persons as should from Time to Time be named and appointed by the Lord Advocate for Scotland and the Solicitor General for Scotland for the Time being, and in case of their differing in opinion, by the Dean of the Faculty of Advocates for the Time being, with certain Powers to the said Charles Selkrig, or other Trustee acting for the Time, in the said recited Act set forth, but excepting from such Disposition and Assignation all Rights of Patronage and all Heritable Offices connected with the Estate, and the consequent Power to give Presentations to Ministers, and to name and appoint Deputies in the heritable Offices, such as the said Duke might think fit, reserving also Power to the said Duke to enter Vassals and grant Charters and other Deeds necessary, and to receive the Composition on such Entries, and declaring that the Right of the said Duke to settle Jointures upon Wives and Provisions upon Children should not be affected, provided that no Jointure granted or to be granted by the said Duke should affect the said entailed Estate to a greater Extent in the whole than Six thousand Pounds per Annum; and it was thereby further enacted, that the said George William Duke of Argyll should dispone and convey the Lands of Glennamucklach and Knockstaplemore, in the Barony of Kintyre and Shire of Argyll, which the said Duke held in Fee Simple, to the said Charles Selkrig, and failing him, by Non-acceptance, Resignation, signation, or Death, to such other Person or Persons as should be named as Trustees as aforesaid, with Power to him or them in their Order to sell the same, and that in case of the same being sold the said Trustee should pay and apply the Price thereof in reduction of the Loan thereby authorized to be made; and it was thereby further provided and enacted, that the Rents and annual Produce of the Estate to be received by the Factors or Chamberlains, Agents or Cashiers, to be named by the said Trustee for the Time, which might remain after paying the public and parochial Burdens, Charges incident to a Land Estate, Salaries to Factors, Chamberlains, Agents, and Cashiers, and other Charges of Management, including a reasonable Gratification to the Trustee for his Trouble, should be paid, retained, and applied by the said Charles Selkrig, and failing him by the other Trustees to be appointed as aforesaid, in manner following, videlicet, first, the said acting Trustee should regularly pay the Interest of the said Sum of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds to be borrowed as aforesaid, and should also retain the Sum of Five thousand Pounds yearly for the gradual Reduction and ultimate Extinction of the said Loan in manner in the said recited Act mentioned; secondly, that he should regularly pay, in the Order in which they are set down in the Schedule (F.) to the said recited Act annexed, the Annuities therein specified; and lastly that he should pay over to the said Duke yearly such Balance as might remain of the Rents and annual Produce of the said Dukedom and Estate of Argyll as the said Balance might be ascertained as in the said recited Act directed; and it was thereby further enacted, that the said Sum of Five thousand Pounds to be annually retained by the acting Trustee as before mentioned should be applied in the first place in effecting Insurances on the Life of the said Duke with Insurance Offices of established Character and Credit to the Extent of Thirty-five thousand Pounds, and in paying the annual Premiums on such Insurances, and that the Balance of the said Sum of Five thousand Pounds, together with the nett Proceeds from the Sale of Coppice Wood and Timber, should be annually applied, during the Lifetime of the said Duke of Argyll, as a Sinking Fund for the gradual annual Extinction of the said Debt of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds; and it was thereby further enacted, that the said George William Duke of Argyll should immediately after the passing of the said recited Act make, grant, and execute a Conveyance to and in favour of the said Charles Selkrig, or other Person or Persons who might act as a Trustee or Trustees in Terms of the said recited Act, of the whole Furniture, Books, Pictures, Prints, and Paintings which at the passing of the said recited Act might be in the Castle of Inverary or House of Roseneath, and of the whole Rents or Arrears of Rent of the said Estate and Dukedom which might be due at the Death of the said Duke, and which Trustee or Trustees acting at the Period of the Death of the said Duke should be entitled and authorized either to sell the said Furniture at a Price or Prices to be applied in further Extinction pro tanto of the said Loan of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, or to deliver the same to the Heir of Entail entitled to succeed at a Valuation to be made in manner therein mentioned; and it was thereby further provided and enacted, that as upon the passing of the said recited Act no Parties would have any Interest in maintaining or supporting the said first Disposition and Deed of

Trust

Trust dated the Seventh Day of February One thousand eight hundred and twelve, the same should from thenceforth become void and null, and it was thereby declared to be extinguished; and it was thereby further enacted, that certain Persons therein named should be Commissioners, in order to see to and secure the Execution of the Purposes of the said recited Act on the Part of the acting Trustees, and that the acting Trustee or Trustees should at a certain Time in each Year state and render the Account of his or their Management under and by Authority of the said recited Act to the said Commissioners for Examination, and that the same should be audited in manner therein mentioned; and it was thereby further enacted, that in the event of the Demise of the said Duke, and that any Part of the said Loan should remain due at the Time of such Demise, the next Heir of Entail succeeding to the said Estate should continue to pay the yearly Interest of the said Sum of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, or of so much of the said Sum as should then remain unpaid and owing, after Application to the Reduction thereof of the Funds appropriated to that Purpose as aforesaid, and also the said Sum of Five thousand Pounds as a Sinking Fund towards the gradual Reduction and ultimate Extinction of what might so remain due; and that in the event of the Demise of such next Heir of Entail, and that any Part of the Loan should then remain due, the succeeding Heirs in their Order should continue to pay the yearly Interest of the said Sum of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, and also the Sum of Five thousand Pounds yearly, and so forth, until the Loan should be extinguished, so that finally the said entailed Estate might be altogether freed and disencumbered of the same; and it was thereby also enacted, that the said George William Duke of Argyll should not be entitled to any Benefit whatever from the said recited Act until he should grant, execute, and deliver the Disposition and Conveyance of his Right of Liferent, and the Disposition and Conveyance of the Lands held by him in Fee Simple, to the said Charles Selkrig, Trustee first in Order in the said Disposition and Deed of Trust dated the Seventeenth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, and the other Persons appointed or to be appointed his Successors under that Deed: And whereas the said George William Duke of Argyll, in compliance with the Directions of the said recited Act, did, by his Disposition and Conveyance dated the Twenty-ninth Day of June in the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirty, dispone and convey to the said Charles Selkrig, and to the other Persons to be appointed his Successors as Trustees under the said recited Act, his Liferent Right to the said Dukedom and Estate of Argyll, upon which Disposition and Conveyance the said Charles Selkrig was duly infeft and seised in the Lands and others therein disponed, conform to Instrument of Sasine in his Favour dated the Fourteenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and thirty, and recorded in the General Register of Sasines the Nineteenth Day of said Month and Year foresaid; and the said George William Duke of Argyll did also, with Consent of the said Charles Selkrig, by his Disposition and Conveyance dated the Twenty-ninth Day of June and Second Day of July in the said Year One thousand eight hundred and thirty, also convey to the same Persons, as Trustees aforesaid, his Lands of Glennamucklach and Knockstaplemore in the Barony of Kintyre and Shire of Argyll, which were held by him in Fee Simple, upon which last-

mentioned Disposition and Conveyance the said Charles Selkrig was duly infeft and seised in the Lands and others therein disponed, conform to Instrument of Sasine in his Favour dated the Twenty-seventh Day of July One thousand eight hundred and thirty, and recorded in the General Register of Sasines the Thirty-first Day of said Month and Year foresaid; and the said George William Duke of Argyll, by his Disposition and Assignation dated the said Twenty-ninth Day of June and Second Day of July One thousand eight hundred and thirty, did convey to the same Persons the whole Furniture, Books, Pictures, and Prints which at the passing of the said recited Act were in the Castle of Inverary and House of Roseneath, and the whole Rents and Arrears of Rents on the said Estate and Dukedom which might be due at his Grace's Death, in Terms of and for the Purposes mentioned in the said Act: And whereas the said George William Duke of Argyll, and the said Charles Selkrig, as Trustee aforesaid, in virtue of the Powers by the said recited Act granted, have borrowed the said Sum of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds from the Royal Bank of Scotland, and the same has been charged upon the said Dukedom and Estate of Argyll by virtue of a Disposition in Security dated the said Twenty-ninth Day of June and Second Day of July One thousand eight hundred and thirty, granted by the said Duke, and by the said Charles Selkrig, as Trustee aforesaid, in favour of the said Royal Bank of Scotland, upon which Disposition in Security the said Royal Bank of Scotland were duly infeft and seised in the Lands and others therein disponed, conform to Instrument of Seisin thereon dated the Fourteenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and thirty, and recorded in the General Register of Sasines the Nineteenth Day of said Month and Year aforesaid; and the Sum so borrowed has been applied by the said Charles Selkrig to the Purposes directed by the said recited Act: And whereas Insurances upon the Life of the said George William Duke of Argyll to the Extent of the said Sum of Thirty-five thousand Pounds have been effected in Terms of the said recited Act, and the annual Premiums of Insurance thereon, amounting to the Sum of Two thousand two hundred and fifty-one Pounds Nineteen Shillings, have been regularly paid, so that the said Insurances do now all subsist: And whereas the Sinking Fund established by the said recited Act, consisting of the Balance of the said Sum of Five thousand Pounds directed to be annually retained out of the Rents and Produce of the said Dukedom and Estate remaining over and above the annual Payment of the said Premiums of Insurance, and also of the nett Proceeds arising from the Sale of Coppice Wood and other Wood and Timber, has been established and maintained by the said Charles Selkrig, as Trustee aforesaid, and the same has been lodged by him with the Royal Bank of Scotland in a separate Account, and the same now amounts to the Sum of Eighteen thousand four hundred and forty-two Pounds Fifteen Shillings and Eight-pence, as specified in the Schedule (A.) hereunto annexed: And whereas there remains due at this Time to Messieurs John Tod and John Romanes, the Agents and Cashiers under the Trust created by the said recited Act, the Sum of Six thousand eight hundred and eighty-six Pounds Fifteen Shillings and Two-pence, as specified in the Schedule (B.) hereunto annexed, as the Balance of their Intromissions with the Rents and Profits of the said Dukedom and Estate, and Payments in respect of the same, as on the Fourteenth

Day of April One thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven: And whereas, owing to the great Depreciation of the Value of Kelp, of which at the Time of passing the said recited Act a large Quantity was manufactured upon the Shores of the said Dukedom and Estates, and to the Fall of the Rents of the said Dukedom and Estates from various Causes, while the parochial Burdens and Expences of Management have increased, the Balance of the Rents of the said Dukedom and Estates directed to be paid over to the said Duke has been much smaller than at the Time of the passing of the said recited Act it was expected to be, and has been so inadequate for his Maintenance that he has been under the Necessity of contracting further Debts, both by Specialty and Simple Contract and by granting redeemable Annuities, which Debts so contracted by him amount to the Sum of Seventeen thousand four hundred and seventy Pounds Seven Shillings and Five-pence, as specified in the Schedule (C.) hereunto annexed, and which redeemable Annuities amount to One thousand and eighty-one Pounds Six Shillings and Eight-pence, as specified, together with the Sums at which the same are respectively redeemable, in the Schedule (D.) hereunto annexed; and in addition to these Debts there is due by the said Duke upon Mortgage over the Leasehold House and Premises belonging to him the Sum of Sixteen thousand four hundred and seventy-five Pounds Five Shillings and Eleven-pence, as specified in the Schedule (E.) hereunto annexed: And whereas the said Sum of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds borrowed under the Authority of the said recited Act has hitherto been obtained at a lower Rate of Interest than the legal Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, but a higher Rate of Interest may be required, thereby still further diminishing the Balance of the Rents of the said Dukedom and Estate to be paid over annually to the said Duke as herein-before mentioned; and it is therefore expedient that Means should be provided for paying off the said Debts and the Annuities comprised in the Schedules hereunto annexed; and the said Duke and the said John Douglas Edward Henry Campbell commonly called Lord John Campbell have agreed that the Sums which have in virtue of the said recited Act been set apart as a Sinking Fund for Payment of the Debts of the said Duke, and now amounting to the Sum of Eighteen thousand four hundred and forty-two Pounds Fifteen Shillings and Eight-pence shall be applied by the said Trustee for the Time in payment of the Debts and Annuities of the said Duke, and that the said Sinking Fund, in so far as it shall arise from Rents, shall from and after the passing of this Act be suspended in manner herein-after provided during the Lifetime of the said Duke, except to the Extent and Effect of paying the annual Premiums upon the Insurances ordered by the said recited Act to be effected upon the Life of the said Duke to the Extent of Thirty-five thousand Pounds, to be applied at his Death towards the further Extinction of the said Sum of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds thereby authorized to be borrowed; but that the said Sinking Fund, so far as it may arise from the Produce of Sales of Coppice Wood and other Wood and Timber, shall continue in operation for the Extinction of the said Debt of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds; and also that the said Charles Selkrig, or the Trustee for the Time acting under the Authority of the said recited cited Act, shall be empowered to borrow a further Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds, and to make the same, with the Interest thereof and Penalty thereon, a further Charge upon the said Dukedom and Estate so held in Trust as aforesaid, by heritable or other competent Security, to be by such Trustee applied to the Extinction of the said Debts and the Annuities comprised in the said Schedules hereunto annexed: But as the Deed of Tailzie contained in the said Contract of Marriage contains a Declaration that it shall be nowise lawful to nor in the Power of the Heirs of Tailzie to contract Debt whereby the Estate or any Part thereof may be encumbered or evicted, by Mortgage or otherwise whatsoever, which Clause of Prohibition is guarded and fenced by both irritant and resolutive Clauses, so that no Debt can be contracted nor can the same be made a temporary Charge against the Estate, however beneficial it may be to the Heir in Possession as well as to the Estate itself, without the Aid and Authority of Parliament, May it therefore please Your Majesty, upon the Petition of Your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subject the said George William Duke of Argyll, and upon the humble Petition of the said John Douglas Edward Henry Campbell commonly called Lord John Campbell, for himself and as Administrator in Law for his infant Children, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act so much of the said recited Act of the Eleventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth as directs the Sum of Five thousand Pounds yearly to be retained by way of Sinking Fund out of the Rents and annual Produce of the said Dukedom and Estate of Argyll, for the gradual Extinction of the Loan of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds thereby authorized to be made, (except in so far as it may be required for Payment of the annual Premiums on the Insurances to the Extent of Thirty-five thousand Pounds by the said Act directed to be made upon the Life of the said George William Duke of Argyll,) shall be and is hereby suspended during the Lifetime of the said Duke; and the Surplus of the said annual Sum of Five thousand Pounds, after Payment of the said Premiums upon the said Insurances, shall thenceforward during the Life of the said Duke merge in the Balance of the Rents and Produce of the said Dukedom and Estate which by the said recited Act the said Charles Selkrig, or the Trustee for the Time acting under the said recited Act, is thereby directed to pay over yearly to the said Duke, and shall be so paid over accordingly: Provided always, that all Sums of Money which may arise from the Produce of Sales of Coppice Wood and other Wood and Timber growing upon the said Dukedom and Estate shall continue to be applied to the Discharge and Extinction of the said Debt of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, in manner directed by the said recited Act.

So much of recited Act as to the Application of a Sinking Fund of 5,000*l.* per Annum in Reduction of a Loan of 150,000*l.*, suspended during the Life-time of the present Duke of Argyll, except as herein specified.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to the said George William Duke of Argyll, and the said Charles Selkrig, or other Trustee for the Time as aforesaid, and they are hereby specially authorized and empowered, in addition to the Sum of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds already borrowed as aforesaid under the Authority

A further Sum of 30,000*l.* to be borrowed and charged on the Estate.

Authority of the said recited Act, to borrow a further Sum or Sums of Money to an Amount not exceeding Thirty thousand Pounds, and to charge the same, with the Interest and Penalty thereof, upon the said Dukedom and Estate of Argyll, as the same are particularly set forth in the Schedule (D.) to the said recited Act annexed, or any Part or Parts thereof, by Heritable Bond or Bonds, or other competent Deed or Deeds, which Heritable Bond or Bonds, or other Deed or Deeds, shall be equally good to the Lender or Lenders as if the same were taken over an Estate held in Fee Simple, notwithstanding of the Tailzie contained in the said Contract of Marriage dated the Thirtieth Day of December in the Year One thousand seven hundred and one, or the Conditions contained in the said Disposition and Deed of Trust dated the Seventeenth Day of June in the Year One thousand eight hundred and sixteen; and it is hereby declared, that neither the said George William Duke of Argyll, nor any Heir of Entail who may come into Possession of the said Dukedom and Estate of Argyll, shall incur any Irritancy or Forfeiture on account of such Heritable Bond or Bonds, or other Deed or Deeds, which may be granted for securing such Sum or Sums of Money to the Extent aforesaid as may be borrowed under the Authority of this Act.

In case of the Death of the Duke, future Heirs to pay the Interest thereof.

III. And be it further enacted, That in the event of the Demise of the said Duke (and that any Part of the said Loan of Thirty thousand Pounds shall remain due at the Time of such Demise) the next Heir of Entail succeeding to the said Estate shall continue to pay the yearly Interest of the said Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds, or such other Sum as shall be borrowed under the Authority of this Act, or of so much of the said Sum as shall then remain unpaid and owing after Application to the Reduction thereof of the Funds appropriated to that Purpose as aforesaid, and also the said Sum of Five thousand Pounds yearly, as provided in the said recited Act, as a Sinking Fund towards the gradual Reduction and ultimate Extinction of what may so remain due; and that in the event of the Demise of such next Heir of Entail, and that any Part of the said Loan shall still remain due, the succeeding Heirs in their Order shall continue to pay the yearly Interest of the said Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds, or such Sum as shall be borrowed as aforesaid, or of so much thereof as shall be then due and owing, and also the said Sum of Five thousand Pounds, until the Loan be extinguished, so that finally the said entailed Estate may be altogether freed and disencumbered of the same.

Application of the Accumulation of the Sinking Fund, and of the Sum of 30,000*l.* to be borrowed.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the said Charles Selkrig or other Trustee for the Time as aforesaid shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this Act, receive, transfer, and lodge the said Sum of Eighteen thousand four hundred and forty-two Pounds Fifteen Shillings and Eight-pence, being the Amount of the said Sinking Fund now lodged with the Royal Bank as aforesaid, (which he is hereby specially authorized to do, and which Sum the said Royal Bank is also hereby specially authorized and required so to pay and transfer,) with the Bank of Scotland, Royal Bank of Scotland, Bank of the British Linen Company, Commercial Bank of Scotland, or National Bank of Scotland, on a separate Account to be kept in his Name with one or other of the said Banks, and when and

so soon as the said Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds or any Part thereof shall be so borrowed as aforesaid the said Charles Selkrig or other Trustee for the Time as aforesaid shall immediately upon his receiving the same lodge the Money in the same Bank and into the same Account, and the Monies so lodged shall be drawn out occasionally as may be required, and shall be applied by the said Trustee in manner following; videlicet, first, in payment of the Expences of preparing, procuring, obtaining, and passing this Act, and the Expences to be incurred in procuring the Loan of the said Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds; secondly, in payment of the Specialty and Simple Contract Debts of the said Duke amounting to Seventeen thousand four hundred and seventy Pounds Seven Shillings and Five-pence, as specified in Schedule (C.) hereunto annexed; thirdly, in payment of the Redemption Monies of the Annuities granted by the said Duke subsequent to the passing of the said recited Act, amounting to Five thousand nine hundred and ninety-eight Pounds, as specified in Schedule (D.) hereunto annexed; fourthly, in payment of the Mortgages upon the Leasehold House and Premises of the said Duke, amounting to the Sum of Sixteen thousand four hundred and seventy-five Pounds Five Shillings and Eleven-pence, as specified in Schedule (E.) hereunto annexed; and, lastly, in payment of the said Balance due to the said Messieurs John Tod and John Romanes, amounting to Six thousand eight hundred and eighty-six Pounds Fifteen Shillings and Two-pence, as specified in Schedule (B.) also hereunto annexed: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall prevent or be construed to prevent the said Charles Selkrig or other Trustee for the Time from stating all competent Objections to the Validity of any of the said Debts or Securities, or from effecting a Compromise of the same or any of them.

Rents of the Dukedom to be applied in payment of the Interest of the 30,000*l*.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Rents and annual Produce of the said Dukedom and Estate to be received by the said Charles Selkrig or other Trustee for the Time as aforesaid, or by the Factors, Chamberlains, Agents, and Cashiers, under the Authority of the said recited Act, shall, after making the several Payments by the said recited Act directed to be made out of the said Rents and Produce, except in so far as the same may be altered or varied by this Act, be annually applied in paying once a Year the Interest of the said Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds, or of such Part thereof as shall be borrowed as aforesaid.

The Sinking Fund, how to be applied.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the said Sinking Fund (whether arising from the Sales of Coppice Wood or other Wood or Timber, or from the full Sum of Five thousand Pounds again becoming annually payable out of the Rents and Produce of the said Dukedom and Estates in consequence of the Demise of the said George William Duke of Argyll, or from the Sale or Disposal of the Furniture and other Property in Inverary Castle or Roseneath House, or from the Price arising from the Sale of the said Fee Simple Lands, if sold, under the Authority of the said recited Act, or from the Rents or Arrears of Rents which may be due at the Death of the said Duke, or from the Sums drawn from the Policies of Insurance made under the Authority of the said recited Act, or from any of these Sources,) shall be applied by the Trustee for the Time under the said recited Act in extinction, first, of the said Debt of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, secondly, in extinction of the Debt which may be contracted under the Authority of this Act.

Commissioners to see to and secure the Purposes of this Act.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners appointed by the said recited Act to see to and secure the Execution of the Purposes thereof on the Part of the acting Trustee, or such of them as shall be surviving, shall have such and the same Powers in regard to the Purposes of this Act as are given and granted to them by the said recited Act in relation thereto, and the Trustee for the Time shall account to them in the same Manner in regard to the Purposes of this Act as is in the said recited Act directed with regard to the Purposes thereof; and in case of a Difference of Opinion between the said Commissioners and the acting Trustee, or among the said Commissioners, the same Course shall be followed in regard to this Act as is directed in similar Cases by the said recited Act.

Former Act, so far as not altered, to remain in force.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the said recited Act, and all the Powers, Provisions, Declarations, Enactments, Matters, and Things therein contained, so far as the same are not altered, varied, or repealed by this Act, shall remain in full Force, and shall be applicable to this Act, and the said recited Act and this Act shall be carried into effect together.

Consents to be given.

IX. And whereas of the first Ten Heirs of Entail after the Heir in Possession Three have not consented to the passing of this Act; videlicet, John Campbell, the surviving Son of Archibald Campbell of Ardslignish, and Archibald Argyll Napier Campbell and John Cameron Campbell, Sons of Archibald Campbell, one of the Deputy Lieutenants of the County of Argyll, which Three Persons are now all absent from Great Britain; be it enacted, That none of the Powers or Provisions of this Act shall take effect until some One of the said Three Heirs of Entail above mentioned shall, by Deed or Deeds to be executed by him, and to be recorded in the Books of Council and Session in Scotland, declare his Consent to this Act, and to the Purposes and Provisions therein contained.

General Saving.

X. Saving and reserving unto the King's most Excellent Majesty, and to all and every other Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, his, her, or their Heirs, Successors, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, (other than and excepting the said George William Duke of Argyll, and the Heirs of Entail entitled to take under the said Tailzie dated the Thirtieth Day of December One thousand seven hundred and one,) all such Right, Title, Interest, Claim, and Demand whatsoever, in, to, or out of the said Dukedom and Estate of Argyll, or the Lands and Heritages comprising the same, or any Part thereof, as they or any of them had before the passing of this Act, or could or might have enjoyed in case this Act had not been made.

Act to be printed by His Majesty's Printers.

XI. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be printed by the several Printers to the King's most Excellent Majesty duly authorized to print the Statutes of the United Kingdom; and a Copy thereof to be printed by any of them shall be admitted as Evidence thereof by all Judges, Justices, and others.
