2. WHALING INDUSTRY

The Whaling Industry (Ship) (No. 2) Regulations, 1948

1948 No. 2504

Made - - - -	16th November, 1948
Coming into Operation	30th November, 1948

24 & 25 Geo. 5. c. 49 and 1 & 2 Geo. 6. c. 30.

Whereas it is provided by the Whaling Industry (Regulation) Acts, 1934 and 1938 (hereinafter referred to as " the Acts "), that the Board of Trade after consultation with the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries and the Secretary of State for Scotland may in relation to ships make Regulations prescribing:—

(a) the sizes of whales which may be killed or taken;
(b) the manner in which applications for licences are to be made;
(c) the forms of licences;
(d) the fees to be paid for licences; and
(e) the records to be kept in ships used for treating whales, the person by whom they are to be kept and the times and manner of their transmission to the licensing authority.

And further that the Board of Trade after consultation as aforesaid and with the approval of the Treasury may make Regulations prescribing the sums to be paid by Whale Fishery Inspectors for subsistence and accommodation provided for them in ships used for treating whales.

And Whereas by section 1 of the Whaling Industry (Regulation) Act, 1934 (hereinafter referred to as " the principal Act ") it is provided that for the purpose therein mentioned His Majesty may by Order in Council direct that subject to such exceptions, adaptations and modifications (if any) as may be specified in the Order the provisions of the principal Act shall apply in relation to whales other than whalebone whales or baleen whales and to such descriptions of such whales as may be so specified.

And Whereas by the Whaling Industry (Sperm Whales) Order, 1937(a) (hereinafter referred to as " the Order "), the provisions of the principal Act were applied to sperm whales as defined in the Order;

And Whereas the powers of the Board of Trade under the Acts and the Order are now vested in the Minister of Transport:

Now therefore the Minister of Transport in exercise of his powers under the Acts and the Order and of all other powers him enabling after such
