These regulations further amend the National Insurance (Modification of Local Government Superannuation Schemes) Regulations, 1947, as amended by the National Insurance (Modification of Local Government Superannuation Schemes) Amendment Regulations, 1947. Regulation 2 extends the principal regulations to certain persons who, although participating in local Act schemes are not technically local Act contributors. Regulation 3 extends the period within which an option to take the benefit of the principal regulations conferred on certain classes of persons can be exercised. Regulation 4 extends the right of contributory employees under the Local Government Superannuation Act, 1937 formerly subject to an existing scheme (i.e. a modification scheme made under section 28 (3) of the Widows' Orphans' and Old Age Contributory Pensions Act, 1936) to continue to enjoy the modifications contained in that scheme, and enables such persons to retain those modifications on transferring in consequence of any enactment to other employment in which they continue to be contributory employees.
