(2) MINERAL UNDERTAKINGS

The Claims for Depreciation of Land Values (Mineral Undertakings) (Scotland) Regulations, 1949

1949 No. 1194 (S. 77)

Made - - - -	25th June, 1949
Laid before Parliament	27th June, 1949
Coming into Operation	28th June, 1949

In exercise of the powers conferred on me by sections 57 and 107 of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act, 1947(a) and of all other powers enabling me in that behalf, I hereby make the following regulations :—

1. These regulations may be cited as the Claims for Depreciation of Land Values (Mineral Undertakings) (Scotland) Regulations, 1949 and shall come into operation on the 28th day of June, 1949.

2.—(1) In these regulations the following expressions have the meanings hereby assigned to them—

(i) " The Act " means the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act, 1947 ;

(ii) " claim " has the meaning assigned to it by the Claims for Depreciation of Land Values (Scotland) Regulations, 1948(b) ;

(iii) " mineral undertaker " means any person engaged in the winning and working of minerals in, on, or under land, whether by surface or underground working, other than any such minerals as are mentioned in paragraphs 3 and 4 of Part II of the Third Schedule to the Act and other than minerals vested in the National Coal Board.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(c) shall apply to the interpretation of these regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of Regulation 4 of the Claims for Depreciation of Land Values (Scotland) Regulations, 1948 as amended by Regulation 2 of the Claims for Depreciation of Land Values (Scotland) Amendment Regulations, 1948(d) (which require claims to be made within the period commencing on the 1st July, 1948 and ending on the 30th June, 1949), where, as regards any interest in land falling within any of the classes hereafter specified in this regulation, the development value thereof is attributable to the prospect of development consisting either of the winning and working of minerals in, on, or under that land (with or without the prospect of further development after the minerals have been won and worked) or of operations for the erection or extension of buildings, plant or machinery to be used wholly or mainly in connection with either the winning and working of minerals or the processing of minerals, the period within which a claim shall be made in respect of any such interest in land shall end on the 31st December, 1949.

Class 1. An interest in land to which a mineral undertaker was entitled on the 1st July, 1948 or, in a case to which the provisions of subsection (2) of section 87 of the Act apply, immediately before the date of the notice to treat.

(a) 10 & 11 Geo. 6. c. 53.
(b) S.I. 1948 (No. 907) I, p. 4247.
(c) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.
(d) S.I. 1948 (No. 2825) I, p. 4255.

Class 2. An interest in land which a mineral undertaker has acquired, or is entitled to acquire, by virtue of a contract subsisting on the 1st July, 1948, or in a case to which the provisions of subsection (2) of section 87 of the Act apply, immediately before the date of the notice to treat.

Class 3. An interest in land in respect of which the owner was on the 1st July, 1948 (or, in a case to which the provisions of subsection (2) of section 87 of the Act apply, immediately before the date of the notice to treat) the person entitled to receive a rent, royalty or other similar payment for a mineral undertaker under a mining lease as defined by the Act subsisting on that date.

4. In relation to any interest in land falling within any of the classes specified in Regulation 3 of these regulations, Regulation 10 of the Claims for Depreciation of Land Values (Scotland) Regulations, 1948 (which makes the right to receive a payment in respect of any claim conditional upon due and punctual compliance with the regulations therein mentioned) shall have effect as if in those regulations there were substituted for Regulation 4 thereof Regulation 3 of these regulations.

Dated this 25th day of June, 1949.

Arthur Woodburn,
One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

St. Andrew's House,
Edinburgh, 1.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

The purpose of these regulations is to extend the period for making claims for a payment under the Scheme for payments in respect of depreciation of land values to be made under section 55 of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act, 1947, in the case of certain interests in mineral bearing land, from the 30th June, 1949 (which is the final date for the making of claims in respect of interests in land not covered by these regulations) to the 31st December, 1949.
