SCHEDULE

The following provisions as to holidays and holiday remuneration shall be substituted for the provisions as to holidays and holiday remuneration set out in Order W.D. (47).

PART I

APPLICATION

Paragraph 1.

(1) This Schedule applies to every worker (other than a homeworker) for whom statutory minimum remuneration has been fixed.

(2) For the purposes of this Schedule a homeworker is a worker who works in his own home or in any other place not under the control or management of the employer.

PART II

CUSTOMARY HOLIDAYS

Paragraph 2.

(1) An employer shall allow to every worker in his employment to whom this Schedule applies a holiday (hereinafter referred to as a " customary holiday ") in each year on the days specified in the following sub-paragraph, provided that the worker has been in his employment for a period of not less than eight weeks immediately preceding the customary holiday and has worked for the employer during the whole or part of that period and is in his employment on the day of the customary holiday.

(2) The said customary holidays are:—

(a) Christmas Day (or, if Christmas Day falls on a Sunday, such other week-day as may be appointed by national proclamation, or, if none is so appointed, the next following Tuesday), Boxing Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Whit Monday and August Bank Holiday, or

(b) in the case of each of the said days, a day substituted by the employer therefor, being a day recognised by local custom as a day of holiday in substitution for the said day.

(3) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this paragraph, an employer may (except where in the case of a woman or young person such a requirement would be unlawful) require a worker who is otherwise entitled to any customary holiday under the foregoing provisions of this Schedule to work thereon, and, in lieu of any such holiday on which he so works, the worker shall be entitled to be allowed a day's holiday (hereinafter referred to as a " holiday in lieu of a customary holiday ") on a week-day within the period of four weeks next ensuing.

(4) A worker who is required to work on a customary holiday shall be paid:—

(a) for all time worked thereon at the minimum rate then appropriate to the worker for work on a customary holiday; and

(b) in respect of the holiday in lieu of the customary holiday, holiday remuneration in accordance with paragraph 6 of this Schedule.

(a) the number of days of annual holiday to which a worker is entitled in any holiday season shall not exceed in the aggregate twice the period constituting the worker's normal working week;

(b) the duration of the worker's annual holiday during the holiday season ending on the 30th day of September, 1949, shall be reduced by any days of annual holiday duly allowed to him by the employer under the provisions of Order W.D. (47) between the 1st day of May, 1949, and the 17th day of August, 1949.

(c) Where in any year a worker does not wish to take his annual holiday or part thereof during the current holiday season and, before the expiration of such holiday season, enters into an agreement in writing with his employer that the annual holiday or part thereof shall be allowed after the expiration of the current holiday season but before the commencement of the next following holiday season, then any day or days of annual holiday so allowed shall be treated as having been allowed during the current holiday season.

(3) In this Schedule the expression "holiday season" means in relation to an annual holiday during the year 1949 the period commencing on the 1st day of May, 1949, and ending on the 30th day of September, 1949, and in relation to each subsequent year, the period commencing on the 1st day of May and ending on the 30th day of September in that year.

Paragraph 4.

Annual holidays under this Schedule shall be allowed on consecutive working days and days of holiday shall be treated as consecutive notwithstanding that a Sunday or a customary holiday or a holiday in lieu of a customary holiday intervenes.

Provided that—

(1) where the duration of an annual holiday to which a worker is entitled exceeds the period constituting the worker's normal working week the said holiday may be allowed in two separate periods of such consecutive working days one of which shall be not less than the period of his normal working week;

(2) one day of the annual holiday may be allowed on a non-consecutive working day (other than the worker's weekly short day) falling within the holiday season (or after the holiday season in the circumstances specified in sub-paragraph (2) (c) of paragraph 3 of this Schedule) where the said annual holiday or, as the case may be, such separate period, is allowed immediately after a customary holiday or so that such a holiday intervenes.

Paragraph 5.

An employer shall give to a worker reasonable notice of the commencing date or dates and of the duration of his annual holiday. Such notice may be given individually to the worker or by the posting of a notice in the place where the worker is employed.

Paragraph 6

(1) For each day of holiday (including a holiday falling on a Saturday) to which a worker is entitled under Part II of this Schedule he shall be paid by the employer holiday remuneration equal to the appropriate statutory minimum remuneration to which he would have been entitled as a time worker if the day had not been a day of holiday and he had been employed on work to which statutory minimum remuneration applies:—

(a) in the case of a worker normally employed for more than 30 hours a week, for 8¼ hours, or

(b) in the case of a worker normally employed for 30 hours a week or less, for 4¼ hours.

(2) Where a worker normally works in the week on every week-day except Saturday, he shall be paid in respect of any Saturday on which he would have been entitled to a holiday under Part II of this Schedule if it had been a day on which he normally worked a sum equivalent to the holiday remuneration he would have been entitled to receive had he been allowed a holiday on that day.

(3) Holiday remuneration in respect of any customary holiday shall be paid by the employer to the worker on the pay-day on which the wages for the pay-week including the holiday are paid.

(4) Holiday remuneration in respect of any holiday in lieu of a customary holiday shall be paid on the pay-day on which the wages for the week including that holiday in lieu are paid. Provided that the said payment shall be made immediately upon the termination of the worker's employment in the case where he ceases to be employed before being allowed such holiday in lieu of a customary holiday.

PART V

GENERAL

Paragraph 11

For the purpose of calculating any period of employment entitling a worker to an annual holiday or to any accrued holiday remuneration under this Schedule, the worker shall be treated—

(i) he has worked for the employer for not less than twenty hours and has performed some work to which statutory minimum remuneration applies; or

(ii) he has been absent throughout the week by reason of proved illness or accident (provided that the number of weeks which may be treated as weeks of employment for such reason shall not exceed four in the aggregate in any such period as aforesaid); or

(iii) he has been suspended throughout the week owing to shortage of work (provided that the number of weeks which may be treated as weeks of employment for such reason shall not exceed six in the aggregate in any such period as aforesaid); and (b) as if he were employed on any day of holiday allowed under the provisions of this Schedule, and for the purposes of sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph, a worker who is absent on such a holiday shall be treated as having worked thereon for the employer on work to which statutory minimum remuneration applies, (i) where the holiday is a customary holiday, or a holiday in lieu of a customary holiday, for eight and a quarter hours if the worker is normally employed for more than 30 hours a week or for four and a quarter hours if he is normally employed for 30 hours a week or less, or (ii) where the holiday is a day of annual holiday, for the number of hours ordinarily worked by him on that day of the week.

Paragraph 12

Where any day of holiday allowed to any worker under this Schedule falls upon a day of holiday or half-holiday to which the worker may be entitled under any enactment other than the Wages Councils Act, 1945, that holiday or half-holiday shall be treated as part of the holiday allowed under this Schedule.

Provided that—

(i) part of a day shall count as a day;

(ii) no account shall be taken of any week in which the worker did not perform any work for which statutory minimum remuneration has been fixed.

"STATUTORY MINIMUM REMUNERATION" means minimum remuneration (other than holiday remuneration) fixed by a wages regulation order made by the Minister to give effect to proposals submitted to him by the Council.

"WEEK" means "pay week."

Paragraph 14

The provisions of this Schedule are without prejudice to any agreement for the allowance of any further holidays with pay or for the payment of additional holiday remuneration.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

The Schedule to this Order, which has effect from the 17th August, 1949, sets out the annual holidays and certain other days of holiday (referred to as "customary holidays") which an employer is required to allow to workers (other than homeworkers) in relation to whom the Dressmaking and Women's Light Clothing Wages Council (England and Wales) operates and the holiday remuneration payable to such workers.

It supersedes the Schedule to Order W.D. (47). New provisions are printed in italics.
