LATE ENTRANTS

Paragraph 3

The minimum remuneration payable during the first twelve months' employment of a worker to whom this Schedule applies (other than a shop manager, shop manageress, cleaner, messenger or porter) who enters or has entered the retail bookselling and stationery trades for the first time at the age of 18 years or over shall be the appropriate remuneration specified in Col. 2 of the Table in paragraph 2 reduced by 15 per cent.

MINIMUM OVERTIME RATES

Paragraph 4

Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, minimum overtime rates are payable to any worker other than a shop manager or a shop manageress as follows:—

(a) On a Sunday or Customary Holiday,

(i) where time worked does not exceed 4½ hours	double time for 4½ hours
(ii) where time worked exceeds 4½ hours but does not exceed 8 hours	double time for 8 hours
(iii) where time worked exceeds 8 hours ..	double time for all time worked

(b) In any week, exclusive of any time in respect of which a minimum overtime rate is payable under the foregoing provisions of this paragraph,

(i) for the first 4 hours worked in excess of 46 hours	time-and-a-quarter
(ii) thereafter	time-and-a-half

Provided that in any week which includes one customary holiday "38 hours" shall be substituted for "46 hours" where it appears in the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, and in any week which includes two customary holidays "30 hours" shall be substituted for the said "46 hours".

WAITING TIME

Paragraph 5

A worker is entitled to payment of the minimum remuneration specified in this Schedule for all the time during which he is present on the premises of the employer, unless he is present thereon in any of the following circumstances, that is to say—

(a) without the employer's consent, express or implied;

(b) for some purpose unconnected with his work, and other than that of waiting for work to be given to him to perform;

(c) by reason only of the fact that he is resident thereon; or

(d) during normal meal times, and he is not waiting for work to be given to him to perform.

GUARANTEED WEEKLY REMUNERATION PAYABLE TO A FULL-TIME WORKER

Paragraph 6

(1) Notwithstanding the other paragraphs of this Schedule, where in respect of any week the total remuneration payable to a full-time worker (as defined in paragraph 8)

(a) under those other paragraphs; and

(b) by way of holiday remuneration under a wages regulation order made by the Minister to give effect to proposals of the Wages Council is less than the guaranteed weekly remuneration provided under this paragraph, the minimum remuneration payable to that worker for that week shall be that guaranteed weekly remuneration.

(2) The guaranteed weekly remuneration payable in respect of any week to a full-time worker is the remuneration to which he would be entitled under paragraph 2 or paragraph 3 of this Schedule for 46 hours' work in his normal occupation, or for 44 hours' such work in the case of a worker under 16 years of age.

Provided that where the worker normally works for the employer on work to which this Schedule applies for less than 46 hours in the week (or, in the case of a worker under 16 years of age, for less than 44 hours) by reason only of the fact that he does not hold himself out as normally available for work for more than the number of hours he normally works in the week, and the worker has informed the employer in writing that he does not so hold himself out, the guaranteed weekly remuneration shall be the remuneration to which the worker would be entitled (calculated as in paragraph 7 of this Schedule) for the number of hours in the week normally worked by the worker for the employer on work to which this Schedule applies.

(3) Guaranteed weekly remuneration is not payable in respect of any week unless the worker throughout his normal working hours in that week (excluding any time allowed to him as a holiday) is—

(a) capable of and available for work ; and

(b) willing to perform such duties outside his normal occupation as the employer may reasonably require if his normal work is not available in the establishment in which he is employed.

(4) Guaranteed weekly remuneration is not payable in respect of any week if the worker's employment is terminated before the end of that week.

(5) If the employer is unable to provide the worker with work by reason of a strike or other circumstances beyond his control and gives the worker four clear days' notice to that effect, guaranteed weekly remuneration shall not be payable after the expiry of such notice in respect of any week during which or during part of which the employer continues to be unable to provide work as aforesaid.

Provided that in respect of the week in which the said notice expires there shall be paid to the worker in addition to any remuneration payable in respect of time worked in that week, any remuneration that would have been payable if the worker had worked his normal hours of work on every day in the week prior to the expiry of the notice.

BASIS OF REMUNERATION

Paragraph 7

(1) Subject to the provisions of paragraph 6 of this Schedule the weekly remuneration specified in this Schedule relates, in the case of a worker aged 16 years or over, to a week of 46 hours exclusive of overtime and, in the case of a worker aged under 16 years, to a week of 44 hours exclusive of overtime and is subject to a proportionate reduction according as the number of hours worked is less than 46 or 44, as the case may be.
