(b) that payments to a chemist shall, as nearly as may be, remain the same as if the payments had been calculated in accordance with the first mentioned method of payment, and payments calculated by any such other method shall be deemed for all purposes to be payments made in accordance with these regulations."

Dated this 23rd day of June, 1949.

Arthur Woodburn,
One of His Majesty's
Principal Secretaries of State.

St. Andrew's House,
Edinburgh, 1.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These regulations amend the National Health Service (General Medical and Pharmaceutical Services) (Scotland) Regulations, 1948, by making certain amendments to the list of appliances which may be supplied to persons receiving general medical services, by providing for an abridged method of payment to chemists, and by making other minor amendments.

The National Health Service (General Medical and Pharmaceutical Services) (Scotland) (Amendment No. 3) Regulations, 1949

1949 No. 2344 (S. 161)

Made - - - -	16*th December*, 1949
Laid before Parliament	16*th December*, 1949
Coming into Operation	16*th December*, 1949

In exercise of the powers conferred on me by section 34 of the National Health Service (Scotland) Act, 1947(a), as amended by Part II of the Schedule to the National Health Service (Amendment) Act, 1949(b), and of all other powers enabling me in that behalf, I hereby make the following regulations:—

1.—(1) These regulations may be cited as the National Health Service (General Medical and Pharmaceutical Services) (Scotland) (Amendment No. 3) Regulations, 1949, and shall come into operation on the 16th day of December, 1949.

(3) The Interpretation Act, 1889(d), applies to the interpretation of these regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

2. The principal regulations shall be amended as follows:—

(1) In paragraph (1) of regulation 2 (which defines certain expressions used in the regulations), for the words "of medical certificates" in the definition of the expression "treatment" there shall be substituted the words "under these regulations of certificates specified in the Fifth Schedule to these regulations being medical certificates reasonably required".

(2) For sub-paragraph (7) of paragraph 7 of the terms of service for medical practitioners contained in Part I of the First Schedule there shall be substituted the following sub-paragraph:—

"(7) A practitioner is required to issue to a patient or his personal representative free of charge any of the certificates described in the first column of the Fifth Schedule to these regulations, being a certificate which is reasonably required by him under or for the purposes of any enactment specified in the second column of the said schedule opposite the description of the certificate in the first column; and any certificate which a practitioner is required to issue for the purposes of the National Insurance Acts, 1946, shall be issued in accordance with any regulations made under those Acts:

Provided that a practitioner shall not be required to issue a certificate where the patient is receiving treatment otherwise than from, or under the supervision of, a medical practitioner."

(3) After the Fourth Schedule there shall be added as the Fifth Schedule the list of medical certificates set out in the Schedule to these regulations.
