(2) The instalments of compensation shall be payable as soon as possible after the corresponding instalments of the purchase price have become payable in accordance with the agreement referred to in the said subsection and have been paid; but where any instalment of the purchase price is paid before the date fixed by the said agreement for payment the Minister may if he thinks fit pay the corresponding instalment of compensation on or as soon as possible after the date of the actual payment of the instalment of the purchase price and before the date fixed by the said agreement for the payment thereof.

Given under the official seal of the Minister of Health this thirtieth day of October, nineteen hundred and fifty.

(L.S.) Aneurin Bevan,
Minister of Health.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These regulations make further provision for the assessment of compensation payable to members of medical partnerships for the loss of the right to sell their practices.

They also extend the time within which claims for compensation may be made and make certain other amendments in the existing regulations.
