The Retail Bespoke Tailoring Wages Council (England and Wales) Wages Regulation Order, 1950

1950 No. 1746

Made - - - - 30*th October,* 1950
Coming into Operation 20*th November,* 1950

R.B. (36)

Whereas the Minister of Labour and National Service (hereinafter in this Order referred to as " the Minister ") has received from the Retail Bespoke Tailoring Wages Council (England and Wales) (hereinafter in this Order referred to as " the Wages Council ") the wages regulation proposals set out in the Schedule hereto, being proposals for fixing the remuneration to be paid by their employers to workers in relation to whom the Wages Council operates in substitution for the remuneration fixed for those workers by the Retail Bespoke Tailoring Wages Council (England and Wales) Wages Regulation Order, 1947(a) (hereinafter in this Order referred to as " Order R.B. (27) ") as amended by the Retail Bespoke Tailoring Wages Council (England and Wales) Wages Regulation Order, 1948(b) (hereinafter in this Order referred to as " Order R.B. (30) ") and by the Retail Bespoke Tailoring Wages Council (England and Wales) Wages Regulation Order, 1949(c) (hereinafter in this Order referred to as " Order R.B. (33) ");

Now, therefore, the Minister, by virtue of the powers conferred on him by section 10 of the Wages Councils Act, 1945(d), and of all other powers in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order :—

Short title and interpretation

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Retail Bespoke Tailoring Wages Council (England and Wales) Wages Regulation Order, 1950.

(2) In this Order the expression " the specified date " means the 20th day of November, 1950, provided that where as respects any worker who is paid wages at intervals not exceeding seven days that date does not correspond with the beginning of the period for which the wages are paid, the expression " the specified date " means, as respects that worker, the beginning of the next such period following that date.

(3) The Interpretation Act, 1889(e), applies to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Fixing of statutory minimum remuneration and revocation of Order R.B. (27), Order R.B. (30) and Order R.B. (33)

2.—(1) Effect is hereby given to the said wages regulation proposals set out in the Schedule hereto.

(2) The provisions of the Schedule hereto shall have effect as from the specified date and as from that date Order R.B. (27), Order R.B. (30) and Order R.B. (33) shall cease to have effect.

Signed by order of the Minister of Labour and National Service this 30th day of October, 1950.

Godfrey H. Ince,
Secretary,
Ministry of Labour and National Service.

SCHEDULE

The following minimum remuneration shall be substituted for the statutory minimum remuneration fixed by Order R.B. (27) as amended by Order R.B. (30) and Order R.B. (33).

STATUTORY MINIMUM REMUNERATION

PART 1.—GENERAL

Paragraph 1

(1) The minimum remuneration payable to a worker to whom this Schedule applies for all work except work to which a minimum overtime rate applies under Part VII is:—

(a) in the case of a time worker, the hourly general minimum time rate applicable to the worker under the provisions of this Schedule;

(b) in the case of a worker employed on piece work,

(i) where a general minimum piece rate (commonly referred to as a "log rate") applies under Part VI of this Schedule, that rate;

(ii) where no general minimum piece rate applies, piece rates each of which would yield, in the circumstances of the case, to an ordinary worker (that is to say, a worker of ordinary skill and efficiency of the class in question) at least the same amount of money as the piece work basis time rate applicable to the worker or, where no piece work basis time rate is applicable, at least the same amount of money as the hourly general minimum time rate which would be applicable to the worker if he were a time worker.

(2) In this Schedule, in relation to a worker to whom a weekly general minimum time rate applies, the expression hourly general minimum time rate means the weekly general minimum time rate applicable to the worker divided by 44.

APPLICABILITY OF STATUTORY MINIMUM REMUNERATION

Paragraph 2

(1) Subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph, this Schedule applies to workers in relation to whom the Retail Bespoke Tailoring Wages Council (England and Wales) operates, that is to say, workers employed in England and Wales in any of the branches of work in the retail bespoke tailoring trade as specified in the Schedule to the Trade Boards (Retail Bespoke Tailoring Trade, England and Wales) (Constitution and Proceedings) Regulations, 1924 (a) which are set out below, that is to say:—

Those branches of men's, women's, boys' and girls' bespoke tailoring in which the tailor supplies the garment direct to the individual wearer and employs the worker direct.

(a) S.R. & O. 1924 (No. 835) p. 1769.

A worker shall be deemed to be employed by the tailor direct, if employed by another worker in the employ of the tailor, to whom a minimum rate of wages fixed under the Wages Councils Acts, 1945 to 1948 is applicable; or if employed by a sub-contractor engaged in cutting, making or finishing garments exclusively for the tailor in the tailor's shop or in a building of which the shop forms part or to which the shop is attached;

Including:—

(a) (i) The altering, repairing, renovating, or re-making of men's, women's, boys' or girls' tailored garments where carried out for the individual wearer by a tailor who employs the worker direct as defined above;

(ii) The cleaning of such garments where carried on in association with or in conjunction with the repairing, renovating or re-making of the garments;

(b) The lining with fur of the above-mentioned garments where carried out in association with or in conjunction with the making of such garments;

(c) All processes of embroidery or decorative needlework where carried out in association with or in conjunction with the above-mentioned branches of tailoring;

(d) The packing and all other operations incidental to or appertaining to any of the above-mentioned branches of tailoring;

but excluding:—

(a) All or any of the above-mentioned operations where carried on in a factory where garments are made up for three or more retail establishments;

(b) The making of head-gear.

(2) This Schedule does not apply to workers employed as cutters, trimmers or packers.

PART IV

RECKONING OF EXPERIENCE

PREVIOUS INSTRUCTION IN AN APPROVED TECHNICAL CLASS

Paragraph 8

Where any worker has, after attaining the age of 15 years and prior to his employment on work to which this Schedule applies, received instruction in tailoring processes in a technical class at any school or other institution and such instruction has been approved by the Wages Council, for the purpose of reckoning the period of his apprenticeship, learnership or other employment in the trade each complete one hundred hours of such instruction in tailoring processes shall be treated as four weeks of apprenticeship, learnership or other employment in the trade. Provided that the period to be so treated as employment in the trade shall not exceed the total number of weeks during which the worker attended the technical class.

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE IN THE TAILORING TRADE

Paragraph 9

Where any worker has at any time been employed as a worker in relation to whom there operated one or more of the following Wages Councils (or of the Trade Boards which respectively preceded them) that is to say, the Retail Bespoke Tailoring Wages Councils for England and Wales and for Scotland, the Ready Made and Wholesale Bespoke Tailoring Wages Council (Great Britain) and the Wholesale Mantle and Costume Wages Council (Great Britain), each such period of employment shall, for the purpose of reckoning the period of the worker's learnership or other employment (not being apprenticeship) in the trade, be treated as though it were an equal period of learnership or other employment in the trade.

EXPERIENCE UNDER THE GOVERNMENT VOCATIONAL TRAINING SCHEME

Paragraph 10

Where any worker has completed the full period of training in retail bespoke tailoring in respect of which training allowances are payable under the Government Vocational Training Scheme, such period of training shall, for the purpose of reckoning the period of the worker's employment in the trade, be treated as though it were a period of five years' employment therein.

PART V

MALE OR FEMALE WORKERS WHOSE TRAINING HAS BEEN INTERRUPTED BY WAR SERVICE

Paragraph 11

Notwithstanding the provisions of Parts II and III of this Schedule, the minimum remuneration applicable to a worker who has completed five years' employment in the trade shall be payable—

(a) to a worker who has completed his period of training as an apprentice or learner under the scheme entitled I.A.S./Scheme No. 49 for the training of apprentices whose apprenticeship has been interrupted by war service, which scheme was adopted by the Wages Council for the trade and approved by the Minister of Labour and National Service on the 16th October, 1946;

(b) on his return to civil employment to a worker who, immediately before entering on war service, had completed at least four years' employment as an apprentice or learner.

Paragraph 12

For the purposes of this Schedule, war service means any period of whole-time service in—

(a) His Majesty's Armed Forces (including training under the Military Training Act, 1939(a));

(b) The Merchant Navy or Mercantile Marine;

(c) The Civil Defence Services;

(d) The National Fire Service;

(b) in the case of any other worker	1 8¼	1 7¼	1 4½

PART VII
OVERTIME AND WAITING TIME
MINIMUM OVERTIME RATES

Paragraph 16

(1) Minimum overtime rates are payable to any worker as follows:—

(a) on any day other than a Saturday, Sunday or customary holiday

(i) for the first two hours worked in excess of 8 hours ... ... Time-and-a-quarter

(ii) thereafter ... ... Time-and-a-half

Provided that where the employer customarily requires attendance on five days only in the week, the said minimum overtime rates of time-and-a-quarter and time-and-a-half shall be payable after 9 hours and 11 hours work respectively;

(b) on a Saturday, not being a customary holiday, for all time worked in excess of 4 hours ... ... Time-and-a-half

(c) on a Sunday or a customary holiday, for all time worked ... ... Double time

(d) in any week for all time worked in excess of 44 hours, exclusive of any time in respect of which any minimum overtime rate is payable under the foregoing provisions of this sub-paragraph ... ... Time-and-a-quarter

(2) The minimum overtime rates set out in sub-paragraph (1) (a), (b) and (c) of this paragraph respectively are payable in any week whether or not the minimum overtime rate specified in sub-paragraph (1) (d) is also payable.

(3) Where the employer customarily requires attendance on Sunday and not on Saturday, for the purposes of this Part of this Schedule (except where in the case of a woman or young person such attendance on Sunday is unlawful) Saturday shall be treated as a Sunday and, subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (4) of this paragraph, Sunday as a Saturday.

(4) Where an ordinary week day is substituted for Saturday, or in the case where the provisions of sub-paragraph (3) of this paragraph apply, for Sunday, as the worker's weekly short day, for the purposes of this Part of this Schedule (except where in the case of a woman or young person such substitution is unlawful) that ordinary week day shall be treated as a Saturday, and Saturday or Sunday (as the case may be), as an ordinary week day.

Paragraph 17

In this Part of this Schedule—

(1) the expression " customary holiday " means

(a) Christmas Day (or, if Christmas Day falls on a Sunday, such other week day as may be appointed by national proclamation, or, if none is so appointed, the next following Tuesday), Boxing Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Whit Monday and August Bank Holiday; or

(b) in the case of each of the said days, a day substituted therefor, being a day recognised by local custom as a day of holiday in substitution for the said day;

(2) the expressions " time-and-a-quarter," " time-and-a-half " and " double time " mean respectively

(a) in the case of a time worker, one and a quarter times, one and a half times and twice the hourly general minimum time rate otherwise applicable to the worker;

(b) in the case where a general minimum piece rate is otherwise applicable to a worker,

(i) a time rate equal respectively to one quarter, one half and the whole of the piece work basis time rate otherwise applicable to the worker or, where no piece work basis time rate is otherwise applicable, of the hourly general minimum time rate which would be applicable to the worker if he were a time worker and a minimum overtime rate did not apply, and in addition thereto,

(ii) the said general minimum piece rate;

(c) in the case where a general minimum piece rate is not otherwise applicable to a worker employed on piece work,

(i) a time rate equal respectively to one quarter, one half, and the whole of the piece work basis time rate otherwise applicable to the worker or, where no piece work basis time rate is otherwise applicable, of the hourly general minimum time rate which would be applicable to the worker if he were a time worker and a minimum overtime rate did not apply, and in addition thereto,

(ii) the piece rates otherwise applicable to the worker under sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 1 of this Schedule.

WAITING TIME

Paragraph 18

(1) A worker is entitled to payment of the minimum remuneration specified in this Schedule for all time during which he is present on the premises of his employer unless he is present thereon in any of the following circumstances:—

(a) without the employer's consent, express or implied,

(b) for some purpose unconnected with his work and other than that of waiting for work to be given to him to perform,

(c) by reason only of the fact that he is resident thereon,

(d) during normal meal times in a room or place in which no work is being done, and he is not waiting for work to be given to him to perform.

(2) The minimum remuneration payable under sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph to a piece worker when not engaged on piece work is that which would be applicable if he were a time worker.

PART VIII

APPRENTICES AND LEARNERS

CONDITIONS AS TO RATES FOR APPRENTICES

Paragraph 19

The general minimum time rates specified in (a) of paragraphs 3 and 6 of this Schedule respectively apply only to an apprentice in whose case the conditions following are fulfilled:—

(a) the apprentice shall be employed for a period of 5 years under, and in accordance with, a written contract of apprenticeship which has been duly executed and (if required by law) duly stamped, and which contains the following provisions, which the Wages Council considers necessary for the effective instruction of the apprentice, or provisions substantially to the same effect, and no provisions contrary thereto, namely,—

(i) the apprentice, of his own free will and with the consent of his guardian, binds himself to serve the employer as his apprentice in his trade of Retail Bespoke Tailoring for a term of five years;

(ii) the employer shall keep the apprentice as his apprentice during the said term and to the best of his power, skill and knowledge shall instruct the apprentice, or cause him to be instructed by a fully qualified tailor or tailoress, in the making throughout of such one or more of the following garments, namely, coats, skirts, trousers, breeches, waistcoats or cassocks as shall be specified in the said contract of apprenticeship and in everything relative to the work of making and completing the same;

(iii) during the first three years of apprenticeship the employer shall not require the apprentice to work during any period for which a minimum overtime rate is payable under the provisions of Part VII of this Schedule; and

(iv) during the said term of apprenticeship the employer shall not put the apprentice on piece work.

(b) the apprentice shall be the holder of a certificate of registration of apprenticeship issued by or on behalf of the Wages Council or of the Trade Board which preceded it, or shall have made application for such a certificate which has been duly acknowledged and is still under consideration.

Provided that the certification of the apprentice may be cancelled by the Wages Council if the other conditions of apprenticeship are not complied with.

PROSPECTIVE APPRENTICES

Paragraph 20

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Schedule, where an employer employs a worker as a prospective apprentice for a probationary period not exceeding three months (or such extended period as is referred to at the end of this paragraph) and all the foregoing conditions of apprenticeship, other than those with regard to employment under a written contract of apprenticeship and certification by the Wages Council are fulfilled in the case of that worker, the minimum remuneration applicable to that worker during the said period shall be that applicable to an apprentice employed in accordance with the conditions specified in the preceding paragraph, and, in the event of the worker being continued thereafter at his employment as an apprentice, the said probationary period shall, for the purposes of this Schedule, be treated as part of the period of apprenticeship, whether or not it is included therein. Where, before the expiration of three months from the commencement of employment as a prospective apprentice as aforesaid, the Wages Council has received and acknowledged in writing written notification of such employment and of the intention of the employer and apprentice to enter into a written contract of apprenticeship the period of three months first referred to in this paragraph may be extended as the Wages Council may consider necessary for the drawing up and execution of the written contract.

DEFINITION OF A LEARNER

Paragraph 21

In this Schedule the expression "learner" means any worker, male or female, who,

(a) not being—

(i) an apprentice employed in accordance with the conditions specified in paragraph 19 of this Schedule;

(ii) a worker who has completed the full period of training in retail bespoke tailoring in respect of which training allowances are payable under the Government Vocational Training Scheme;

(iii) a worker who has been employed for more than five years in the retail bespoke section of the tailoring trade, the ready-made and wholesale bespoke tailoring trade, and the wholesale mantle and costume trade, or in one or more of such trades; or

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

The Schedule to this Order sets out the statutory minimum remuneration to be paid, as from the 20th November, 1950, to workers in relation to whom the Retail Bespoke Tailoring Wages Council (England and Wales) operates. It supersedes the Schedule to Order R.B. (27) as amended by Order R.B. (30) and Order R.B. (33) all of which are revoked.

In addition, the provision in the Schedule to Order R.B. (27) relating to the employment of a learner for a probationary period not exceeding 3 months is omitted from the Schedule to this Order and, in the Table of Areas, Stockton-on-Tees is now in Area B instead of in Area A.

New provisions in the Schedule are printed in italics.
