Matters to which Returns may Relate

2. The matters about which a person may be required to furnish returns for the purposes of the said census shall be all the matters set out in the Schedule to the Act.

Citation and Commencement

3. This Order may be cited as the Census of Production (1952) (Returns and Exempted Persons) Order, 1951, and shall come into operation on the 31st day of December, 1951.

Dated this 19th day of November, 1951.

Peter Thorneycroft,
President of the Board of Trade.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order prescribes the matters about which persons may be required to furnish returns for the purposes of the Census of Production being taken in 1952 and exempts from the obligation to furnish such returns any person carrying on an undertaking in the field of production of coal, gas, electricity, oil shale, crude or refined petroleum or shale oil products to the extent to which, with certain qualifications, the information which would be required by those returns is furnished to the Minister of Fuel and Power under Section 1 of the Statistics of Trade Act, 1947, or under Section 5 of the Electricity Act, 1947, Section 7 of the Gas Act, 1948, Section 3 of the Coal Industry Nationalisation Act, 1946, or Section 23 of the Hydro-Electric Development (Scotland) Act, 1943, as amended by the Electricity Act, 1947.

SUGAR

The Sugar Industry (Provision for Research and Education in the Growing of Sugar Beet in Great Britain) Order, 1951

1951 No. 1000

Made - - - - 4th June, 1951

Whereas by virtue of sub-section (2) of Section 6 of the Sugar Industry Act, 1942(a), the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries and the Secretary of State for Scotland (hereinafter referred to as "the Minister" and "the Secretary of State", respectively) after consultation with the British Sugar Corporation Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as "the Corporation") and a body representative of growers of home grown beet have prepared for the period ending on the 31st day of March, 1952, a programme for carrying out research and education in matters affecting the growing of home grown beet and such programme is set out in the Schedule hereto:

(a) 5 & 6 Geo. 6. c. 16.

Now, therefore, the Minister and the Secretary of State by virtue and in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by Section 6 of the said Act hereby order as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the "Sugar Industry (Provision for Research and Education in the growing of Sugar Beet in Great Britain) Order, 1951".

2. The Interpretation Act, 1889(a), applies for the purpose of the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. The programme of research and education set out in the Schedule hereto shall have effect for the period ending on the 31st day of March, 1952.

4. The contributions from the Corporation and every grower of home grown beet who delivers beet to the Corporation during the period ending on the 31st March, 1952, towards expenditure incurred on the programme of research and education for that period shall be assessed as follows:—

(a) in the case of any grower of home grown beet, the contribution shall be at the rate of one penny for every ton of home grown beet sold by him for delivery to the Corporation in that period.

(b) in the case of the Corporation the contribution shall be at the rate of one penny for every ton of home grown beet delivered to the Corporation in that period, or sixpence for every quantity of sugar manufactured or refined by the Corporation in that period equal to one ton of white sugar, whichever is the less.

5. The rate of the contribution on each ton of home grown beet sold by the grower for delivery to the Corporation during the period ending on the 31st day of March, 1952, shall be specified in all contracts made between the Corporation and the grower concerned. The total amount of the contribution shall be payable by the grower to the Corporation out of any sums standing to the credit of that grower in account with the Corporation and shall be deducted by the Corporation from the amount payable to the grower. The Corporation shall pay the proceeds, together with the amount of the contribution from the Corporation assessed in accordance with Article 4 (b) of this Order, to the Minister within that period for account of the Sugar Beet Research and Education Fund specified in sub-section (3) of Section 18 of the Sugar Industry (Reorganisation) Act, 1936(b). All expenditure properly incurred in carrying out the programme of research and education for the period ending on the 31st day of March, 1952, shall be defrayed from that fund.

6. The amount of any contribution which has not been paid to the Minister during the period within which it is due shall become a debt due to the Minister and without prejudice to any other remedy for the recovery thereof, may be recoverable by him summarily as a civil debt. In its application to Scotland this paragraph shall have effect as if the word "summarily" were omitted.

In witness whereof the Official Seal of the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries is hereunto affixed this 4th day of June, 1951.

(L.S.)

T. Williams,
Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries.

Given under the Seal of the Secretary of State for Scotland this 4th day of June, 1951.

(L.S.)

Hector McNeil,
Secretary of State for Scotland.

SUMMARY PROCEEDINGS, SCOTLAND

Act of Sederunt (Maintenance Orders Act, 1950, Courts of Summary Jurisdiction, Rules) 1951

1951 No. 552 (S. 27)

Made - - - -	28*th March*, 1951
Coming into Operation	31*st March*, 1951

The Lords of Council and Session, under and by virtue of the powers conferred on them by sections 17, 20, 22, 23, 24, 28 and 29 of the Maintenance Orders Act, 1950(a), and of all other powers competent to them in that behalf, do hereby enact and declare as follows:—

1.—(1) This Act of Sederunt may be cited as the Act of Sederunt (Maintenance Orders Act, 1950, Courts of Summary Jurisdiction, Rules) 1951, and shall come into operation on the 31st day of March, 1951.

(2) In this Act of Sederunt the following expressions shall, unless the context otherwise requires, have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them:—

" the Act " means the Maintenance Orders Act, 1950 ;

" court of summary jurisdiction in Scotland " means any two or more justices of the peace or any magistrate or magistrates, by whatever name called, officiating in Scotland under the provisions of any general or local police Act and having jurisdiction to make a maintenance order, but does not include the sheriff ;

" maintenance order " means a contribution order under section ninety-one of the Children and Young Persons (Scotland) Act, 1937(b).

(3) The Interpretation Act, 1889(c), shall apply to the interpretation of this Act of Sederunt as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

2.—(1) An application for the registration in a court of summary jurisdiction in England or Northern Ireland under the Act of a maintenance order made by a court of summary jurisdiction in Scotland shall be made to the clerk of the court which made the order by lodging at his office a statutory declaration or affidavit by the applicant (with a copy thereof) setting forth—

(a) the name and address of the person liable to make payments under the order ;

(b) the reason why it is convenient that the order should be enforceable in England or Northern Ireland, as the case may be ;

(c) the amount of any arrears due under the order ; and

(d) that the order is not already registered under the Act.

(2) If it appears to the clerk that the person liable to make payments under the order resides in England or Northern Ireland and that it is convenient that the order should be enforceable there, he shall send a certified copy of the order and the applicant's declaration or affidavit to the clerk of the court of summary jurisdiction in England or Northern Ireland having jurisdiction where the person liable to make payments under the order appears to be.

(a) 14 Geo. 6. c. 37. (b) 1 Edw. 8. & 1 Geo. 6. c. 37. (c) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.

(3) Particulars of the order and of the proceedings taken under the last foregoing paragraph for its registration in a court in England or Northern Ireland shall be entered in a book to be kept by the clerk of the court (in this Act of Sederunt referred to as " the Maintenance Orders Register "). The clerk of the court which made the order shall be the prescribed officer to whom notice under subsection (4) of section seventeen of the Act of the registration of the order shall be sent, and on receipt of such notice he shall note in the Maintenance Orders Register that the order has been so registered.

3.—(1) An application to a court of summary jurisdiction in Scotland under subsection (5) of section twenty-two of the Act to adduce evidence in connection with a maintenance order made by that court and registered in a court in England or Northern Ireland shall be made in writing by or on behalf of the applicant to the clerk of the court.

The provisions of Rule 65 of the First Schedule to the Sheriff Courts (Scotland) Act, 1907(a), shall apply in relation to the taking and recording of any evidence adduced in pursuance of such an application, with the substitution, however, for references to the sheriff of references to the court; and the transcript or summary of the evidence so adduced shall be sent to the clerk of the court in which the order is registered.

(2) The clerk of the court of summary jurisdiction in Scotland by which a maintenance order registered in a court in England or Northern Ireland was made shall be the prescribed officer to whom any transcript or summary of evidence adduced in a court in England or Northern Ireland under subsection (5) of section twenty-two of the Act in connection with that order shall be sent.

4.—(1) Where a maintenance order made by a court of summary jurisdiction in Scotland and registered in a court in England or Northern Ireland is varied under subsection (1) of section twenty-two of the Act by the court in which it is registered, the clerk of the court which made the order shall be the prescribed officer to whom under subsection (1) of section twenty-three of the Act notice of the variation shall be given; and on receipt of such notice he shall enter particulars of the variation in the Maintenance Orders Register.

(2) Where a maintenance order made by a court of summary jurisdiction in Scotland and registered in a court in England or Northern Ireland is discharged or varied by the court which made it, the clerk of that court shall enter particulars of the discharge or variation in the Maintenance Orders Register and shall give notice to the clerk of the court in which the order is registered by sending him a certified copy of the order discharging or varying the maintenance order.

5. An application under subsection (2) of section twenty-four of the Act in connection with a maintenance order made by a court of summary jurisdiction in Scotland and registered in a court in England or Northern Ireland shall be made to the clerk of the court which made the order by lodging at his office a statutory declaration or affidavit by the person liable to make payments under the order stating the facts on which the application is founded; and if it appears to the clerk that that person has ceased to reside in England or Northern Ireland, as the case may be, the clerk shall send notice to that effect to the clerk of the court in which the order is registered.

(a) 7 Edw. 7. c. 51.

6. Where the registration of a maintenance order made by a court of summary jurisdiction in Scotland and registered in a court in England or Northern Ireland is cancelled under subsection (1) or subsection (2) of section twenty-four of the Act, the clerk of the court which made the order shall be the prescribed officer to whom notice under subsection (3) of that section shall be sent; and on receipt of such notice he shall note in the Maintenance Orders Register that the registration of the order has been so cancelled.

7.—(1) The Maintenance Orders Register required by paragraph (3) of Rule 2 of this Act of Sederunt to be kept by the clerk of a court of summary jurisdiction in Scotland shall be in, or as nearly as may be in, the form set out in the Schedule to this Act of Sederunt.

(2) Any person who satisfies the clerk of a court of summary jurisdiction in Scotland that he is entitled to, or liable to make, payments under a maintenance order made by that court, or a solicitor acting on behalf of any such person, or, with the leave of the clerk, any other person, may inspect the Maintenance Orders Register concerned, and any transcript or summary of evidence relating to the order and sent under section twenty-two of the Act to the clerk of that court, and may take copies of any entry relating to any order registered therein or of any such transcript or summary.

And the Lords appoint this Act of Sederunt to be inserted in the Books of Sederunt.

T. M. Cooper,
I.P.D.

Edinburgh,
28th March, 1951.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Act of Sederunt, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Act of Sederunt provides the detailed procedure for giving effect in Scotland to the provisions of the Maintenance Orders Act, 1950, in relation to contribution orders made under the Children and Young Persons (Scotland) Act, 1937, by courts of summary jurisdiction other than sheriff courts. Under the Act of 1950 such orders can be sent to England or Northern Ireland for registration and enforcement, but the corresponding orders made in England or Northern Ireland are registered and enforced in Scotland in the sheriff court.

SUPREME COURT, ENGLAND

ASSIZES

The Assizes (Birmingham October Assize) Order, 1951

1951 No. 334

Made - - - -	27th February, 1951
Laid before Parliament	28th February, 1951
Coming into Operation	1st July, 1951

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 27th day of February, 1951

Present,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas by Section 72 of the Supreme Court of Judicature (Consolidation) Act, 1925(a), it is enacted that His Majesty may from time to time by Order in Council provide (amongst other things) for the holding of Assizes for the despatch of civil business and for any matters which appear to His Majesty to be necessary or proper for carrying into effect any Order made under that Section;

And Whereas under the Order in Council dated the fourteenth day of May, 1912(b), as amended by the Assizes (Autumn) Order, 1950(c), the Commission days to be fixed, so far as may be practicable, for the Birmingham Summer and Autumn Assizes in any year are the tenth day of July, and the fourth day of December respectively;

And Whereas, owing to the amount of civil business to be despatched at Birmingham, it may be expedient in any year that an additional Assize be held for the despatch of civil business at Birmingham in October;

Now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1. If in any year a Commission of Assize is issued for the despatch of civil business only at Birmingham in addition to the Commission of Assize issued for the despatch of business generally on the Midland Circuit in the Autumn, the Commission Day for any such additional Assize shall be fixed as early in October as may be practicable.
