(b) in column (B) the following paragraph:—

"57. Any person in employment specified in paragraph 57 of column (A) where he renders services in that employment for twenty-four hours or more in a contribution week."

Dated this 1st day of June, 1951.

Edith Summerskill,
Minister of National Insurance.

Dated this 1st day of June, 1951.

Charles Royle,
R. J. Taylor,
Two of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations amend the National Insurance (Classification) Regulations, 1948, by including among the employments in respect of which persons are treated as non-employed persons, employment as a member of the National Hospital Service Reserve. Any person rendering service in this employment for twenty-four hours or more in a contribution week is excepted from the operation of this provision.

The preliminary draft of these Regulations was submitted to the National Insurance Advisory Committee in accordance with section 77 of the National Insurance Act, 1946, and their report thereon, dated the 26th April, 1951, is contained in the House of Commons Paper No. 200 published by His Majesty's Stationery Office.

M.N.I. 203

The Minister of National Insurance, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 43 of the National Insurance Act, 1946(a), and of all other powers enabling her in that behalf, hereby makes the following regulations:—

Citation, interpretation and commencement

1. These regulations, which may be cited as the National Insurance (Determination of Claims and Questions) Amendment Regulations, 1951, shall be

(a) 9 & 10 Geo. 6. c. 67.

read as one with the National Insurance (Determination of Claims and Questions) Regulations, 1948(a), as amended(b) (hereinafter referred to as "the principal regulations"), and shall come into operation on the 16th July, 1951.

Amendment of the principal regulations

2. Regulation 5 and regulation 18 of the principal regulations shall be amended in accordance with the following provisions of these regulations, and shall accordingly have effect as set out in the Schedule hereto.

Amendment of regulation 5 of the principal regulations

3. In regulation 5 of the principal regulations, the words "or if he is satisfied that the decision was given in ignorance of, or was based on a mistake as to, some material fact" shall be inserted after the words "on new facts being brought to his notice".

Amendment of regulation 18 of the principal regulations

4. In regulation 18 the following sub-paragraph shall be substituted for sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph (1):—

"(a) he or they is or are satisfied, but not without fresh evidence in the case of a decision of the Commissioner, that the decision was given in ignorance of, or was based on a mistake as to, some material fact; or".

Dated this 4th day of July, 1951.

Edith Summerskill,
Minister of National Insurance.

SCHEDULE

Regulation 5 of the Principal Regulations, as amended*

Review of decisions by Minister

5. The Minister may, on new facts being brought to his notice or if he is satisfied that the decision was given in ignorance of, or was based on a mistake as to, some material fact, review a decision given by him in accordance with this Part of these regulations:

Provided that any such decision shall not be reviewed while an appeal is pending against the decision of the Minister on a question of law arising in connection therewith, or before the time for appealing has expired.

Regulation 18 of the Principal Regulations, as amended*

Review of decisions of insurance officer, local tribunal or Commissioner

18.—(1) Any decision under this Part of these regulations of an insurance officer, local tribunal or the Commissioner may be reviewed at any time by an insurance officer, or on a reference from an insurance officer, by a local tribunal, if—

(a) he or they is or are satisfied, but not without fresh evidence in the case of a decision of the Commissioner, that the decision was given in ignorance of, or was based on a mistake as to, some material fact; or

(b) there has been any relevant change of circumstances since the decision was given; or

(a) S.I. 1948 (No. 1144) I, p. 2720. (b) S.I. 1949 (No. 1204) I, p. 2708.
* The amendments made by these Regulations are shown in italics.

(c) the decision was based on the decision of any question mentioned in paragraph (1) of regulation 2 or in subsection (2) of section 43 of the Act, and the decision of that question is revised in accordance with the provisions of regulation 5 or in accordance with the provisions of the Family Allowances Act and the regulations made thereunder, as the case may be.

(2) A question may be raised with a view to such a review by means of an application in writing to an insurance officer, stating the grounds of the application.

(3) On receipt of any such application, the insurance officer shall proceed to deal with or refer any question arising thereon in accordance with the provisions of this Part of these regulations.

(4) Any decision given on a review under this regulation, and any refusal to review a decision under this regulation, shall be subject to appeal in like manner as an original decision, and the provisions of this Part of these regulations shall, subject to the necessary modifications, apply in relation to any decision given on a review as they apply to the original decision of a question.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations amend the National Insurance (Determination of Claims and Questions) Regulations, 1948, so that the Minister may review his own decision and an insurance officer or, on a reference from him, a local tribunal may review any decision of an insurance officer or a local tribunal, if the decision was given in ignorance of, or was based on a mistake as to, some material fact notwithstanding the absence of new facts or fresh evidence.

The preliminary draft of these Regulations was submitted to the National Insurance Advisory Committee in accordance with Section 77 of the National Insurance Act, 1946, and their report thereon, dated the 5th June, 1951, is contained in the House of Commons Paper No. 220 published by His Majesty's Stationery Office.
