1951 No. 2234

Made - - - - 17*th December*, 1951

Coming into Operation 1*st January*, 1952

Whereas certain aliens, being former prisoners of war, were on readmission to the United Kingdom granted leave to land and there was attached to the grant of that leave conditions that they should report at once to the police, that they should not enter any employment other than that in which they were engaged immediately prior to their departure from the United Kingdom, without the consent of the Ministry of Labour and National Service, that they should not engage in any business or profession without the consent of the Secretary of State and that they should leave the United Kingdom not later than such date as might be specified by the Secretary of State, and the last three conditions are still in force:

And Whereas certain other aliens, being former prisoners of war, were on readmission to the United Kingdom granted leave to land and there was attached to the grant of that leave conditions that they should report at once to the police, that they should not enter any employment other than that in which they were engaged immediately prior to their departure from the United Kingdom and that they should leave the United Kingdom not later than such date as might be specified by the Secretary of State, and the last two conditions are still in force:

And Whereas it is expedient that the said conditions should be revoked with effect from the first day of January, nineteen hundred and fifty-two:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon me by Articles 1 and 17 of the Aliens Order, 1920(a), as subsequently amended, I hereby revoke in the case of the said aliens the said conditions.

This Instrument may be cited as the Aliens (Landing Conditions) (Former Prisoners of War) Instrument, 1951, and shall come into operation on the first day of January, 1952.

David Maxwell Fyfe,
One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.
